Advertisements, to secure immediate in sertion, must be handed in on or before Thursady evening, each week. WE met a boy on the streets yesterday and without the ceremony of asking our name, he exclaimed : "You just ortee been down to the river a while ago !"

'Why?" we inquired. " Because, a nigger was in there swimming, and a big cat-fish came up behind him and swallowed both of his feet and went awimming along on top of the water with him; and they came behind another big fish, and the nigger swallowed his tail. and the nigger and two fish went swimming about !"

"Well, then what?" we asked. Why, after a while the higger swallowed his fish, and the other fish swallowed the nigger, and that's the last I saw of either of them.

Sonny," said we, with feelings of alarm for the boy, " you are in a fair way to become the editor of a Democratic paper;" and we left him.

Or a practical vein was the humor of the Irishman who found himself cleaning windows on a bitter cold morning in Scotland. The head of the house had given him about half a cupful of whisky and enjoined him to rub it with a small cloth on the panes previous to polishing them. Going out shortly afterward, he noticed that the cup was empty and that the man was working with a will. " How's that sir ?" said the master angrily, "what's become of the whisky?" "Sure, an' I drank it, yer honor," said the exile, cheerily; "a good health to ye, this cowld mornin'-but I blow my breath on the windows, which is just the same, an' I have all the good of it besides."

Never forget what a man has said to you when he was augry. If he has charged you with anything, you had better look it up. A person has often been started from a pleasant dream of self-deception by the words of an angry man, who may wish his words unsaid the next hour, but they are past recall. The wisest course is to take home this lesson with meekness to our souls. It was a saying of Socrates that every man had need of a faithful friend and a bitter enemy; the one to advise, and the other to show him his faults.

During the debate in the first American Congress on the establishment of the Federal army, a member offered a resolution providing that it never should exceed three thousand men; whereup on Washington moved an amendment that no enemy should ever invade the country with a force exceeding two thousand men. This joke was a perfect success, and the laughter which it excited smothered the resolution.

A San Francisco stage driver made his brags that he could drive over a hilly piece of road just as well when drunk as when sober. The coach was spilled over a precipice, and when the passengers crawled out from under the wreck; they begged permissson to differ with him, with a piece of rope. The stage company buried him.

This is the latest about the Bultimore and Ohio railroad : Queries one passenger, as the train comes to a dead halt. "Well. I wonder what we have stopped for now ?" "Why," exclaimed a fellow-traveler," it's to take the cow-catcher off the engine and put it on behind to keep the cows from running over. us."

Some "horrid wretch" in England says a woman mounts by insensible gradations from dolla and kittens and pet brothers to the zenith of passion, to descend by the same insensible gradations from the renith of passion through pet brothers READ 'HIS! to tubby cats. -

A Schoolmaster in Maine attempted to punish a naughty girl the other day. She started to run, and he caught her by the back of the head, when she exclaimed, "For the Lord's sake, save my new switch."

A BOSTON WRITER, in alluding to the musical taste of the hub, says:"Our ears have been cultivated till they overshadow our other organs."

A TEHNESSEE revenue officer reports that a " barle of whiskie seezed by me for not being stampt has been stoll by ruffians with faces disguyssed with kraip."

A CONNECTICUT paper says that Prof. S. Morse "is probably unequalled in the use of chalk." The milkmen will be incredulous.

ADDRESS To the Nervous and Debilitated.

Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require promp treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involun tary discharges, what effect does it produce upo your general health? Do you feel weak, debili-tated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does you liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy or settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top! Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stoo while? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of bloo to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Doesany little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you have as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits o melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your live or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? You back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dys pepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capa-ble of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defaut, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they can-not succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your down-cast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs infla ted by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for. How many men, from badly cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocv, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of diseas which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and hav doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of Diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Com-plaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our fiesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.
