Meeting of the County Committee. A meeting of the Republican County Committee will be held in the "Orphans' Court Room," in the city of Lancaster, on Monday, the 21st inst., at 11 o'clock, A. M.

At a meeting of the committee of Ways and Means of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg on Friday last, the Border Bill was considered, and after a stormy session, it was reported favorably.

The success of the raiders has taken everybody by surprise, as it was imagined that it would be rejected from the committee with a negative recommendation, and the fact that it has received an affirmative report has given rise to all sorts of rumors.

WASHINGTON. In the Senate on Monday, Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to provide for the resumption of specie payments. In the House Mr. Marshall offered a resolution declaring for a reduction of taxation, and that no tariff should be imposed on any article above the lowest rate at which it will yield the highest revenue.

Mr. Butler, of Mass., offered a joint resolution, which was passed, allowing owners of homesteads to deduct interest paid on mortgages from their income returns.

In the House, Mr. Schenck moved the reference of the Funding bill to the Ways and Means Committee, and Mr. Gardner moved its reference to the Banking and Currency Committee.

The Georgia bill was taken up, and Mr. Revels, the colored Senator from Mississippi, made his first speech in the Senate, opposing the Bingham provision.

In the House, Mr. Stevenson, from the Election Committee, made a report in the Louisiana case of Hunt vs. Sheldon, declaring Sheldon entitled to the seat.

A delegation of colored Georgians called upon the President yesterday, and asked his influence to defeat the Bingham amendment.

The Prison Bill. Above our last we referred to the Prison Bill as likely to pass both Houses. Since then we have had the gratifying intelligence that this attempt to drag the courts into partisan politics will fail.

Specie Payments. The financial editor of the Philadelphia Ledger does not think we are so near to specie payments as many people seem to imagine.

The Treasury Investigation. On Wednesday evening the 9th inst., the Senate Finance Committee held a meeting, when the Chairman, Mr. Billingsfield, submitted a report in regard to Gen. Irwin's refusal to be sworn, which report was agreed to, and on the following day submitted to the Senate.

Treasury Reform. Remarks of John B. Wattle, esq., delivered in the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 2d, 1870, on the bill to reform the management of the finances of the State.

It will be impossible to condense in one short article a fair statement of how much has been done for Columbia by that class of our citizens, who are promiscuously termed carpet-baggers.

A gentleman, who belongs to this distinguished, but often persecuted class of our fellow citizens writes that prominent amongst our carpet-baggers is one who perhaps has done more to promote the development of Columbia than any other.

The immense lumber trade of Columbia is due mainly to the energy of gentlemen who coming from abroad invested their capital here.

Another enterprise, undertaken by gentlemen from a neighboring county has been attended with great success, and has been made to yield a liberal income to the proprietors, and furnish steady employment to a large number of skilled laborers.

trunk tracks in our State came from Great Britain, in area but little larger than our own State, but through her manufactures one of the first powers of the world.

"The water-power of our State is absolutely unexplored. With two of the mightiest rivers of the world, one washing our whole eastern line and the other dividing the State near its center from West to East, we have other rivers and streams unsurpassed facilities for manufacturing.

"If, under any circumstances, there were ever wise a State to engage in manufacturing or mining, no one will advance the idea that our State can, in her present financial condition, embark in such enterprises.

"What can we afford to do, in view of our financial condition as a State, in order to place before the millions of this and other countries correct information as to our climate, soil, agricultural products, minerals, timber and water power?"

"It is for you to have regard to all of these interests in your own State, and, as wise legislators, in your deliberations, leave the question of a national tariff to the wisdom and discretion of those selected as national legislators in view of whatever necessity there may be for a national revenue.
