How Higgins Gently Broke the

"Yes, I remember that anecdote," the Sunday scool superintendent said with the old pathos in his voice and the old sad look in his eyes. "It was about a simple creature named Higgins, that used to haul rock for old Maltby. When the lamented Judge Bagley tripped and fell down the court-house steps and broke his neck, it was a great question how to break the news to poor Mrs. Bagley. But finally the body was put into Higgins' wagon, and he was instructed to take it to Mrs. B., but be very guarded and discreet in his language, and not break the news to you have as much confidence in yoursell? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of her at once, but do it gradually and genmelancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver her at once, but do it gradually and gently. When Higgins got there with his sad freight, he shouted till Mrs Bagley came to the door. Then he said: "Does the widder Bagley live here?"

"The widow Bagley? No Sir!" "I'll bet she does. But have it your own way. "Well, does Judge Bagley live here?"

"Yes, Judge Bagley lives here." "I'll bet he don't. But never mindit ain't for me to contradict. Is the Judge in?" " No, not at present."

"I jest expected as much. Because you know-take hold o' suthin, mum, for I'm a goin' to make a little communication, and I reckon may be it'll jar you some. There's been an accident mum. I've got the old Judge curled up out here in the wagon-and when you see him you'll acknowledge yourself, that an inquest is about the only thing that could be a comfort to him!"

Sally's Mistake.

"Sally, don't I like you?" "La!Jim, I reckon so." "But don't you know it, Sally? Don' you think I'd tear the eyes out of any honest tom-cat that dares to look at you for a second !" "I s'pect you would." "Well, the fact of it is, Sally, I-"

"O, now don't Jim! you're too sudden." "And, Sally, I want you to-"

"Don't say any thing more now, Jim. Twill-" want you to-" "O, hush! don't say any more."

"But it must be done immediately;]

"I want you to night to get-,' "What! so soon? O, no, impossible!

Father and mother would be so angry at "How? be mad for doing me such a favor as to m-" "Yes, dear me! O, what a feeling!" "But there is some mistake, for all I want to have you do is to-mend my trowsers l" Sally could hear no more. She threw up her arms, and screaming hysterically,

"SAY, Mr. Julius, is der any place in the Bible whar a cullud pusson is mentioned?" said old Cæsar to his friend. "Well, dere is, an' if you'd been to meet'n Sunday you'd heard the preacher read how Nigger Demus wented to be born again." "Wh'-wh'-what he want to be born again for?" "I dunno I spec he tought he might be born a white man next time, an' da's a good many niggers alike now jes like old Demus, but dey'll allers be niggers, any how."

SHOO FLY.— A New London Sabbath School teacher said to a little boy recent

"Suppose some bad, wicked boy were to stop you on your way to church and ask you to go to some bad place with him, what would you say?"

"What would I say ?" repeated the lad; "I would say, shoo fly, don't bodder me, I'm bound for Sunday School."

SPECIAL NOTICES

To the Nervous and Debilitated. Those sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involun-tary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine some-limes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top! Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated: Do you have snells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listiess, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Doesany little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broker or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as bril liant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but pepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capa ble of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you eve think that those hold, defiant, energetic, personal vering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfec nealth? You never hear such men complain being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitatio of the heart. They are never afraid they can-not succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your down-cast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs infla ted by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they dobusiness with or for.

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE

If you are suffering or have suffered, from in voluntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy or settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the ton Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspensia? Are your bowels constinated ! Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, lsitless, moping, tired of com-pany, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to to get away from everybody? Does any little hing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your check as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy: Do you feel as much confidence in yourself.

Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fit of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your live: or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but lit-tle appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia r liver-complaint.

Now, reader, abuse, or any disease badly cured and excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the different organs. The organs when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business-men are always those whose organs are in perfect health?
