Those interested should attend. on Saturday, November 2nd, at 71 o'c ock P. M., and close on Thursday evening.

WITH this number of the SPY we issue a supplement containing the election returns for Lancaster County. Our readers will find it interesting, and as a valuable table might be preserved for future political reference. The large amount of local matter prevented as from placing the table on the pages of the SPY.

READ "In a Boiler" on the outside page, and our column of "Wise and otherwise" on last page. To those young gen-tleman of Columbia, Marietta, Mount Joy, and even of Lancaster, who are so hurried ly and wildly rushing into matrimonial entanglements, the experience of Higgins will be particularly retreshing.

To any person, who sends us $4.00 cash, we will send a copy of the SPY for one year subscription price being $2.00; a copy of The Independent, the largest newspaper in the world, suscription price $2.50; and in addition we will present such person with splendid steel engravings of Grant and Colfax worth $2.00 each,-thus giving the worth of $8.50 for $3.50. Let our readers help to increase the circulation of the SPY.

A Card of Thanks.

The ladies of the German Lutheran Church take this method to thank the public of Columbia for their liberal support during the continuance of the fair; and they feel themselves especially indebted to the following ladies and gentlemen, whose kind assistance they know how to appreciate, viz : Messrs Bonson, Sticker, Schomaker and Schneider, and Misses Mellinger, Hinkle, Barr, Camel, Fisher, Daily, Lebegern, Hofmaster, Scho maker, and Blessing, of Lancaster. Also to Messrs. G. F. Tate, R. H. Harris, and Wm. Block.

the urgent necessity felt by everybody. A wreck of several freight cars near the weigh office attracted a large number of visitors to the spot on Monday evening. The farmers are bringing large quantities of the finest apples to market, and offering them at low rates. Apples, cider and nuts, the usual mouth pieces during winter evening will be plentiful this year.

AMUSEMENTS .- The Wesley Dramatic Troupe gave two entertainments here during the week-one on Monday evening and the last on Tuesday. The programme for Tuesday embraced "Ten Nights in a Barroom," " Napoleon's Old Guard," and the amusing sketch of "Sandy and Jenny." The bill was a pretty strong one, and the cast of characters quite good.

The character of Sample Switchel by Mr. Wesley, was a very fine personation, and elicited the admiration of the audience. The other characters were quite well sustained, especially " The Drunkard" by Mr. George Clair. Miss Hattie Wesley a daughter of the manager and a young lady of mor than ordinary dramatic ability, personated most handsomely the character of Mary Morgan. Miss Wesley's movements on the stage are quite graceful and with a little more care in the management of her voice will attract both by her grace and pleasan expression.

The comic part of the programme was received with intense appreciation, if we may judge by the bursts of laughter and and applause. It was amusing to witness the many shapes, gestures, facial contortious &c., lit subjected our " laugh and grow fat" representatives to. Some of the juvenile population were almost electrified with the comic personations, and laughed till their eyes streamed with tears.
