------On Friday afternoon last a shocking ca

lamity occured on the Lohigh Valley Railroad, at the iron bridge, in this city. Mrs. Harrison Butz and her daughter were proceeding down the railroad on their way to the East Penn. Depot, to see a friend off in the 4.20 train. They heard the approach of a locomotive and looking round, saw that the engine was not on the track they were walking on and considering thea selves safe, paid no futher attention to it; but when the engine was nearly up to them the whistle was blown for a man some distance ahead, and the sound so frightened Miss track, was caught by the engine and instantly killed. Her mingled remains presented a shocking sight. Her bowels protruded and one arm was cut off. Miss Butz was only about eight years of age and the event has created a fund of sympathy for her bereaved parents. We have scarcely ever been called upon to chronicle so sad a calamity, where it was, as in this case, apparently the result of no carelessness upon ther side. Her remains were interred on Sunday afternoon and were followed by an unusually large number of friends, -Lehigh Register.

FROM LANCASTER.-The latest excitement here is the Auditor's Report. It is considored the a blest state paper over issued by any county officers. It will no doubt have a good effect. Commissioners' extravagance Prison Reform and bridge building each receive a full share of attention. The auditors deserve the support and gratitude of the tax-payers of this county. Col. Shoch, who heads the board is a fearless advocate of reform. His services will be fully annew dress. It looks well, but it cost too much.---Griest of the Inquirer and "Jolly Jack" are boiling over with rage at the late defeat of the Treasury ring .- The broken slates which the Ecpress mys Quay is hurling at the Pennsylvania Railroad have not causeed any detention of trains .- Lancaster is remarkably dull. There is nothing of the sensational anywhere except the Binkley Bridge case, which is regarded as a huge swindling job.—The compliment paid "our efficient District Attorney" by the Grand Jury, in view of the almost whole sale acquittal of prisoners, is consider d by the knowing ones a huge joke. It is true he is very efficient in the non-prosecution of cases on the part of the Common wealth. The last court was a general jail delivery The grand jury do not speak of the extortions practised by the prison officials.____J. J. Sprenger delivered a lecture on his travels across the continent on Tuesday evening-It was quite interesting and has elicited much favorable comment.

Prince Authur, it is supposed, will visit Lancaster, where he will be the guest of working order as the day I bought it. Early in the week several agents from New York came here with the express design of buying up the crop. They tried to buy of the firmers of Manor and other townships near Columbia, but finding that they invariably asked too much-prices ranging from 20 to 40 cents a pound-left for the west. With gold down they can not possibly buy at resentasking prices. We apprehend an unfavorable issue out of this tendency to

These accounts are good enough, but can not be settled till this immense crop is sold, and removed and the purchase money paid. Our merchants are in tura cramped in their business engagements, and this again affects the trade of large cities. To relieve this, let our farmers sell at living prices, discharge their obligations here, enable our merchants to adjust their accounts in the cities, and at least contribute a small quota towards inducing an

SAD OCCURRENCE.-On Friday last, says the York Democrat, about 2 o'clock P. M., a sad and painful occurrence took place in the family of Prof. G. W. Ruby, of the York County Academy, in this borough. Irs. Ruby had left her two interesting little twin Children up stairs, for a few moneuts, while she attended to some household duty below; when one of them approached a ten-plate stove, in the room, and its clothing accidentally took fire. No other person was in the room at the time, and before Mrs, Ruby could return to the children the little sufferer was so badly burned that it died about four o'clock the same day. It was an interesting little boy about three years of age, and of the twins, was the only one that could walk. This is a most sad and painful accurrence and has brought sorrow and glother upon a kind, christian and intelligent household. Mr Ruby and his heart-stricken lady have the sympathy and condolence of the entire mmunity.

ngdon Monitor in shocking the moral sense of the community by the recital of a tale of wretchedness and depravity, such as should never be found in a reputed family newspaper. We candidly submit the question whether the offense of Dr. Landis, in openly publishing an obscene paper, and thus affording the watchful parent an opportunity o guard his family against its corruptin nfluences, is not less aggravated than filling the columns of a family newspaper with such vile trash. We trust that the authorities of Dauphin county, in fact all over the State, will bring all offenders against the laws-human and divine-to an account, but we do hope for the sake of the moral sentiment of this community, that we will be spared any similar future attempt on the part of our neighbor to rival the New York Police Gazette or the La Crosse Democrat in detailing the adventures and conquests of wretched women, and libertine?.

Our Village. EDITOR OF THE SPY :

A residence of twenty years in Columbia convinces me that there is no town in the ete where the Sabieth is so generally observed as in Columbia. Our streets are ungenerative of the second state of the second s that our Sundays are oppressively quiet, and they observe too, the large proportion of our population, who attend church, our espect for the Salbath and the holy observances of the day are tests of the morals of the community. Drunken men or boys are eldoin seen upon our streets (except from Lancaster or neighboring towns) and never on Sundays.

Yet in the face of these facts a stranger ies to town to deliver a lecture; in the course of the exercises he prays that God might "bless this little village," and save it from the crowds of drunken men and boys. the roll through our streets on Sabbath. While I entertain the highest regard for e cause of temperance and an willing to all I chiefor its promotion, I do but exig that such causeless insinuations are productive of more harm than good. No speaker can succeed, who creates an unfa-vorable impression in the outstart, and much less one, who so completely revolutionizes society, and multiplies population, as to build up out of a "little village," a flourishing town, and in turn a great " city," in the course of a two hours' lecture. The ommon sentiment of the people against the habitual tippler or the occasional dramdrinker, and the wholesome action of our religious organizations, will do more to complete temperance redemption than volumes of wholesale denunciation or misstatements Let each member of society be a special lecturer, and let him provide himself with such facts and information as will not subject him to the ridicule of the public. VERITAS.
