THE Philadelphia Democrats are split up on the negro question, and are about to disband the organization known as the 'Democrtic Association of Pennsylvania.' in consequence. At the last meeting resolutions were offered to this effect, and some spicy speeches were made on the occasion, one of them by a Mr. Karnes, an "old fogy," in which he referred to the new doctrines which were inaugurated by the new Saturday night speeches. He was in favor of disbanding the association at once; he did not want to see it go into the power and hands of those who preached the new doctrines. He for one was in faver of a "white man's government." and as of late the association did not favor this view, it had better be dissolved. After a big 'row' between the 'old' and 'new lights' the meeting adjourned to meet again on March 29, at 74 o'clock, when the question of continunig or dis solving the association will be settled.

The Night of St. Bartholomew.

Monday night was, to use a Hyberni cism, a regular Field Day in the House. The roosters flaunted their gayest plumage, and flapped their wings, and crowed | down at the end for $10. so lustily that the very rafters of the capitol vibrated with the noise. As the hours of official existence are waning, the character of the legislation becomes more profligate. It would be in vain to run through the catalogue of bills that were hurried to final passage that night. The bills were read merely by their titles and passed in a twinkling, and all who are familiar with with Pennsylvania legisla-tion know how ingeniously the language had reparied to the headg of the title is made to cover the fraudu-lent nature of the act. Scarcely a member, except those who had charge of a bill knew its contents, for no opportunity was given to examine them. With such un-up, and knocked down fo scendy haste were the bills rushed through a gentleman who, it is to that the reporters could hardly catch the titles, and it was not intended that they chould. As if to give some show of de should. As if to give some show of de-cency and deliberation to the proceedings, two or three bills were reconsidered, but this was, probably, for the purpose of giving them a fresh "squeeze." The shameful scene was kept up until a late hour, the chanticleers finally desisting from downright exhaustion. Long will Monday night be remembered in the dis-graceful annals of Pennsylvania legisla-tion.—Patriot.
