LANCASTER County has sustained the present system of nomination (Crawford County System) by a vote of 5,990 for, to, 4.273 against it. Such a decided majority in a vote upwards of ten thousand, establishes the hold the system has upon the people.

THE nomination of B. C. Kready as County Solicitor by a majority of only three votes, shows how near the coveted prize came being secured by this opponent, and yet lost. The office is elective by act of Legislature passed last winter, and the successful candidate holds it for three years.

MR. B. F. MEYERS, of the "Harrisburg Patriot" is the Democratic candidate for Congress in the XVth District of Pennsylvania, now represented by Hon. John Cessna, Republican, who has been nominated for re-election. The District is close, and the contest will no doubt be a spirited one.

Hon. John E. Wiley, who, with A. C. Reinæhl, was centemptiously called a " rooster, Bolter, &c." has been re-elected to the Legislature triumphantly, A. J Hiestand to the contrary, notwithstanding. We congratulate Mr. Wiley upon this significant victory. The only alledged objection to his re-election was his manly determination not to support a caucus nomination unfairly made, and in this his enemies have been badly beaten.

The Result. The result of last Saturday's primary enerally satisfactory. The Dickey was conceded arge majority in his fying to himself, and a full endorsement of his course. The Legislative ticket suits us very well. The re-nomination of Messrs. Reinwhi and Wiley is a flattering endorsement. of their previous record, and the nomination of Messrs. Engle and Whitson by such a large vote is an unmistakable evilence of their popularity. Both are un exceptionable gentlemen, and we expect to hear a good report from them next Winter.

. The other part of the ticket, given elsewhere, meets with almost universal endorsement. We go into the fall campaign with a strong ticket-sure to win.

One of the reasons says the Mercury why Napoleon has been so unsuccessful in the present war, is, that he spent too much time studying up the war maps in American newspapers, and it discouraged him. The last one he received absorbed his attention for two whole days, and then he took it in his hand and went around to see Bazaine, and said : "Marshal ! it's of no use; we might as well give the thing up. If we have got to fight the French around through such geography as that; our cause is hopelessly lost." And Napoleon wept. The particular map in question was made out of an old wood cut belonging to a treatise upon the various phenomena of the currents in the Gulf of-Mexico. The publisher cut out some of the lines with a gouge-chisel, and hammered in a few carpet tacks to represent towns. When it was printed it was called "Situation of the Contending Armies,' but it looked exactly like the effort of a blind man, with a fit of delirium tremens. trying to draw a ground-plan of the city

The Nominations.

"—— the hurlyburly's done.
The battle's lost and won." The result of Saturday's contest will be found in the ticket as placed at the head of the columns of the EXAMINER. That it is such a ticket in all respects as ought to have been nominated, we will not be so false to truth as to assert. But the people have gone through the form of expressing their preferences, and they appear to have cial dereliction. There are some things endorsed the course of Reinochl and Wiley. This we believe, an honest vote and of private confidence, but we are justified an honest count and correct return, would not have done. Yet as there is no means of correcting this wrong we bow to the re- worse than during the last year. The corded will, though we believe it to be false. But we would

We are charitable enough friends. The voters of Bucks county are to believe that they have long since seen just now in a humor to reform some of the folly of their past course and have learned wisdom enough not to be entrapped again by reckless, debauched, and

RICHARD J. HALVEMAN is to be the Pémocratic candidate for Congress in the York district, after all. The Democracy did not want him, but he presented arguments in behalf of his nomination that were irresistible.-Lebanon Courier.

WITH FREE TRADE Haldeman in York county, and Free-Trade-copperhead Meyers in Franklin county, and with the prospect of nominating an out and out free trader in Lancaster, the democracy of Columbia can not well lay claim to protective principles.

THE French are now driving the Prussians-toward Paris- they (the French) being a little ahead. Bazaine has the Prussian comviander's teeth so firmly embedded in his nose that he can snake him into the French capital without difficulty. When the Prussian army is all in Paris, Napoleon will surround it and slice up the men with the guillotine! There is nothing like strategy.

WORKINGMEN AND FREE TRADE. -The Free Trade Democrats may get an idea of the popularity of their favorite doctrine from the way it was handled by the Working People's Convention at Cincinnati last week.

The question of the Tariff came up and after a stormy debate a vote was taken which showed 60 for a Protective platform own interest and the success of the Democratic office hunters. They seem to think their in erests are best subserved in the Republican party.-Ex.

THE Lancaster Express suggests the the election of Mr. Lewis Sprecher to the office of Keeper of the Prison in place of Levi Sensenig, as a remedy for the evils complained of in that Institution.

Mr. Sprecher is a gentleman of undoubted integrity, humane and generous impulses, in every respect competent for the position, and one of the most popular men of the county. We doubt not his acceptance of the office would give universal satisfaction and silence all clamor about Prison management. We will be pleased to record his election.

There is a general impression among the people that our county affairs are not as honestly and economically managed as they ought to be. but of the actual truth the masses of the taxpayers have no conception. They only know that for several years past, with no acknowledged county debt to pay, taxes to the amount of nearly a quarter of a million of dollars per year have been expended. The county statement does not develop the particulars, and it is only nocasionally, in cases like that of the unsettled-account of Andrew Ott last year, that the attention of the reople is especially directed to the subject. We know, that

It seems that, unlike lightning, they are open to the objection of sticking always in the same place, and after the first fire the balls can be more easily avaded than the range and aim of the gun can be altered.

Duties of Assessors and Registers. Governor Geary issued a proclamation on Saturday last, directing the "County Commissioners of Montgomtry county-(where there seems to be now a defective enforcement of the Fifteenth Amendment)-to instruct the several assessors and registers of voters therein to obey and conform to the requirements of constitutional amendments and laws; and the Sheriff of said county is hereby authorized and required to publish in his election proclamation for the next ensuing election the herein recited constitutional amendment, act of Congress and act of the Legislature, to the end that the same be known executed and obeyed by all assessors, registers of voters, election officers and others, to 8 against. Of course the same duties will be required in all the counties of the State.

> THE Cumulative System of voting-a System which secures for the minority a proportional representation-is gaining friends every day. The justice of the | ple merely ask that they have a secondary measure is no longer in doubt. Its entire and absolute expedience is not yet established, and whether it can be practically enforced without being subject to all the various species of Corruption, has not yet been demonstrated. In legislative delegations, in the boards of County Commissioners, Prison and Poor House management, the minority can have, by the Cumulative System, a potent voice. But where there is but one person, or but one officer to be voted for, the remedy will not apply, unless the law be so radically emended as to change the number of officers, &c. The whole System of our State Government must undergo a change in order to make the System entirely practicable. That it will be done we have no doubt, as the minority counties are in earnest in the matter, and they will push their plans with vigor. Whatever may come, we welcome any change which will have a tendency to brook corruption, prevent the 'stealings" everywhere, and work deeprooted, wide-spread reform.

We believe in minority representation -it is Republican, it is Democratic. The people are moving earnestly in all these important subjects, and the proposed and much talked of State Convention will no doubt result in immeasurable good.

THE UHLANS, who are creating so much alarin in France by their raids upon towns and villages, far ahead of the line of march of the Prussian army, also give rise to perplexing reports as to the position of the German forces. The Uhlans are light cavalry, of Asiatic origin, and were introduced into the North of Europe along with the colonies of Tartars, who established themselves in Poland and Lithuania. The name is derived from a Tartar | set right this vain attempt to steal glory signifying "brave." They are mounted on light, active horses, and are armed with sabre, lance, and latterly with pistols and carbines. The lance, from 6 to 7 feet long, is attached to a stout leather cord fastened to the left shoulder, and passed round behind the back, so as to allow it to be couched under the right arm. Immediately below the point of the lance is attached a strip of gaudy-colered cloth, many years has been the scene of the designed by its fluttering to frighten the enemy's horses. THE war in Europe was an aggressive war, on the part of France-but, she is fortifying her own capital. A Useless Howl.

At a meeting of the colored citizens of Lancaster, they passed a resolution in reference to public school privileges, which has created a terrible howl in the camp of he great " unwashed," Yet laying aside all prejudice, and giving to the resolution the interpretation which the colored people meant it should have, there is nothing alarming in stafter all, Here is the resolution:

Resolved, That in the future we will only support such candidates as are most favorable to our equal educational advantages, to the best of our belief; for we are equally taxed for school purposes. In Lancaster, we have a separate primary school; and for white children there are in Lancaster primary, secondary and high schools. We cannot have equal education for our children as long as such a state of things exist.

What is there in this to excite so much professed indignation. The colored peoschool and a high school for the education of their children, just as the white children have them. Where the injustice, or where the impropriety of this? Our democratic citizens howl so much against the blending of the white and colored children, and here is an opportunity to avert what they consider such a terrible disaster.

Our colored people ask for equal (that is, equal in degree, and equal in quality) school priviledges, and that is just what representation and taxation entitle them to. Give the Lancaster or Columbia colored children equal primary, equal secondary, and equal high school priviledges and they will want no more.

If we may be allowed to digress, w might add that our catholic friends demand as much, and in the same spirit. They want equal monies to appropriate to building and maintaining their own church schools. But in their case they are the dissentists, they are the dissatisfied, and they are the ones who, under the law, now enjoy equal school priviledges. But in the case of the oppressed colored people they are now debarred of these rights, and they merely ask that they have equal (in degree and quality) school priviledges with other children.

The Free Trade Democracy.

The attempt of a tew-and-far-between emocrats to make their readers believe that protection is a democratic plank, are referred to the record of Hon. B. F. Meyers, editor of the Harrisburg Patriot, and candidate for Congress in the XVIth District. The Chambersburg Repository gives a few precious extracts which will serve to define Mr. Meyers' position, and which does not belong to him:

Myers is a notorious Free Trader. The Harrisburg Patriot, of which he is an editor, is the great Free Trade organ of Pennsylvania, and it would be hard to find a single issue of the daily Patriot which does not contain one or more editorials against protection to the industry of this country. * * * The people of the Sixteenth District, irrespective of party, have too much at stake to send a Free Trader to Congress. For no part of the old Keystone State has Nature done so much and the Government so little as for the five counties lying on the Southern border between Favette and York. Their wealth in iron ore and coal and fertility of soil is boundless; but all these were rendered of little account because they were cut off from the great lines of commerce, and the many years of Free Trade policy of the Government offered no encouragement for their development. Under the fostering influence of the Protective Policy of the last half dozen years great quantities. has come a change, and the greatest industry now prevails. * * * Fulton like Bedford is full of mineral wealth, but hemmed by mountains from all active intercourse with the activities of the business world. But railroads are creeping towards her both from Franklin and Bedford, and she is already dreaming dreams of a happy future. Myers can do nothing for the realization of these dreams. He is pledged to defeat them. He is pledged to impoverish farms, to the distruction of manufactures, to low wages. * * * * He is the proprietor and editor of the owners and editors of the Harrisburg Patriot, both of which papers persistently oppose the policy of protecting and fostering the manufacturing and laboring interests of this country, and urgo the removal of all duties from foreign importations which have been imposed to help build up domestic industry and enable manufacturers to give a fair day's wages for a fair

The alarm was false, but it was thought prudent to to send off the Prince.

BUZANZY, August 30 via London, Auust 31.—The Prussians attacked McMa hon's army to-day near Beaumont, defeated it, and drove it back upon the Belgian frontier. The French camp fell into the hands of the Prussians. The pursuit of the French was continued for several miles, and was interrupted by the number of cannon and prisoners which were taken. The extent of the battlefield was so vast that it is impossible to obtain further details at this moment.

BRUSSELS, August 31, via London. Sept. 1 .- The King of Prussia has sent the following telegram to Queen Augusta: VARENNES, August 30 .- The Crown Prince has been in action with the Fourth, Twelfth and Seventeenth Corps, and the Fourteenth Bavarian. McMahon was beaten and driven beyond the Meuse. Twelve guns, some thousand prisoners, and material of war was captured.

THE GRAND ADVANCE ON PARIS. LONDON, August 31.-The Prussians conceiving that McMahon's aim was to gain the frontier to effect a junction with Bazaine, advanced on their lines. The Crown Prince, south of Nancy, marched by way of Commercy, Bar-le-Duc, St. Dizier, and Vitry. The 4th Army, under the Prince Royal of Saxony, keeping north of Pont-a-Mousson, moved toward Chalons, at the same time investing Metz, while Steinmetz, reinforced, proceeded through Verdun to Rheims, his right sweeping the Belgian frontier, in hope of meeting McMahon. Thus the German advance covered the country from Belgium, along the Meuse to the Aube, and rendered it impossible for McMahon to reach Metz.

STRASBURG.

LONDON, August 31 .- The sufferings of the inhabitants of Strasburg are terrible. They are starving, and are compelled to live in their cellars, day and night, to avoid the increasing fire of the beseigers. Another fruitless sortie was made by the garrison on Monday. Prussian sharpshooters are within five hundred yards of the glacis. Many houses have been burned, and the arsenal was at one time on fire. The ammunition was safely removed. The fortress continues to resist. Public meetings are held all over Prussia to sustain the government in prosecuting the war to the end, and to discourage all attempts at premature legislation. The French were so sure of victory at the opening of the campaign that they made no arrangement to send their baggage in case of retreat, and hence they have been compelled to abandon it in

BREMEN, Wednesday, Aug 3 . A letter from the Prussian headquarters explains how Bazaine's attempt to escape from Metz was defeated. A copy of certain instructions of Bazaine was found near Metz from which the Prussians learned that the enemy was to retire in two bodies, one by the high road to Marsa-Tour and Verdun, and the other by the Conflans turnpike. This plan was dis-concerted by the Prussian attack on the 14th. The French subsequently took the road via Briey, but were again repulsed, and finally driven back in the battle on the 18th to the walls of Metz; there they have since been confined, their only way Eedford Gazette, and is also one of the of escape being to cut a passage through owners and editors of the Harrisburg Pa- the Prussian line, which they have not

FRIDAY'S VERY LATEST NEWS. Notwithstanding the terrible defeat of Marshal McMahon on Tuesday and Wednesday, the Paris newspapers have won him several "glorious victories," and according to their statements, he and Bazaine have been completely successful. The ministry, of course, have no news from the Valley of the Meuse, and Count Palikao majestically waives the questions put to him concerning recent events thereby stating that a large number of German cavalry (two or three hundred at most, probably), are surrounded at a certain point, and their capture is certain. This announcement, we presume, caused an immediate rise in candles, in anticipa-of a grand illumination.

Inte igence from the scene of the late conflict is exceedingly meagre, owing probably to the destruction of the wires by both be igerents, but enough has been received within the past twenty-four hours to warrant the belief that the engagements near Beaumont resulted disastrously to the French; that McMahon has atterly failed in his attempt to reach Metz, and that his broken army is now making a desperate effort to escape from its perilous position by way of Sedan and Mezieres. Fighting is reported yes terday, and doubtless with truth. The Crown Prince will not be apt to let his enemy get away without another struggle.

gian frontier guards of the latter country have been ordered to demand his sword. Other severe orders have been issued for the purpose of guaranteeing the protection of Belgian newtrality.

The North German Gazette (Bismarck's Organ) professes to be assured from the best source that English opinion is reconciled to the line of the Vosges. and even on the Moselle, as the future boundary between Germany and France, with 1,000,000,000 francs indemnity for the expenses of war.

Canker or dry rot does not blast a tree as suddenly as a stroke of lightning, but, unless arrested, it des-troys it as certainly; and in like manner chron-ic debility, although it does not kill with the swiftness of yellow fever, it is as sure to sap the springs of life eventually as any acute disease, if not checked by invigorating medication. There is something inexpressibly touching in the spectacle of premature decay. Languor, pallor, emaciation, depression of spirits, and a diseaste for exertion are its ordinary symptoms and they should be promptly met by tonic treatment. The best invigorant and exhiberant that can be administered in a case of this kind is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The stimulating principle of the preparation rouses the dormant energies of the system, and the strengthening and regulating properties give a permanent and healthful impulse to the vital forces thus brought into play. The falling appetite is re-awakened, the process of degestion and assimulation are quickened, the quality of the blood is improved, the secretions become more natural, and every organ that contributes to the nourishments of the body undergoes salutary change. By these means the repair of the physical structure is effected and its health and vigor restored. In no class of disease has the benificent operation of the Bitter's been more marked and salition than in those characterized by Endes affected for the secretives the safestand surestment of the first receives the safestand surestment of the first strong to restore, and powerless of injure. Such is the uniform testmony of "clouds of witnesses," swiftness of yellow fever, it is as sure to sap the
