- A bob-tailed, orney cus And that there purp got that there man In many an ugly muss; 'Eer the man he was on his muscle, And the dog was on his bite, So to kick that dog-goned animile
 Was sure to raise a fight.
- A woman owned a Thomas cat, That fit at fifteen pound; And other cats got up and slid
 When that there cat was round.
 The man and his dog came along one day, Where the woman she did dwell.
- And the purp he growled feroclously,
 Then went for the cat like——. He tried to chaw the neck of the cat, But the cat he would'nt be chawed; So he lit on the back of that there dog,
- Oh, the hair it flew! and the purp he yould As the claws went into his hide And chunks of flesh were peeled from his Then he flummuxed, and kicked, and died!
- The man he ripped, and cussed, and swore As he gathered a brickbat,

 That he would be durined essentially If he did'nt kill that cat ! ... :
- But the woman allowed she'd be blesssed if he did! And snatched up an old shot-gun, Which she fired, and peppered his diaphragm With bird-shot number one.
- And the doctor cured him up; But he never was known to fight again,
 Or to own another purp.
 Folk may turn up their snoots at this here
- rhyme, I don't care a cuss for that! All I wanted to show is, that fighting dogs
 May tackle the wrong Tom cat.
- "Do you think," asked Mrs. Pepper, "that's little temper is a bad thing in a woman?" " Certainly not, ma'am," replied a gallant philosopher; " it's a good thing,
- and she ought never to lose it." A good old apothecary in Brunswick, Maine, left one day on his door a scrap of paper which read : " Gone to Portland. Those who cannot read this notice will
- please call at the book bindery opposite." Hungry dinner-" Trouble you for some more bread, landlord. I always eat a good deal of bread with my meat." Landlord-"So I see, sir! And a good - deal of meat with your bread." Said a youngster in high glee, displaying his purchases to a bosom friend on the sidewalk .: "Two cocoanuts for ten cents! That will make me sick to-morrow, and I
- won't have to go to school.', A word in time, etc. : if a donkey kicks you have him immediately indicted for assault.
- One exceeding warm day in June a neighbor met an old man, and remarked that it was very hot. "Yes," said Joe; if it wasn't for one thing, I should say we were going to have a thaw." "What is that?" - inquired the friend. " There's nothing froze," said Joe.
- A Toledo paper gives this as a correct report of a speech recently delivered by a member of a school board in that section: "Mr. Cheerman, I rise for to-that is to make a motion, which it is as follows: Resolved that there are no need to build
- costive school houses as some of this ere board is proposing to 'rect. No, Mr. Cheerman, I'me 'posed to spendin money for more housen. The old ones are pretty good yit, and for to go to build a pretty slick house which will cost ten thousand dollars, or more yet, its all wasted. Its no 'conomy to throw away money we don't need. Taxes cost money, and money has to go to pay taxes, and let us expense with any more school housen."
- "MAMMA," said a wee child, one Sunday evening, after having sat still in the house all day, like a good child, " have I honored you to day?" "I don't know," replied the mother; "why do you ask?" "Because," said the little one, shaking her head sadly, "the Bible says, 'Honor thy. father and mother, that thy days may be long; and this has been oh, the longest day I ever saw."
- Josu Billings says? "Mackeral inhabit the sea generally; but those which inhabit the grocery alway tast to me as though they had been fatted on salt. They want a deal of freshening before they're eaten' and also afterwards. .. If I kin have plenty of mackeral fur breakfast, I can generally make the other two meals out of water."
- An American, making the tour of Ireland, stepped into a school of some forty children in the Black Valley, and, in the midst of his talk with the children, asked them what they expected to do when they became men and women; and with one inspiration they responded; "Go to Amer-
- "Barber," said a farmer to his tonsor, " now corn's cheap, you ought to shave for half price." "Can't, Mr. B-__," said the man of razors. "I ought really to charge more; for, when corn's down farmers make such long faces that I have twice the ground to go over."
- An evening paper has made the novel discovery that "church-hire" is one of large items of expense attending marriage. The temple where the vail is rent on such occasions must have an extra nave in it.

DDRESS To the Nervous and Debilitated. Whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require promp treatment to render existence desirable: If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involun-tary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your howels constipated?

Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling on this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you have as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flaggling, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your hear requirements and have you ack weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver-complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal disease badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capa-ble of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you over think that those hold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and and discounaged; they are inways pointe and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your down-cast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs infla-ted by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for. How many men, from badly cared diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease— idiocv, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic, HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Grav el, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Com plaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our firsh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of Posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy. Helmbold's Extract Buchu, established upward of 19 years, prepared by H. T. HELM-BOLD, Druggist, 504 Brondway, New York, and 101 South 10th Street, Philadelphin, Pa. NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED

WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN PROTRACTED FROM HIDDEN CAUSES, AND WHOSE

PROMPT TREATMENT

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE

If you are suffering, or have suffered, from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently getout of order? Isyour urine sometimes thick, milky or flocky, or is it ropy on settling? Or does a thick skum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your check as bright: brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits ofmelancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but littered the today before the process of the tle appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsis

Now, reader, abuse, or any disease badly cured and excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the different organs. The organs when in perfect health, make the man. NO MEDICINE OR TREATMNT CAN EXCEL THE POWERFUL CURATIVE POWER OF DR. SIMMS' White Pulmonic Balsam. Ir cures with a rapidity unequalled by any other remedy offer of for Throat and Lang diseases. It is recommended by over 2,000 persons in Wilmington, and hundreds in Phila, Baltimore and other cities and communities throughout the country. Mr. Peneington, of Wilmington, Illinois, writes that there is not (with a tew exceptions) a family in that city who will be without it if possible to procure it. Such is its popularity wherever it is knownand this popularity arises from the fact that it universally cures all who use it. There is no case of COUGHS, COLDS, SORE THICOAT, ASTHMA, BRONCHITTS, CROUF, BLOOD SPITTING, HOARSENESS, and even PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, where the system is not broken down with the wear of the disease, or pretended medicine, or inexperienced advice, that this Balsam will not cure if carefully used, according to directions.
