

Saturday, June 4, 1870.

Advertisements to secure immediate insertion must be sent in at least 12 hours before the hour of publication.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

PENNSYLVANIA RAIL ROAD.

TRAINS LEAVE COLUMBIA GOING EAST.

Lancaster Train Arrives at 10 A.M.

Harrisburg Accommodation... 5:30 P.M.

TRAINS LEAVE WEST.

Mail Train... 11:30 A.M.

Lancaster Train Arrives... 4:30 P.M.

Marietta Accommodation leaves Columbia, at 7:45 A.M.

COLUMBIA ACCOMMODATION.

Leave Columbia for Lancaster... 10:30 A.M.

Arrive at Lancaster... 1:30 P.M.

Connect with Erie Express for Phila.

Leave Lancaster for Philadelphia... 3:30 P.M.

The Harrisburg accommodation will leave before 5:30 P.M.

W.M. F. LOCKARD,

Superintendent, Phila. Div.

BOROUGH ITEMS.

GENERAL ITEMS.—An umbrella was lost a few days ago by Frank Hinckle. Frank will thank the finder for its return—but who ever heard of an umbrella being returned?

John Fendrich's is the cheapest tobacco shop in Hayes'.

The anniversary of the Sunday School Association of Mountville, will be held in the United Brethren church of that place next Saturday.

S. S. Detwiler's beers swarmed last Saturday to put them unknown. It is desirable to keep their whereabouts.

Saturday evenings to have been a N.Y. Amendment, state, Hiram Wilson's new boots on Saturday—value $12.00. A liberal reward will be paid for their return.

Bachemheimer is selling Clothing cheaper than any other Clothing Store in the borough.

Something new, the album collar, at Bachemheimer.

Wears on the Penna. R. R. Passenger Depot will soon be commenced in Bachemheimer.

The walls will be built of Wrightsville marble, in highest finish, and everything else in proportion. We need just such an improvement at this.

This celebrated opera singer, reduced at J. M. Fendrich's, 10:30 to 12 o'clock, cannot be bought at any other tobacco store made of same leaf tobacco under 10cts.

On Saturday evenings Bachemheimer is always compelled to secure the services of a couple of additional clerks to accommodate the crowd.

The colored people will celebrate the "XVII" in Marietta on Monday. Large delegations from Columbia, are expected.

Strawberries are in market. Some people say they are good. We can tell as we have not tasted them.

If you are fond of the fascinating game of croquet, get out May's "Ervin's."

John Fendrich is in the act of remodeling the Lamb Tavern for the accommodation of market people. The stable will be 100 feet long and divided into convenient stalls. He is providing these stalls for our market people, regardless of expense, and the farmers should patronize him accordingly.

Fine Panama Hats at Bronnenman's.

We are to have a grand report of all the decoration economies that have of importance and interest are now abounding.

Winslow's green corn 25 cts, at Hayes'.

Several of the Bonner stores were open all Monday afternoon during the ceremonies. But we have no fault to find—those couldn't endure the closing up of their factory-boutique stores for half an hour during any day. Necessities are always pardoned.

Mr. Fendrich's, you will get 4 cigar boxes for 5 cts, as good as sold elsewhere 2 for 5 cts.

Bachemheimer will hold a matinee every afternoon at his store, No. 5 Main Street.

Hurry up with the new depot, and the new Town Hall. Let us have both soon.

Thomas & Mason, Coal & Lumber dealers will soon occupy their new office.

May & Erwin have the very best croquet sets for sale cheap.

Hardman, corner of Third and Cherry, has another store for each one of his customers. Has become a customer to many.

All the latest novelties in millinery goods at Mrs. E. Springer's No. 37 North Front street.

The gray season is opening. The Cordelia Brass Band of Silver Springs will hold a picnic at Hesler's Woods, on Saturday evening.

St. John's Church will be there.

At John Fendrich's, the best hotel, St. John's and Contury fine cut chewing tobacco, 10cts, sold elsewhere at 10cts.

The Columbia Fire Company will hold their annual picnic at Hesler's Woods July 4th. There will be a pleasant fair. Bachemheimer's orchestra will be on the ground.

R. Hayes' column to day offers handsome inducements.

We have not received any solution of the hard brick question, and house can not satisfy the philosophic mind of S.S.

June 4th, 1870.

The Reformed Church will hold a service festival on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. The Reformed church will hold theirs on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings.

At Mr. Fendrich's, May Queen making is the best this is the best smoking tobacco in the country.

Heads and members of the Vigilant Fire Co. are invited to inspect Fender-smith's windows to day. Something choice in the way of a donation.

Cost pearl strings 10 cts, per lb., at Hayes'.

Now that John Fendrich's tobacco stand at John Fendrich's has reduced every thing in his line from ten to twenty per cent. Call and see for yourself.

The Ladies are invited to call and see the new styles of Hats and French flowers at Mrs. E. Springer's, 37 North Front street, Columbia, Pa. Latest novelties.

FENDR-SMITH continues to sell groceries and provisions at unusually low prices. The best quality of flour, sugar, salt, it is still a mystery with the consumer how he can afford to sell good goods so amazingly cheap. Fred understands the business and he knows. Give him a call.

MICHEN'S celebrated Excelsior Hams the best quality with the best garnardins' corn, Third and Cherry streets.

A lot of the finest fresh 40 days from China, such as English, Breakfast, Olongo, Fong and Truskateas all very cheap at Hardman's corner of Third and Cherry streets.

CAL and see for yourself, at John Fendrich's, who sells us good segars 2 for 5 cts, as you can buy elsewhere 25 cents each; the above segars are two years old.

JON FENDRICH's is the cheapest tobacco store in the state.

THE thrush is building on the thorn, Among the whispering leaves.

The lark is busy in the corn,

That will do for birds, men and women, in the glorious spring-time, enjoy themselves and do a good work by visiting Bachemheimer's and looking at and buying his cheap spring and summer clothing.

In York the Decoration of the Soldiers graves was generally observed.

The evening was most lovely. Everything passed off in a pleasant manner.

The monuments of the two Signers of the Declaration of Independence, one in the Presbyterian burial ground, and the other in the Friends' Hill Cemetery, were encircled with wreaths and decorated with choice flowers.

There are about two hundred and thirty graves of soldiers in the burial grounds of York.

TAKES NOTICE.—At John Fendrich's, you will get 14oz. Michigan, or Star flus cut when getting tobacco for 10cts, as we will pay 15cts for the same weight else where.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Our readers will observe that this is a grand Opening to-day at Fendrich's, the largest dry-goods store in Ladies black Silk Sarcens and Mantles which have just received. Their assortment includes all the very newest and choicest styles for this season, and at a great reduction in prices. The Messrs. Haldeman also exhibit a splendid line of Shawls. The beautiful Ristori Shawls in every variety of stripes and plain centres. Silk Shawls, Cashmere and Paisley shawls, and new bargains in all kinds of Dress Goods.

It is an example of what imagination will do. Two gentleman called upon their neighbors to pay their debts.

The hostess sent to Bob Hamilton's for the whiskey, pronouncing it the best eighteen year old whisky they had ever tasted, and that such liquor was a rare luxury.

Saturday evenings to have been a N.Y. Amendment, state, Hiram Wilson's new boots on Saturday—value $12.00. A liberal reward will be paid for their return.

Bachemheimer is selling Clothing cheaper than any other Clothing Store in the borough.

Something new, the album collar, at Bachemheimer.

Wears on the Penna. R. R. Passenger Depot will soon be commenced in Bachemheimer.

The walls will be built of Wrightsville marble, in highest finish, and everything else in proportion. We need just such an improvement at this.

This celebrated opera singer, reduced at J. M. Fendrich's, 10:30 to 12 o'clock, cannot be bought at any other tobacco store made of same leaf tobacco under 10cts.

On Saturday evenings Bachemheimer is always compelled to secure the services of a couple of additional clerks to accommodate the crowd.

The colored people will celebrate the "XVII" in Marietta on Monday. Large delegations from Columbia, are expected.

Strawberries are in market. Some people say they are good. We can tell as we have not tasted them.

If you are fond of the fascinating game of croquet, get out May's "Ervin's."

John Fendrich is in the act of remodeling the Lamb Tavern for the accommodation of market people. The stable will be 100 feet long and divided into convenient stalls. He is providing these stalls for our market people, regardless of expense, and the farmers should patronize him accordingly.

Fine Panama Hats at Bronnenman's.

We are to have a grand report of all the decoration economies that have of importance and interest are now abounding.

Winslow's green corn 25 cts, at Hayes'.

Several of the Bonner stores were open all Monday afternoon during the ceremonies.

But we have no fault to find—those couldn't endure the closing up of their factory-boutique stores for half an hour during any day. Necessities are always pardoned.

Mr. Fendrich's, you will get 4 cigar boxes for 5 cts, as good as sold elsewhere 2 for 5 cts.

Bachemheimer will hold a matinee every afternoon at his store, No. 5 Main Street.

Hurry up with the new depot, and the new Town Hall. Let us have both soon.

Thomas & Mason, Coal & Lumber dealers will soon occupy their new office.

PROGRAMME:

CHORUS—E. F. HARRIS, Mrs. PENNELL, Miss PENNELL, PUPILS.

SELECTION—Virginia Mother—E. D. PROCTOR.

SOLO—LILLA WELSH, WOODBURY.

SONG AND CHORUS—OH! Louie is my fair one—ROBERT.

PIPPERS—J. D. JERROLD.

SELECTION—OH! THE TROUBLESOME CHILD—MISS KATIE SIMPSON.

CHORUS—OH! THE TROUBLESOME CHILD—MISS KATIE SIMPSON.

PUPILS.

QUARTETTE—Hast thou grieved Well To Do.

The public school celebrated the close of their session by giving a grand vocal concert, interspersed with recitals in the school building, on Tuesday evening. Preparations for the event had been made for several weeks previously, and the interest manifested by the community was great.

At 8 o'clock, the first recital was given.

At 9 o'clock, the second.

At 10 o'clock, the third.

At 11 o'clock, the fourth.

At 12 o'clock, the fifth.

At 1 o'clock, the sixth.

At 2 o'clock, the seventh.

At 3 o'clock, the eighth.

At 4 o'clock, the ninth.

At 5 o'clock, the tenth.

At 6 o'clock, the eleventh.

At 7 o'clock, the twelfth.

At 8 o'clock, the thirteenth.

At 9 o'clock, the fourteenth.

At 10 o'clock, the fifteenth.

At 11 o'clock, the sixteenth.

At 12 o'clock, the seventeenth.

At 1 o'clock, the eighteenth.

At 2 o'clock, the nineteenth.

At 3 o'clock, the twentieth.

At 4 o'clock, the twenty-first.

At 5 o'clock, the twenty-second.

At 6 o'clock, the twenty-third.

At 7 o'clock, the twenty-fourth.

At 8 o'clock, the twenty-fifth.

At 9 o'clock, the twenty-sixth.

At 10 o'clock, the twenty-seventh.

At 11 o'clock, the twenty-eighth.

At 12 o'clock, the twenty-ninth.

At 1 o'clock, the thirtieth.

At 2 o'clock, the thirty-first.

At 3 o'clock, the thirty-second.

At 4 o'clock, the thirty-third.

At 5 o'clock, the thirty-fourth.

At 6 o'clock, the thirty-fifth.

At 7 o'clock, the thirty-sixth.

At 8 o'clock, the thirty-seventh.

At 9 o'clock, the thirty-eighth.

At 10 o'clock, the thirty-ninth.