Design or Decline. In looking over the names of the candidates for the various offices this fall, we find six who are also members of the county committee.

Under this caption, the North American after recounting the great financial trials of the year, says: "Now how much of all this prodigious work was done by Mr. Wells, this astonishingly astute statesman and financier, whose departure from office is drenching the whole free trade camp with briny tears?"

The office he held was a sort of government bureau to disseminate free-trade doctrines, and to put up official statements to suit the opponents of protection.

Mr. Wells, this astonishingly astute statesman and financier, whose departure from office is drenching the whole free trade camp with briny tears?

FRANCE VS PRUSSIA. The War Feared at Home and Abroad. We shall be better able to judge of the superiority of the needle-gun to the Chassepot after their respective merits have been tried on a larger scale than they were in the skirmish which "demonstrated" the superiority of the Prussian weapon to the telegraph operator at Berlin, as narrated in a dispatch.

No German, whether or not he be nationalized as an American, can enlist or volunteer in this country for service in the German army. No organized armed body of men can leave the United States to make war against France or any other power.

The special correspondent of the Tribune sends advices from Metz, under date of 22d inst., describing the movements of troops. On that day there were 10,000 at Pothuac, 7,000 at Santa Avoide, 3,000 at Sarreguemines.

The Morning Telegraph prints to-day, in large type, a communication reciting an interview recently had with the Emperor Napoleon. A fortnight ago the Emperor had not thought of war with Prussia.

The Emperor Napoleon will most probably go to Metz in the way of the Metz railway. There is unusual activity in all the districts of the Empire.

From Strasburg, on the 23d, there are advices of a concentration of troops toward Thionville. Nothing remains at Strasburg. Apparently the main attack is to be made along the valley of the Moselle, and the great battle will be in the Rhenish provinces.

POSTSCRIPT! THE SECRET TREATY. CHEAPER AND BETTER THAN EVER. JUST RECEIVED AT R. HAYES' GROCERY AND PROVISION STORE, S. E. Cor. 4TH & CHERRY STS., COLUMBIA, PA.

Departure of Napoleon for the Front, Prince Napoleon on a Secret Mission! No American Officers to be Allowed with the French Army!

Mysterious Movement of the Prussian Army! LONDON, July 28.—Count Von Bismarck yesterday publicly submitted the original manuscript draft of the secret treaty proposed between France and Prussia.

The affair created a great sensation, being a complete refutation of the announcements that Bismarck and not Benedetti was the author of the treaty.

Upon the announcement anxious eyes were turned toward America; and the question was perpetually asked, "What would America say and do if we have to side against France?"

It is considered as certain in Berlin that Napoleon, counting on disloyalty on the part of Southern Germany, planned a sudden movement across the Rhine, before Prussia could concentrate any considerable force.

The Tribune says: France has stripped her every fortress and every camp for the struggle with Prussia, and it is estimated that the movements about Metz have resulted in concentrating not less than 800,000 men on the border between Moselle and the Rhine.

Paris July 28.—The Emperor left St. Cloud to-day by a special train for the army accompanied by the Prince Imperial. The Emperor passed with them at the railway station. She was deeply moved, and as soon as the train had disappeared returned to the palace.
