TALL RYE .- Mr. B. Frank Heise, of West Hempfield township, has sent to this office a stock of Rye which measures eight feet two inches without the roots. This is tall Rye, and we doubt whether it can be beat. Hunt your Rye field, farmers, and INCENDIARISM .- The Borough Council has increased the reward for the arrest and conviction of parties guilty of setting fire to buildings within the borough limits. It is now five hundred dollars. We would suggest that a detective be engaged to spend few weeks in our midst. We feel satisfied a few hundred dollars could not be expended more profitably. Altoona has tried the experiment with saccess.

CLOSE OF THE DRUMMER BOY .- The "Drummer Boy of Shiloh," closed in Columbia on Saturday evening, after a very successful run of eight days. The Committee, and all others interested are deserving of much praise for the efficient manner in which the play was produced. The scenery, &c., was shipped to Lebanon yesterday, where the Allegory will be re-produced at an early date.

DIVORCES.—Many eminent divines of different denominations have lately been making efforts to arrest the facility with which divorces are granted in so many of our States. But they would do a far higher service if they would strike at the root of the whole evil, which is found in the careless manner in which marriages are performed. It is this that so often destroys the sanctity of marriage obligations, and annuls sumed.

REGISTERING OF DOGS .- We would hereby direct the attention of all persons who own or harbor dogs, to the notice of the Secretary of the Borough, to be found in our advertising columns. All receipts of registry run out the 30th of this month. During the month of July they must be renewed. Those who fail to have their dogs registered during that time are liable to be be fined, and they will be, for the Chief Burgess has determined that all who will not obev the laws of the Borough, must pay the penalty for disobedience. Office of the Secretary, 216 South Second street.

SUCCESSFUL TROUT FISHING .- Friday a party of four gentlemen of this city—Messrs. D. Bair, Jr., W. G. Bender, Edward Leary and C. F. HENRY J. RAYMOND .- H. J. Raymond, Editor of the New York Times, is dead. Of his private character we know nothing and therefore have nothing to condemn; but of his political character we never did approve. He was uncertain and unreliable. He did what he could to destroy the integrity of the Republican party as against the traitor Johnson to force him and his corrupt policy upon us as worthy of our support, when he knew the contrary to be the truth. This was done, not to accomplish any great good, but for his own aggrandisement and self-importance. He aped to be a leader in Congress, and to dethrone from that proud position the Grand Old Commoner. Thuddens Stevens, but signally failed, and learned the stale truth, that a viper may gnaw a file and harm nobody but himself. To retrieve his fallen for tunes he manipulated a mongrel convention in Philadelphia, which resulted only to his disgrace, and he has been of little or no account ever since.

CHURCH DEDICATION .- St. Paul's German Evangelical Lutheran Church, on Locust street, between Fifth and Sixth streets. this place, was dedicated to the worship of the Triune God, on Sunday last, by solemn and impressive ceremonies, both in German and English language. Services were held at 10 A. M., in the German language, and also at 2 P. M., when the Revs. G. A. Hinterleitner, of Pottsville, and J. J. Kuendig, of Rending, officiated. English services took place in the evening at 7 o'clock, when Rev. E. Greenwald, of Lancaster, delivered an eloquent sermon on the occasion. The church was crowded during the entire day, and hundreds could not obtain admission. me consoling themselves by a peep through the windows, or a seat outside the house. Eleven cars filled with Lancasterans, principally of Zion's Lutheran congregation, of that city, arrived in Columbia in a special train about 9 o'clock, A. M. over the Pennsylvania Railroad, besides hundreds of people who came in vehicles, on horseback, and otherwise; our town was filled the entire day by a large concourse of strangers, who were satisfactorily entertained by our citizens during their stay among us. The special train left for Lancaster early in the evening, and the cars were filled to their utmost capacity.

CHAPTER OF FIRES .- On Suuday morning last, between one and two o'clock, the frame dwelling of Mrs. Mary Shomair, on Front street, above Walnut, was discovered to be on fire, by an employee of the Penn'a Railroad Company, whose train was passing at the time. He jumped off and extinguished the flames which were beginning to make rapid progress, and would no doubt, had they not been discovered in the nick of time, made a very disastrous conflagration. The fire was the work of an incendiary, and kindled with shavings and small bits of pine wood, directly at the corner of the house, at the entrance of a gateway off Front street. A small piece of lumber was raised slantingly over the burning material, evidently to conduct the flames up the weather-boarding.

About a quarter or half hour later, a frame structure, belonging to Wm. Whipper, colored, situated on the commons he low the bridge, was set on fire and entirely consumed, together with a lot of sawed wood, tools, etc., belonging to John Brown. A lot of lumber, timber, &c., piled in the vicinity, was saved from destruction by the timely arrival of the steamers. "On Sanday, 19th inst., an attempt was made to fire John Brown's stable.

Buy Your COAL -Now is the time to have all gone to work throughout the coal regions.

FRUIT.—The fruit crop in this vicinity vill be abundant. In the neighborhood of Columbia there will be more fruit of all kinds than has been known for many years. THE FOURTH .- The Fourth of July will be celebrated in Columbia on Monday, the fifth. The Banks and places of business will be closed. RAILROAD ENTERPRISE .- At Coatesville, on Monday last, the first spike was driven and the first rail laid on the Wilmington and Reading Railroad. A general good time was had. Speeches were made and Champagne flowed in the East.

WHEN you buy a ready-made coat and don't want to have the fact known, be sure and pull off the price mark on the back of the collar. We noticed an airy chap going down street with the tell-tale pasteboard on the collar of his coat, yesterday.

COLUMBIA GOSSIP MARKET .- Mariages scarce and depressed; engagements dull, and but few coming forward; courtships good and prime; scandal market overstocked; heaux, supplies light, stock inferior, and good demand; neighbors' quarrels plenty, and stock accumulating; tattling, a fall assortment.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXCURSION .- The Methodist Episcopal Sunday Sthool, of this place, will have an excursion to Litiz, on Tuesday next, 29th. The train will leave the Reading and Columbia Railroad depot at S A. M., precisely. Tickets for the round trip, fifty cents; children under twelve years of age, twenty-five cents.

PAY Up .-- Persons who have received bills from this office will greatly oblige by sending the amount at once. Reader, if you owe us anything, send it while you think of it. "THE AMERICAN MECHANIC."-Rev. W. S. H. Keyes will deliver a lecture in Odd Fellows' Hall, on Tuesday evening next, for the benefit of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, Subject, "THE AMERICAN MECHANIC." Tickets, twenty-five cents. Mr. Keyes is just the man for the subject he has chosen, and we hope to see him have a crowded house.

SUN STROKES .- Now that the season for sun strokes is here, it behoves all, and especially those whose business calls them much out of doors, to be careful and reguar in all their habits. The daily guzzling of beer and other liquids, is just the thing to mark an individual as the victim of an epidemic or other undesirable effect which follows the intense heat of a summer's sun

THE Columbia rolling mill is still idle, and the engine, muchinery, &c., are literally going to ruin for want of propper attention. What a pity, when the works could be made to pay, and hundreds of laborers employed, to the interest of the borough. We understand the proprietors will neither run the mill nor sell to more enterprising parties. PARADE AT LITIZ .- On Monday, July 5th, a parade and meeting of the Order of United American Mechanics will be held at Litiz. The column will form at 1 o'clock P. M., and parade through the village to the springs, where a short address will be delivered. The primary object of the demonstration is to establish a Council of the Order at that place.

The ground is deeded solely to the military.—Jeffersonian.

This is right. These boly grounds have been greatly neglected of late years. The monument is sadly defaced; the corner stone has been pryed out, and other acts committed by vandal hands. We are glad that the Chester County Courts have taken some action in the matter, and we know that Capt. Wm. Wayne, who lives in the reighborhood, will see that the historic Paoli ground will be better taken care of in future.

INCENDIARY FIRES .- That an incendiary spirit prevails in our Borough to a fear-ful extent, nobody will deny. For weeks and months past facts have too plainly indicated a determined destruction of property from time to time, under the promptngs of a most unpardonable motive. It is now time that this thing should cease, and those citizens who desire protection for their property, and probably their lives, must act without delay and upon due consideration, adopt such measures as will lead not only to the prevention of facendiary fires, but to prompt conviction and punishment of the guilty. We fully believe, that our noble firemen, who are al-

It was wonderful to witness the manner in which Farmer Howard, Tom Elliott, Pap Elliott, Uncle Joe and Harry Howard stowed away the strawberries and cream. Their capacity for hiding away rations, beats Fattie Smith all hollow. The evening was most agreeably spent.

The gentlemen and ladies vied with each other in their efforts to make the reunion a pleasant one. When Major General G. says he is going to have a feast, it means something. The last we saw of Uncle Joe he was

"fumbling for a newspaper," and asking for more berries and cream. Tom made his exeunt in Farmer Elliott's buggy; the last remark we heard him make was something about smothering him with strawberries and cream. Farmer H. had to be hauled home in Strein's sulky, the horse thereto attached having given out before their arrival it Second street, another was substituted which accomplished the journey.

DEATH OF A. W. CARPENTER, ESQ.-DEATH OF A. W. CARPENTER, 1582.—We record with sincere regret the death of A. W. Their establishment is one of the most extensive in the city, and their traiting for employer that trade with Druge. of the most extensive in the city, and their facilities for supplying the trade with Drugs Oils, Paints, Glass, Dye Stuffs, Spices, &c., are most extensive. More Industrable Proof.—Capt. James Gallagher, Steambont Captain, of Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "The inventor of Mishler's Herb Bitters is a benefactor of the human race. I was a victim to the worst form of Dyspepsia; my health failed to such a degree that the physicians pronounced me incurable. I had used all sorts of remedies, and even took a voyage to California, but nothing relieved me. The Bitters were finally recommended; I refused to use it; my friends insisted, and at last I yielded. I am thankful that I was induced to do so, for the Bitters cured me entirely; and I am now as well, hale, and strong as I was fifteen years ago." Sold by druggists generally. There are cases in this city where the most radical cures have been effected in chronic diseases—cures which the best physicians could not effect, and we know of scores of families (our own among the number), who amilies (our own among the number), who would not be without a plentiful supply of this Great Household Remedy for any consideration: Let every family in the lund keep is on hand." MANY a man with his mind fully made MANY a man with his mind fully made up to insure "some day," is yet differing the matter from one cause or another, with little idea of the great risk he is running of defeating his design by his delay. Leaying out of account the fact that he may die at any time, the risks he runs, of accidents, of disease which would put him-beyond ayajing himself of the advantages of life insurance, ought not to be lost sight of. To-day you are a first class risk, and can insure, your life on the most favorable rate and for almost any amount, but to-morrow you your life on the most favorable rate and for almost any amount, but to-morrow you may be so injured by disease or accident, as to be such a risk as no sound company assume. The time to insure is immediately; and the Company to insure you is "The American Life Insurance Co., of Philadelphia."

A DISTINGUISHED Methodist Minister and prominent Temperance Lecturer once remarked that go where he would, from one end of the country to the other, he hardly over failed to find Plantation Bitters, and while he condemned the practice of using these Bitters too freely, he could not consci-entiously say that he would discard them from the side-board, for he had himself exfrom the side-board, for he had himself ex-perienced beneficial results from their use, and that, from a long and close observation, he was convinced exclusively, they were all that was recommended. At the same time he warned his hearers not to pull the cork too often, for they were far too pleasant a tonic to trifle with. Magnolia Water.—Superior to the best

After the inner man was supplied, the company was ably presided over by our very genial friend, Michael Nisbet, Esq., M. E. G. K. of the Grand Chapter of Pennsylvania. An interchange of sentiment, recitations

ing until the clock admonished the Com panions of Columbia, that the time for leav ing for home had arrived, when the company dispersed, first all joining hands and inging "Auld Lang Syne," A more perfect set of gentlemen, and congenial fellows it has never been our lot to be associated with, and we shall long cherish the memories of that evening. Corinthian Chapter is now fairly affoat and everything bids fair for a good voyage. She has our best wishes for her future prosperity.

High and Low Moral Pressure Principle.

Epiton Spy:—I see it sneeringly stated by a county paper that the State Guard, a newspaper at Harrisburg, "was started a few years ago on the high moral pressure principle," that it his been false to its professions of love to the soldier, and this charge is sustained by some show of plausibility. I feel constrained to notify my modest criticising friend that he need not take this seeming tergiversation so much to heart, for that I too know of a newspaper conducted on the low moral pressure principle that is not much better, for it has been quite as false in its dealings with the soldier, and to nearly overy other profession it has ever made. While this paper has pretended to be and has been looked upon as the organ of its party upon true and correct principles, it has been a mere machine for its own selfish purposes, ever ready for burgain and sale with corrupt politicians and to unite with the thing organization that "thrift may follow fawning." It has done more to demoralize its own political friends, to increase the numbers and strengthen the hands of the Thug party than any other instrumentality, and is of so little efficiency in advancing true Republican principles and the true honest purposes of the Republican party, that if it were blotted out of existence, the blessing would more than compensate the loss. I know, too, an editor who has tried the low purposes of the Republican party, that if it were blotted out of existence, the blessing would more than compensate the loss. I know, too, an editor who has tried the low moral pressure principle for many years as the basis of his claims for political preferment, almost times without number. Among other favorite conceits, his keen salacious eye has led him to expect a recelection to the State Senate against the almost unanimous wish of the people of his county, a sent in Congress, the office of Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Inspectorship of Flour, Whisky, Leather, all or either, and finely and sadly the Marshalship of the Eastern District, for which backed up by two U. S. Senators and sixteen members of Congress, who falsified themselves by recommending him, he made two sturdy assaults upon the White House, moral pressure principle failed him, and he fell ingloriously disappointed, defeated and sorely wounded. So that if the strictures upon the State Guard be correct, it makes no difference as far as their paper's are concerned, whether they act upon the high or low moral pressure principle. The result is the same, except that one is a little more facent than the other. I would therefore, that to heal his sores he had better make a prompt and thorough reformation, and possibly his example may have a salutary influence upon those who have unfortunately followed his teachings and practice. An improved record may bring him a good reward, and possibly his present efforts for a foreign mission (God save the Commonwealth) may be successful.
