A NOVELTY .- Rev. W. S. H. Keys has the agency of a novel invention, called "Billing's American Dry House, which is the finest invention ever known for drying fruit. It costs but a trifle, and in one day's time will do the drying which ordinarily takes two weeks. Apples and peaches are dried in from five to six hours, and smaller fruits, and berries in a few hours. It is unti-sweat anti-sorely and anti-sour and in fact the sine quanon of every fruit grower. Mr. Koys is the agent at Columbia and Mr. Lehman at Harrisburg.

MEETING AT BAREVILLE .--- A large Republican meeting was held at Bareville, Upper Leacock township, at the holel of muel Cox, on Saturday evening the 25th inst. Stirring speeches were made by E. C. Reed, E.q., Capt. D. P. Rosenmiller, Maj. A. C. Remoehl, Gen. J. W. Fisner, and Capt. E. H. Rauch. 'The latter ventilated effectually the record of Packer, having resided in Mauch Chunk for a number of years.- A drizzling rain fell at intervals but earnest feeling prevades the masses, and our districts will give a good account of themselves on the 12th of October uext.

GEARY MEETING .- A large meeting of and the people are rallying to the standard of Geary and Williams. Speeches were made A. B. Frautz, B. C. Kready, Esqs., Dr. Gatchell, C. L. Hunsicker, (in German) and Mai, J. W. Yocum. A brass band was in attendance. The interest was maintained to the last.

Delegations were present from neighboring townships, some in carriages, some on foot, and some mounted. The Democrats of preserving the happy recollections of the are terribly alarmed at the prospects of overwhelmning majorities for Geary; quite a posts and trees, who we hope went home Post 118 has a large and influential memposts and trees, who we hope went home wiser, if not better men.

BAD AND GOOD LUCK:-An interesting account of how "we lost our carpet bag" was told us by Mr. H. H. Heise, of this place. The story runs thus : Mr. M. S. Clapp, the general agent of the Cleveland Lightning Rod Company, step-

ticket for Harrisburg. While paying for his ticket, he pluced his carpet-bag or valise on the floor, but when he came to get it was gone, where, no one could tell. Crushing his ticket into his pocket, he ran out of the office after the thief. He saw two men running at a rapid rate ; he gave chase, but after going a square or two lost sight of the thief among the alleys and dens of the outskirts of the city. He quickly retraced his steps, and jump-ing into a Market Street car intended to go to the Chief of Police's office. While in the car, he noticed a pair of suspicious chaps. who tried to conceal something between their feet. Upon glancing carefully at the object of their care, he recognized the iden-tical valise which had been stolen from him. He grabbed "it; and for a moment there was a struggle for the property-the hour being, late, and no policemen on duty. He succeeded, however, "in obtaining his property. This good fortune is only ap-preciated when it is known that he had in, the valise upwards of $20,000 in cash orders, payable to the bearer, besides some gold. This is one case of good luck out of a thou-
