

J. W. YOCUM, Editor.

BOLOTTO

Jao Eshleman

$2,00 Per Year, in Advance; $2.50 if not Paid in Advance.

VOLUME XLII, NUMBER 3.7

COLUMBIA, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 10, 1870.

[WHOLE NUMBER, 20,855.

YOLUME ALII, NUMBER .			, ~111 0 100
THE COLUMBIA SPY	BUCHER'S COLUMN.	MISCELLANEOUS.	NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.	Zoetry.	HOW DANIEL LIVERMORE GOT HIS GOLD.	A BRAVE GIRL. Our heroine lived in Bartlett, New Hamp-	SPECIMENS OF "YARNS" BY AN ILLINOIS FARMER.
TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:	J. C. BUCHER,	NO. 13. NO. 13	EDWARD J. ZAHM,	A OADE TO A STRAWBURRY.	He was born in one of the roughest towns in all New England, and his father was one	shire, and was a decendant of the old Craw-	When I first came here in 1819, those
WFEKLY	$1.	SHREINER'S	JEWELLER !	BY A FELLUR WHAT WENT TO A FESTIVAL.	of the roughest of men. When the boy was ten and his father sixty, they separated for-	lowed the profession of a guide among the	oxen were steers. Stock was rather short then, and I worked in the critters early.
.00 per year, if pald in advance; six months, If not paid until the expiration of the year, $2.50 will be charged.	Wholesale and Retail Dealer in	IS THE PLACE	(Late H. L. & E. J. Zahm,) Cor. N. Queen St., & Centre Square	Hale, strawburry ! doant blush so, modest fruit,	ever. Daniel wanted to go to school, and	was the only daughter remaining at home	Well, one day, Tennessee Smith down by the Lillypache, had cut a red elm and it
SINGLE COPIES	ar-	Where you can buy a first rate	LANCASTER, PA.	Because I spoke to yer. Your appearance is Decidedly seady; are yu out of cash?	the old man would not let him. It would cost money to pay the school-bill, and both	-a dark-eed,y brown-haired girl, of slight	got lodged in the slough, and none of them
Advertisements not under contract, must marked the length of time desired, or they w		AMERICAN, ENGLISH OR SWISS WATCH,	Watches, Clocks, Jewelry	If so, speke. I have a dime, a soluntary dime, Here in my west—we'll lager. Frute, thou excitest my admirashun! Thou	money and trouble to board the teacher, and so he ran away from home, and an	teenth year. Her mother had been dead	hitched on all the oxen they had and tried to drag it up on the bluff. But with six
be continued and charged for until ordered of Special Notices 5 per cent. more, All Notices or Advertisments in reading m	TTT: J T immond	BEAUTIFUL SETS OF JEWELRY, HAND SOME BREAST PINS, EAR RINGS,	SILVER WARE, Spectacles, best quality Silver- Plated Ware, Thermometers.	makestone To plue thi worthy progeneters, who, like the	uncle past eighty took him in. Dan, as the boys called him, improved in	whole care of the household. One day, late in summer, Mr. Crawford	yoke they could'nt make it let go. Then ter, under ten lines, $1.00; over ten lines, 10 per line, minion type. Yearly Advertisers discontinuing their adv	cts.	SLEEVE BUTTONS,	rn Personal and prompt attention given to Watch work and Repairing. Remember the	Good of airth, full filled their destiny. A lass, a lass! those days have gorn,	bis reading, learned to write, and did the old man's chores so well that when he died,	went, with a party of travelers, away to the	When Mr. Smith's boy came I told him he could have the steers, Charley, but no one tisements before the expiration of the year, w be charged at full rates as above, or according	till to Has removed his Store to his Building, adjoining	and almost everything in the jewelry line AT THE LOWEST PRICE.	OLD STAND, ZAHM'S CORNER,	No moar lrome a bear fut boy among The tangled gras-feering big dogs and furious	five years after he gave him twelve acres of land.	-	else drives them but me. So I yoked up contract. Transient rates will be charged for all matt of relating strictly to their business, and fat FH of		Or you can purchase FINE SILVER AND SILVER PLATED	North Queen Street and Centre Square, LANCASTER, PA. may7 '70 1 yr	farmers; But I am hyved amung brie walls, and all the	This gift awakened in the boy a desire for wealth, and as land was the only form	with the pleasure-seekers. Near the mid-	and went down. When I got there I said, gentlemen, take of relating strictly to their business. All advertising will be considered CASH, af first asertion.	where he has fitted up rooms and greatly increased his facilities for doing	SPOONS, FORKS, KNIVES CASTORS, GOBLETS, ICE		gras I sea is on the square—whar onet yer auntcisters Did dwel. But like the aberiginal savages	in which he had ever seen it, his thoughts of course ran to that, and at sixteen he be-	ting by an open window in the front 100m,	away your oxen, and they did. Then I told them to cut a welt all round the log,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW.	a more extensive business.	PITCHERS, BUTTER DISHES &c. &c. Then if you are in	The undersigned is now prepared to sell Coal of all sizes; received from the best mines	They have wiltered before the face of civiliza- tion.	gan to work and save. He had but one	the road and asked her if she would give	so that my chain would lie inside of it just even with the bark. Then I cut a slit from
C. E. GAST. J. STEINME	TZ.	WANT OF TIME you can buy any kind of	in the State, and guaranteed to be of superior quality. It is from the Veins of the Celebrated BALTIMORE CO. & LEE MINES at Wilkes-	Nun even bein left tu tell thare tale ! Frute, yu are cultivated, and tho seady I per-	hope, and that was—a farm of 150 acres. For ten years he never spent a dollar, not a	bim a drink of water. Bessie had seen this man before, and had never liked his looks.	his welt to the end of the butt, so that the taut of my chain wouldn't catch in the ha-
GAST & STEINMETZ,	MISHLER'S CELEBRATED	AMERICAN CLOCK,	barre; well prepared, and free of slate and dirt. The price net ton of 2000 lbs., on Wharf at Basin:	Yure rich but soft, exceedingly soft	cent except for clothing, and but a few doi- lars for that. His shrewdness all the time	He was a stout, broad-shouldered, ill-fayor-	zel-brush. Then I put the chain round and hitched on, and took up the whip and
. No. 44 NORTH DUKE ST., LANCASTER, P feb26-tf	HERB BITTERS	warranted of the best quality, at a low figure CALL AND SEE FOR YOURSELF	For No. 1 or Grate, $5.00. '' '' 2 or Egg, 5.25. '' '' 3 or Stove, 5.25.	Pepel creem and shuger yu and take yu in egre- jiously.	grew apace. He did not lend his money, to the best of men, without a mortgage on		just gave the critters a cheerful start with the lash. They sprang to it and jerked the
B. F. ESHLEMAN,		AT CHAS. P. SHREINER'S	" " 4 or Small Stove, 5.25. " " 5 or Chestant, 4.75.	If yu was more gritty, or had more vinegar Yud live longer, but wudent be so well likt By the gurls, who are all in luv with yu.	real estate worth four times the amount lent, and generally, as he grew older to	But Bessie did not hesitate. She laid	log two feet, and then it stuck fast. Then I yelled and put on the string, and those
(Office with Hon. I. E. Hiester,)	PURE AND UNADULTERATED, A. These Bitters are celebrated for the great cure:	Septiwif No. 13 Front St., Columbia, Pa.	The above prices are for the Month of May. Terms Cash before delivery.	They git up festivuls in hener of yur coming, And make the counterhoppers and fellers shell	thosewhom he hoped, not being able to pay would be obliged to sell the land to him at	When she came back the man had entered	two little fellows leaned into their work,
No. 38 NORTH DUKE ST., LANCASTER, P feb26 '60tf	 These Bitters are celebrated for the great cure. they have performed in every case, when tried. 		sufficient guarantee of their quality; and as I deal in no other, the public can rest assured	out	his own price. At twenty-four, tonghened by nine years of unceasing work, he mar-	sure he had come in the window ; but she	and just shivered a little, and then they went like a shot for a yard or two and with
DHILIP D. BAKER,	Dr. Mishler offers five hundred dollars to the pro	PIANOS, ORGANS, MELODEONS.	they are as represented. AMOS S. GREEN, Agt., mar21-tt For Suckney & Co., Wilkeburrc.	Git hum in thurd story bed rumes, thinking how	ried a woman who for four years, one even-	The man drank, and then set the dipper	a long red stick behind 'em, and every- body shouted and then shut up their fly-
No. 11 NORTH DUKE ST., LANCASTER, P feb26-11	A prietor of any Medicine that can show a greater number of genuine certificates of cures effected	AND MUSICIAL INSTRUMENTS	B. FRANK SAYLOR & CO.,	Half a munths wages has ben busted to smash. But I must stop solilerquising. Strawburry,	ing in each week, had listened to the story of his gains, and shared with him in the	the girl, and drew a broad-bladed knife	traps and said not a word. For, gentlemen, would you believe it, those two little bucks
A J. KAUFFMAN,	by it, near the place where it is made, than	GENERALLY.	P HOTOGRAPHERS,	Yure my victim, yure bully—Just old peaches !	joy of coming possessions. The day they were married witnessed the expenditure of	" Look ye, my young lady," said he "I	had drawn the heart right out of that log! Yes, sir; and if that Yankee don't believe
Collections made in Lancaster and adjoint		Banjos, Tamborines, Accordeons, Files, Har- nonicas, oud musical murchandise always on hand.	No. 26 West King Street, LANCASTER, PENN'A.	WAR NEWS.	the first dime for anything outside of food and clothing, and that was five shillings,	The second secon	it, I can show him the same log to-day at Jackson. The road commissioners took it
Counties, Pensions, Bounty, Back Pay, and all clain wainst the government promptly prosecuted.		SHEET MUSIC.	We aim to satisfy all our patrons, as well as give them work, which tavorably compares with that done in the best galleries.	Here on a summer's sultry eve, Three thousand miles across the ocean,	sterling money, to the man who married him.		for a town pump. It was all bored for use. I started one day with my span of greys
Villee-No. 23, Locust Street.	MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS	A large stock on hand, and constantly receiving all the latest publications as soon as issued.	CODVEND DICTURES	The village statesmen tell the news, And every loafer gives his notion.	Hiring a farm, they went to work. Money	and there is no time to waste. Don't make	and load of corn to drive to Jackson, nine
9 .	Is for sale in Columbia by	Music and Musical Books will be sent by mail free of postage, when the market price is remit- ted	Into any size, of deceased or absent friends, is	The way in Europe—which'll whip? And are the Dutch a warlike nation—	was scarce, but wherever a dollar could be got, there he sought it. Living forty miles	quick !''	miles to market. Brought back twelve bags of meal and a barrel of flour. Well,
Attorney-at-Law & Notary Publi COLUMBIA, PA.	At his Store, Locust Street, Columbia,	DACALCOMANIA,	made a specialty with us. FRAMES, ALBUMS, and all things in our	And should they capture Holland, then Would that affect the situation?	from an Eastern city, he carted coal which he had previously burned, when he had	man's face, and she could see that he meant	just as I got shut of town and had about eight miles of Prairie 'twixt me and Han-
OFFICE-SPY Building, Bank Stree', ne Locust. Collections made in Lancaster and adjoinin		Or the Art of transferring Pictures. Can be transferred on any object.	27 Remember the	Squire Silvertooth declares— That every paper lies and wheedles,	nothing else to cart, with a yoke of oxen and a horse ahead, spending one night and	"If I show you where the money is will	nah, I heard a rattling noise behind me, and when I looked round there was a bounc-countles.	WINES AND LIQUORS!	I would call special attention of the Coach- makers to my stock of Dacalcomania. AGENT FOR	Photographers, No. 26 West King St., Lancaster	But he'll be whipp'd if he believes That people go to war with needles!	a part of another and two days on the road, always carrying the food for his team and	you promise not to do me harm?" "Show me, honest, and I won't harm t	ing huil storm right upon me. I yelled at the greys and flung my chaw of tobacco at
No 528 Washington street, near Sixth, Reading, Pa.	Embracing the following:	AGENT FOR STEINWAY & SON'S PIANOS, PRINCE & CO'S., & NEEDHAM & SON'S CELEBRATI D	No. 26 West King St., Lancaster P. FRANK SAYLOR, JAMES POTTS.	Then lawyer Sharp takes to ther side— But he's rather small potater—	his own, and never spending a penny ex- cept for toll-gate fees, which he sometimes	"Then come with me. But you will take	Billy, for he was the laziest, and we swung long at what you Yankees call a good
Collections made in Berks and adjoint counties.		ORGANS AND MELODEONS. Sole Agent for Stoll's Unrivaled PIANO	FINANCIAL.	He's only been a justice one, While the squire's been to the Legislater	escaped by passing them after the middle	only the money -you wont take my father's I papers."	Hiram Woodruff pace. I never quit yell- ing, and they never stopped running till
H. M. NORTH,	Port,	FORTE AND FURNITURE POLISH.	TNTERESTS ON DEPOSITS.	Hane Sneider, 'cross the way, declares- "Before dis httle row is through, sir,	work was, have something to sell; and while his neighbors who owned farms were	"Only the money, girl."	we struck Felderkin's corner, right where you blazed that burr oak this morning.
Columbia, Pa. Collections promptly made in Lancaster ar	Lisbon, nd Cherry,	Call and examine my stock at NO. 3 NORTH PRINCE STREET,	The COLUMBIA NATIONAL BANK will	Desc here Napoleon vill get vipped Shoost like anoder Vaterloo sir."	only making both ends meet, he paid his	the ground floor, where there was an old mahogany bureau, the upper drawer of	Then I found the storm was over, and when
York Counties.	- Maderia,	LANCASTER, PA. oct.16.'69-1y	pay interest on Deposits as follows: For 1 & 2 Months, 4 per cent.	While Monsieur Jacques, upon his heart, His little hand in ardor squeezes,		which she unlocked. The man, when he	I looked to see whether the load was safe, there were two bushels and a-half of hail
No. 11 North Duke Street Loucaster, Pa.	Malaga,	TASPER GREEN,	" 3, 4 & 5 " 4½ " " 6, 7, 8, 9 & 10 " 5 "	And says: "Ze grand France will knock Ze Prussians into little pieces!"	for it, when the man of whom he made the	ford's gold was within his grasp, shut up	stones in the hind end of my wagon, but
Professional Business carefully and promp ly attended to. [oct30'69-tf	Champagne,	Designer & Engraver on Wood. COLUMBIA, PA.		Miscellancous geading.		his knife and put it into his pocket. The girl opened the drawer, and, quick as	wil storm all those eight miles home
D. P. ROSENMILLER, JR., ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.	Claret,	Is prepared to execute Views of Buildings, Ma- chinery, Bill Heads, Posters, Labels, &c., in the neatest and most expeditious manner, at rea-	TIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CO-	THE BROKEN SAW-A STORY	tion.	thought, drew forth a large navy revolver $\begin{bmatrix} 1 \\ - \end{bmatrix}$ one with which she berself had killed a	Now its my opinion that you couldn't do that little trick to day with any two borses
ATTORNET-AT-LAW. OFFICE.—No. 5 Court Avenue, Lancaster, P	Rhine, Blackberry,	sonable rates. BOOK AND NEWSPAPER ILLUSTRATIONS	IJUMBIA, Interest Paid on Special Deposits as follows:	FOR BOYS.	to this pair-children that mainly looked out for themselves at six months, and en-	trapped bear-and cocked it. "Villian!" she exclaimed, planting her t	n Illinois, not if you soak their tails in urpentine the night before, and touch a
TOHN M. GRIDER,	Eldei berry,	Executed in the Highest Style of Art. may23"70-tf	4 per cent. for 30 or 60 days.	accounted a hard master. He never kept	tirely so at sixteen months old, spending		match to 'em just as you say-Git out of
U		GARDEN, FLOWER AND GRASS	4 1-2 per cent. for 90 days and under 6 months.	they meant to quit; so he was half his time	that begrimmed them, while it made per-	shot with this good pistol, and I'll now	FLAGSTAFF ON THE FIELD OF BANNOCK-
Mountville, Lancaster County, Pa. Mountville, Lancaster County, Pa. 102_Office Hours from 6 to 8 o'clock, A. M and 7 to 9 o'clock, P. M.		SEEDS!	5 per cent. for 6 month and under 11 months. 5 1-2 per cent for 11 & 12 months.	was not very hard - opening and sweeping	until they were old enough to be helpful	house! I will give you not even a second ! Start, or I fire!"	BURN.
M. CLARK, JUSTICE OF THE PEACH	E. COGNAC, OF DIFFERENT BRANDS.	AT	S. S. DETWEILER, Cashier	and helping round. At last Sam Fisher	ritt's story of the English Nailers, their lit-	The ruflan could read human looks as 1	A flagstaff was inaugurated on Saturday ast on the battle-field of Bannockburn, on
OFFICE-No. 12 N. Third street. Office Hours-From 6 to 7 A. M. 12 to 1 P. M and from 6 to 9 P. M. [sep4-69-tfw	Also, OLD RYE WHISKEY and	J. A. MEYERS',	A ^{TTENTION!}	went to live with him, "Sam's a good boy."	tle hands grew horny and hard, and their bodies prematurely old by the incessant	read very plainly in the firm-set lips and t	the site of the borestone where King Robert the Bruce erected his standard at the fa-
SAMUEL EVANS. JUSTICE OF THE PEACE.	BRANDLES of all kinds:	FAMILY MEDICINE STORE, ODD FELLOWS' HALL ,	Parties, Pic-nics, &c.	boy now-a-days that had a spark of good- ness in him," growled the new master.	work. All this time, Daniel throve amain. Once		mous battle. The staff is built upon a stone foundation five feet square, has a base of
• Office, on Second St., adjoining Odd Fellow Hall, Columbia, Fa.	S Blackberry Jamaica Spirits, Catawba, Kummel,	Our Stock is composed ENTINELY of	"Big Island, just above the Bridge, respectfully	It is always bad to begin with a man who		she would not only fire, as she had promis- ed, but her aim would be a sure and a dead-	cast-iron weighing llcwt., surrounded by Scotch thistles painted green. The staff
D ^{ENTAL} , SURGERY. J. S. SMITH, DENTIST,	Cherry, Ginger,	Seeds from the celebrated Philadelphia Seedsmen,	lic generally that they will rent it to Parties, Pic-Nics, Excursionists, either day or creating. The strictest order must be maintained, and the Band is determined to make it a PLEASANT	has no confidence in you; because, do your best, you are likely to have little	he used to say. His expenditures for be- nevolent objects were measured by those	ly one.	consists of two parts. The lower, which is of malleable iron, is about 80 feet in height
Graduate of Pennsylvania College of Denta Surgery, Office No. 210 Locust Street		D. LANDRETH & SON. We have NONE other on hand, and hav-	PLACE of RESORT. The Band also gives notice that SWIMMING	eredit for it. However, Sam would try it; the wages were good, and his mother want-	for objects of comfort and objects of taste,	backed into the sitting-room-then leaped a	and weighs three tons. The upper portion of the staff is of Baltic pine, and being 50
2nd door above Odd Fellows' Hall Columbia, Penn'a. Dr J. S Smith thanks his friends and the put	- Superior Old Rye, Pure Old Rye,	ing closed out evci y package of last season's stock, we guarantee all to be	and BATHING near the Island is strictly pro- hibited, under penalty of the law, and that this regulation will be inforced in every instance.	ed him to go. Sam had been there three days, before; in sawing a cross-grained	ate a dollar.	Bessie kept her pistol by her side until her fe
tic in general for their liberal patronage in the nest, and assuring them that they can rely upo	n XXX Old Rve.	FRESH AND GENUINE, And will sell them at Landreth's prices.		stick of wood, he broke the saw. He was a little frightened. He knew he was careful,	never bought his clothes even for cash, but	she had told her story, search was made g	galvanized wire rope attached to large future. In every branch of his protession h bas always given entire satisfaction. He cal	XX Old Rye X Old Rye,		July2-tf.J		anything else. Even his table was set in	Our heroine had so thoroughly frightened b	stones placed at equal distances around the base, and is surmounted by a battle ax.
attention to the unsurpassed style and inis of artificial teeth inserted by him. He treat diseases common to the mouth and teeth o	Pure Old Rye, Mønongahela,	N. BHaving removed my residence to house No. 23 NORTH SECOND ST., formerly occupied by Mr. Jacob Hess, any of my friends requiring	The undersigned having purchased the Jewelry Store, formerly occupied by E. Spering,	saw broke in his hands	cakes, and salt pork making up ninety-nine		The total cost of the staff is about £300, which has chiefly been collected by the children and adults. Teeth filled with the great est care and in the most approved manne Aching teeth treated and filled to last for year	r.	Medicine during the night, will please call there.	announce to the public of Columbia and vicini- ty, that they have now open at	and another boy who was in the wood- house with him. "Why of course I didn't	one hundredths of his family food. At length, at sixty-two years of age, in		Dumbarton Lodge of Odd Fellows, who were the originators of the movement, as-
The best of dentrifices and mouth washes cor stantly on hand. N. BAll work warranted. Sep1-69-lyw J. S. SMITH, D. D. S	Scotch Ale, &c., c.	sept.4'69-tfw] J. A. MEYERS, Odd Fellows' Hall.	A large and full stock of	mean it, and accidents will happen to the best of folks," said Sam, looking with a	the presence of his wife and his four chil- dren, in a house that had neither taste with-		sisted by the Stirling Lodge. On the occa- sasion of the inauguration, there were Ma-
$\frac{\text{sepi-62-lyw}}{\mathbf{A}} \text{J. GULICK,}$	AGENCY FOR	STEAM COACH WORKS.	Clocks, Watches & Seaterry,	very sorrowful air on the broken saw.	out nor comfort within, he died, the owner	ed with a dinner, passed out to them s	sonic processions, and gatherings of great numbers of spectators from Edinburg,
SURGEON DENTIST.	MALT AND CIDER VINEGAR.	CHRISTIAN MYERS,	FOR	said the other boy; "I never saw anything [and with over seven thousand dollars'	of a tour or revolving box. There was a	Blasgow, and other places, excursion trains being run [±] to accommodate the public.— El -
Extracts Teeth without Pain. Nitrou's Oxide o Laughing Gas administered. OFFICE IS LOCUST STREET.	He is also Agent for the Celebrated		will cost you NOTHING	only that he jumped into a hear's nest and	rawhide pocketbook under his pillow.	Each beggar in turn rang and received his vepti-69-ifw D C. UNSELD,	- MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS.	COLUMBIA STEAM	hand a Stock of CLOCKS and WATCHES, per- fectly regulated and ready for immediate use.	broke her eggs. He darn't tell of it; but Mr. Jones kept suspecting and suspecting,	dollars, and the fight over his property	dinner. After a time, the cook noticed that twenty-five dinners were passed out. A	ATLANTIC CABLE REPAIRED.
B. TEACHER OF MUSIC.		COACH WORKS!	api30 '70-tf] No. 39 Front St., Columbia.	and laid everything out of the way to Bill, whatever Bill was to blame or not, still Bill	al.		The cable of 1866, of the Angle-American Company, which has been interrupted for
PIANO, ORGAN	FOR SALE	REMOVED TO Nos. 9, 11 AND 13 NORTH 5th STREET.	Julifio domito do.	couldn't stand it, and wouldn't." "Did be tell Mr. Jones about the eggs ?" asked Sam.	main:	and turned away, this dog would go up and sing the bell and get a dinner for himself.	is found to be excellent condition. Much
MELODEON CULTIVATION of the VOICE and SINGING Special attention given Beginners and youn		The Carriages, Buggies, &c., made at these Works, are equal in beauty and durability to			sell, either eat yourself or feed to your hogs;	The authorities of the convent, learning s of the case, decreed that the dog should w	vas not sooner repaired, the location of the pupils. 219 LOCUST STREET. sept4-69-lyw	TOBACCO BOXES,	any other make in the county.	JOHN S. REESE & CO.,	better owned just at once." said Sam. "I	and when you get a dollar keep it."— Hearth and Home .		of the delay was that the company had to
J. DENTIST.	- and FANCY ARTICLES, in great variety, At J. C. BUCHER'S.	COACH SMITHING, REPAIRING, &c. This branch of the business will be attended to	ORNERAL AGENTS,	practice," said the boy. "I'd run away be- fore I'd tell him;" and he soon turned on		Another case, related by a man who	construct a steamer, the Robert Lowe, for
Nitrous Oxide Gas administered in the extraction of Teeth.		with punctuality and despatch. CHILDREN'S CARRIAGES,	122 South Delaware Ave., Phil'a.	, and the boost current out	CLERICAL JOKE.		he purpose of repairing such faults, and
Office- Front Street, next door to R. William Drug Store, between Locust and Walnut Street Columbia Pa.	š. I	Wagons, &c., for sale or made to order.	1	his heel leftpoor Sam alone with his broken saw.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was	a river—which they did by swimming their borses—the walk of dors all following av-	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after
F. PHYSICIAN & SURGEON;			10 South Street, Baltimore.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta-	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach	a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af-	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New-
the string and the second s	MISHLER'S BITTERS!	 The stock and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw 	SOLUBLE PACIFC	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. He shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un-	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The	a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is sufli- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made others his professional services to the citizens of Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at th other connected with his residence, on Secon	MISHLER'S BITTERS!	The Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices.	SOLUBLE PACIFC	saw. The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became werry, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence-	sawit? A party of initiatian into to close a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the re-
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at th office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wisning his services in special cases, betwee	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by	ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. Sep5-CD-Lfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK,	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. He shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. He wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, folling upon his knees, "help me to	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other	sawit? A party of hintsmath had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com-	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans-
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at th office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and Iron 6 to 8 P. M. Person wisning his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by	THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS,	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Middle and Southern States has given more general and uniform satisfaction than this GUANO. The trade in it has steadily increased until	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. He shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der tho eaves. He wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily understood that they feared they should have to hear the same	sawit? A party of ministrain find to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades.	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the olice connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. Sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER.	ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. Sep5-CD-Lfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK,	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Middle and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this GUANO. The trade in it has steadily increased until the consumption now throughout the entire country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If a shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs,	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally	sawit? A party of initiating individual to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop,	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca-
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. Sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER.	²⁵ Call at the Works No. 8, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. Sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMAN'S 128 Locust Street,	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Middle and Southern States has given more general and uniform statisfaction than this GUANO. The trade in it has steadily increased until the consumption now throughout the entire country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production affords the surest guarantee of its continued ex- collence. The Company has a far update in-	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kutchen. "Sir,"	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister—	sawit? A party of initiating the roles is a river-which they did by swimming their it is horses-the pack of dogs all following, except a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. After looking on for a time, with many distressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his comrades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London: A pieman with meat pies was a wont to stop on the street before the shop, but while the dog to the river before the shop, and solve the to the restrict before the shop, but while the dog to the street before the shop, but wont to stop on the street before the shop, but we have the down the stop on the street before the shop, but we have the down to shop on the street before the shop, but we have the down the stop of the stop on the street before the shop, but we have the stop of the stop on the street before the shop, but we have the stop on the stop of t	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the re- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St.
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and Iron 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office. Sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp und careful attention. F. X.ZIEGLER, A. J. KAUFFMAN.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON.	THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, B RENEME	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Middle and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this (UANO. The trade in it has steadily increased until the consumption now throughout the entire country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production affords the sure tomarance of its trade than any introde of commanance of its trade than any humber of commanance on its trade than any humber of the source of the tomarance of the trade than any humber of commanance on the type of the type of the source of the type of the	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people becamo weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to	sawit? A party of initiating indicides a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London: A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the piennan came along, the	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe n good working order.— The Telegrapher .
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sept-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X.FIEGLER, oct30+'03-tf] A. J. KAUFFMAN.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by	ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMAN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Yon Youth and (builden ever before offer-	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Middle and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this UANO. The trade in it has steadily increased until country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital involved in its production and ords the surest guarantee of its continued ex- cellence. The Company has a far greater in- terest in the premanance of its trade than any number of consumers can have, hence it is the highest interest of the Company to put the best fertilizer into market, that their unusal facil- ities, added by the best scientific ability can produce.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. He shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der tho caves. He wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because." said Sam.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— "My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him,	sawit? A party of ministrain inductors in a river-which they did by swimming their in horses—the pack of dogs all following, except a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. After looking on for a time, with many distrcssful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his comrades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The uext day, when the pienan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, fimmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums;
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sept-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, oct30+'00+tf] A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and saperito to any	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER,	ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. Sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMAN'S 125 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- ed to the people of Columbia, comprising as at does, STYLE and QUALITY in soft and stift brim, such as the Warwick, ida Lewis, Simual.	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the general and unitorm satisfaction than this duano. The fands in it has steadily increased until country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production affords the surest guarantee of its continued ex- cellence. The Company has a far greater in- referse in the premanance of its trade than any number of consumers can have; hence it is the highest interest of the 'Onigany to put the best fittles, added by the best scientific ability can produce.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke yoursaw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people becamo weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— "My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you	sawit! A party of initiality into the closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The uext day, when the pienan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- oles connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, fimmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two ir three weeks." "You don't seem to be-
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sept-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, oct30+'00+tf] A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and saperito to any	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER,	 Example 1 and the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMENT BRANS'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- dees, STLE and Children of Stik Hats, just out, together with a full stolet of Stike Hats, just out, together with a full stolet of 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the diversion of the second second second second general and unitorm satisfaction than this duano. The trade in it has steadily increased until country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital involved in its production afords the surest guarantee of its continued ex- clience. The Company has a far greater in- terest in the premainance of its trade than any number of consumers can have, hence it is the highest interest of the Company to put the best fertilizer into market, that their unusal faci- tites, added by the best scientific ability can Data any throughout New Jersey. Dela- any throughout New Jersey. Dela- and at wholesale by	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broko it; but I tried to be careful," Mr.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people locking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my	sawift? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog turned inmediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made. The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office. Sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. HEGLER, oct30-40-461 attention. F. X. HEGLER, Building, paving and other brick always of hand. They are hand made and superior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of icrediat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-44W]	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER,	ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMEMAN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before ofter- ed to the people of Coumbia, comprising as the does, STLEE and QUALITY in soft and stift prime, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American GUALITY in soft and stift prime, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American Git, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Rob Hoy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS'	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the general and unitorm satisfaction than this UNNO. The consumption how throughout the entire councer of the states is a signed with the consumption how throughout the entire councer for the states of the content of the consumption how throughout the entire consumption how throughout the entire consumption how throughout the entire control for the states of the continued ex- tiles of the premainance of its trade than any independent of the company to put the best files of the premainance of its trade than any independent of the company to put the best files of the premainance of its trade than any independent of the company to put the best files of the premainance of the trade than any independent of the company to put the best sciencies. This Guano is sold at retail by Local Agents of the company throughout New Jersey, Delay and a Wolesale by DOIN'S, REESE & CO, GEO, BOGLE, Agent,	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If a shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam,"	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— "My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning."	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the piennan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie.	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- oles connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, fimmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two ir three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jimmy?" "Why,yes, marm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the olice connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of creats, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp ot a state of the state, collection of a state of the state. Collection of the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state of the state. Collection of the state of the state of the state of the state. The state of the state. The state of	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the	 EXAMPLE A CONTRACT OF A CONTRACT ON A CONTRAC	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Middle and Southern States has given more general and uniform satisfaction than this UANO. The trade in it has steadily increased until the consumption now throughout the entre outry far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production fords the surest guarantee of its continued ex- cellence. The Company has a far greater in- terest in the premanance of its trade than any number of consumers can have, hence it is the highest interest of the Company to put the best fertilizer into market, that their unsult facil- tites, anded by the best scientific ability can produce. This Gnano is sold at retail by Local Agents of the Company throughout New Jersey, Dela- yang Loomany to fue company. Solin S. REESE & CO., General Agents for the Company. MIDIN S. REESE & CO., General Agents for the Company. MIDIN S. MIDIN S. MARKEN, Company. MIDIN S. MARKEN, Company.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der tho eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si irits, delivered his note, and was	sawit! A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- mense business for the cables, and the re- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I ve been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Secon street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. Sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. HEGLER, oct30-409-tf] A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always of hand. They are hand made and superior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of icrediat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-tW1 MICHAEL LIPHART. ADDIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entire stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES,	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR.	 ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMEMAN, ANN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offered to the people of Columbia, comprising as the does, STILE and UALITY in soft and shift prime, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinhad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Rob Roy, and the Fall style of Slike Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the general and unitorm satisfaction than this units and southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this outwaw. The large capital in volved in its production from the surest guarantee of its crade than any manber of consumers can have; hence it is the ingest interest of the Company to put the best for the surest guarantee of its crade than any mode the surest guarantee of its trade than any ingest interest of the Company to put the best for the surest guarantee of its trade than any mode by the best scientific ability can be company throughout New Jersey, Dela- sund at wolesale by LOIN'S, REESE & CO., General Agents for the Company. MIN'S REESE & CO., General Agents for the Company. MIN'S ARE STATES AND AND PATENTEES.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed, boy. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people becamo weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people locking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good sj. irits, delivered his note, and was havited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo-	sawit? A party of hintshuit had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old ychool, the Misses R., long time my neigh-	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- itoration of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "Immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- pooks, and all that; and when they have
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. ZIEGLER, oct30+(00-tf] A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Huilding, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. Sep 4-69-tfw] MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEXI,	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits	 EXAMPLE AND CAPS, Song A. 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. Sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENENEMAN, Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offered to the people of Columbia, comprising as at does, STILE and QUALITY in soft and stift prime, archive, and the fail style of Sifk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Fiannel 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the didde and Southern States has given more several and unitorm satisfaction that this urano. The farmer is the standing increased until consumption how throughout the entre sources of the surest guarantee of its continued ex- ferences in the premanance of its continue ex- tension in the premanance of its continue ex- tension in the premanance of its continue ex- ferences in the premanance of its continue ex- fer	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. He shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der tho caves. He wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam," I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si-irits, delivered his note, and was hwited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hear and a half to the same humdrum sermon that	sawit! A party of hintshuit had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carringe	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- tiently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- mense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe n good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I vo been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of creats, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. FIEGLEN, octaw/www.fi] A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and sale of real estate is office it is sep 4-69-tfw] MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Roota formerly carried on by	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish-	 ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMEMAN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- ed to the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STILE and QUALITY in soft and still prince Arthur, American GUALITY in soft and still prince, Arthur, American GUALITY in soft and still prince, Arthur, American GUI, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestle Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Sus- penders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cutis and Col- lars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the didle and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this. The trade in it has steadily increased until country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital involved in its production affords the surest guarantee of its continued ex- clience. The Company has a far greater in- mode the surest guarantee of its continued ex- clience. The Company has a far greater in- trees in the premainance of its trade than any minber of consumers can have, hence it is the highest interest of the Company to put the best fittes, added by the best scientific ability can be company throughout New Jersey. Dela- and at wholesale by DIMNS REESE & CO. General Agents for the Company. MPORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES' Bazaar and Sales Roomss 529. Chestnut St. Philadelphia	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they	sawit! A party of hintshuit had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- des connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "Immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; nat I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have dic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. FIEGLER, N. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and sale performed to a superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of iterate the very lowest price. sep 4-69-4001 MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of former former on price of prices. Schores, In the Store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEL, N. CULUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & CAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & CAITERS	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENEMEMA AN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offered to the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STILE and QUALITY in soft and shift brim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Silbad, Prince Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Edditor, Ruber, Waverby, Gilmore, Rob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Finnel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestie Hostery, Gloves, Mandkerchiets, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Collars, de. Also. UMBRELLAS AND CANES. 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the Source of the Southern States has given more several and unitorm satisfaction than this consumption how throughout the entire outwo. The consumption how throughout the entire several and unitorm satisfactor that the former interest of the contrany other Fertilizer. The several and unit of the forming of the former interest of the contrany the several the the former interest of the contrany the former into the sure sure the the several the state that any other interest of the contrany to the the forming of the sure sure the best scientific ability can be consumer sum have; hence it is the former interest of the contrany to prove the several sure venessies. DINS REESE & CO, Gunadas, is interest of contrany to the contrany of the sure of contrany of the several several contrants. MPORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES. BAZBAAT AND PATENTEES. 529 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. boy. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. It the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was hwited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again.	sawit! A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carringe dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the school has bais, surly mastif, that al-	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe n good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I ve been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jimmy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what is your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. Sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. ZIEGLER, oct30-409-411 attention. F. X. ZIEGLER, oct30-409-411 attention. F. X. ZIEGLER, sep 4-60-440, sep 1-60 attention of the country. They are of incedate the very lowest price. Sep 4-60-440 attention which are the entiry. The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' LADIES! READ': READ': READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEÅ. No. 14S LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia, La	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect.	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNEM AN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- does, STILE and Children, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' GURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hostery, Gloves, Handkerchiets, Sus- penders, Ties, Lluen and Paper Cuffs and Col- lars, éc. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Parties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant aim to merit their confidence and support. Chil and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. Software introduced to the Farmers of the fuelds and southern States has given more consumption has standily increased until to consumption has standily increased until to consumer sum have; hence it is the infort the surest guarantee of its crade than any nighest interest of the Company to put the best forest in the premainance of its trade than any inglest interest of the Company to put the best state. Until the best scientific ability can be company through and the Southern States and a wholesale by GEO. BOGLE, Agent, Columbia, Par. IMPORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES' BAZABAT AND PATENTEES' BAZABAT AND SALES ROOMS 529 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. BARBER & CO.	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi-	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his serinon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same hundrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again.	sawit! A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the toll house had a big, surly mastift, that al- ways sailedout and attacked their dog, who	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of bue cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of bue shall soon have the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to smany?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- pooks, and all that; and when they have pic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstruct, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, oct30+60+61 [Intervention of the state, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, oct30+60+61 [Intervention]. A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and staperior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. sep 4-60-600 [Intervention]. MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entire stock of IADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Roon formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEA; No. 145 LOCUST STREET , COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSE' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSE'S BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia, La des' BOOTS and GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La des' BOOTS and Intervents.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported	 ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Staff street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENENEMAN, Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before ofter- ed to the people of Columbia, comprising as the does, STILE and UALITY in soft and shift brim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince, Arb Y, Choan, Waverby, Gilmore, Rob Koy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cutis and Col- lars, dec. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Parties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to imerit their confidence and support. 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the general and unitorm satisfaction than this of the sone states is a given more general and unitorm satisfaction that this of the sone states is a given more general and unitorm satisfaction that this of the sone states is a given more general and unitorm satisfaction that the consumption now throughout the entire contropy for exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production more the sure stranance of its trade than any index the sure stranance of its trade than any more of consumers can have, hence it is the ingest interest of the 'company to put the best fires of the premanance of its trade than any ingest interest of the 'company to put the best states. JOIN'S, REESE & CO, General Agents for the Congray. MINORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES. INVENTOR'S AND PATENTEES' BAZABAT AND PATENTEES. JOIN SOLON SALES ROOMS 529 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. BARBER & CO. 520 No FEES IN ADVANCE. The undersigned would respectively inform the public that they have opened an estatisfishment need and works of Patents are free to resort	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si,irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following anecdote to illustrate the power of the elo- queuce of Wendell Philips :	sawit! A party of hintsmith hind to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog tarned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carringe from their residence. The keeper of the stoll house had a big, surly mastif, that al- do ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujen suffered severely; so that at length be declined accommanying them if they	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- tiently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- mense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe n good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I vo been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em.'' ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompute dargeful attention. F. XJEGLEN, oct30/40-41 Attention, F. XJEGLEN, attention, F. XJEGLEN, N. ALALIFEN, SHOOTS & SHOES, In the store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEM, No. HAS LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA, Is now ready to sell all kinds ef LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia, La dies' Boots and Gaiters made to order. They, Repairing of all kinds neatly done. Don'a forget the place. Give us acall! June 14-157-41 A. G. GUILES.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported	 ES, Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Suffict street and examine the stock and prices, Sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNEMAN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before ofter- ed to the people of Coumbia, comprising as it does, STLEE and QUALITY in soft and still prine, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American GUALITY in soft and still prine, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Glimore, Rob Hoy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hostery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Sus- penders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Col- iars, dec. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Parties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to imerit their confidence and support. Cull and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the fuelde and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this duano. The far exceedes that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production fords the surest guarantee of its cradit than each reset in the premainance of its trade than any index of consumers can have, hence it is the highest interest of the Company to put the best fuels, and the surest guarantee of its crade than any interest interest of the Company to put the best fuels, and the surest guarantee of its trade than any highest interest of the Company to put the best fuels, and by the best scientific ability can be company throughout New Jersey. Dela states and the Southern States and a wholesale by GEO. BOGLE, Agent, Company Columbia, 14, 1000000000000000000000000000000000	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. by. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. If the boys had treated bim honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— "My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si,irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following anecdote to illustrate the power of the elo- queuce of Wendell Philips :	sawift? A party of hintshuit had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his ples to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books : I had it from school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Pasaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on match for him, and sometimes from their residence. The keeper of the school a big, surly mastiff, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujen suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- itoration of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon hay the three ca- des connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em.'' ANTHONY TROLLOPE says : "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife.''
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. ZIEGLER, oct30+(00-tf) A. J. KAUFFMAN, O BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on the the rest of the country. They are of the country. They are of is period. The very lowest price, sep 4-60-tfw] MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! READ! READ! No. IAS LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sel all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, AS cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' Boots and Gaiters made to order. EXAMPLES: DOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' Boots at GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' Boots and Gaiters made to order. EXAMPLES: HOTELS: HOTELS:	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE.	 ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Staffs street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-c8-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNEMANN'S THE LARGEST STOCK OF HAATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offered to the people of Coumbia, comprising as the does, STLEE and QUALIT' in soft and still brin, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American Git, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Rob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Liaen and Paper Cuffs and Colars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Tarties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant aim to inert. Child example our well selected stock at at low prices. Mart examine our well selected stock at at low prices. DRENEMAN'S No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. Cet9-19' FINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. Software and universal states has given more general and univers statisfaction that this The targe capital in volved in its production for the surest guarantee of its crade than any minber of consumers can have, hence it is the inferst interest of the Company to put the best files and so its sold at retail by Local Agents of highest interest of the Company to put the best states interest of the Volume of its trade than any mighest interest of the Company to put the best states and a wolesale by the best scientific ability can be company throughout New Jersey. Delay and at wolesale by DIN'S REESE & CO, General Agents for the Company. DIN'S REESE & CO, General Agents for the Company. MPORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES. INVENTOR'S AND PATENTEES' DATABAT AND PATENTEES' DATABAT AND PATENTEES. BEABEAR AND SALES ROOMS 529 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. BARBER & CO. 520 Chest N ADVINCE. The undersigned would respectively inform the public that they have opened an estatishishment and the above title, where inventors, Paten- tees and Owners of Patents are free to resort to and Patents. The feature of this Bazaar consists in this, and a fuentions may transact their bush	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. boy. Nover fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. If the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. Sroons.—At a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was a guest, the host-	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following ameedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which he	sawitt: A party of hintsmith hind to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage from their residence. The keeper of the stoll house had a big, surly mastif, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujen suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile.	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- tiently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe n good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I ve been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female writer; and yet during ber school days she
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompt and careful attention. F.X.FIEGLEN, oct30+W-tf] A. J. KAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and saperior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify and made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify are hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify are hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify are hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify the entity of the store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDES! In the Store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDES!, No. 14'S LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds ef LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' Boots and Gaiters made to order. Typ. Repairing of all kinds neatify done. Don' forget the place. Give us a call? June 18:1870-tf.] A. G. GUILES. HOTTELS. ''CONTINENTAL.''	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER 5.	 ES, Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices. sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNEMANS, Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offered to the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and QUALITY in soft and shift brim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Silbad, Prince Arthur, American Girl, Knte, Peerless, Eddy Thorn, Rowling, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Rob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a fall stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestie Hostery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Collars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Parties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to merit their confidence and support. Call and examine our well selected stock at at atom price. BRENEMAN'S No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. oct9.'69-1y 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. So Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the didde and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this. The trade in it has steadily increased until country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production more the surest guarantee of its continued ex- clience. The Company has a far greater in- freest in the premainance of its trade than any maber of consumers can have; hence it is the highest interest of the Company to put the best fittes, adde by the best scientific ability can any throughout New Jersey. Dela- any more the premainance of its trade that any highest interest of the Company to put the best fittes, adde by the best scientific ability can be company throughout New Jersey. Dela- and at wholesale by DIMNS SLEESE & CO. General Agents for the Company. MPORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES. DEADART MON PATENTEES' DEADART AND PATENTEES' DEADART AND PATENTES' DEADART AND PATENTES' D	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. boy. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. If the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. SroonsAt a tea-party in Washington, where General Latler was a guest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si irits, delivered his note, and was hwited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. That Boston Traveler relates the following aneedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : " Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which he made an address. A Southern slaveholder	sawit! A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books : I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carringe from their residence. The keeper of the stoll house had a big, surly mastiff, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujeu suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them.	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- mense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I vo been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Junmy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to smany?" "Why, tou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nois I goes to every one of 'em." MISEP THELES whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female vriter; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompt and careful attention. F. X. FIEGLER, or each of the rent will meet with prompt of a the rent of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. Sep 4-69-4001 Milling, paving and other brick always on hand. They are of and made and saperior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. Sep 4-69-4001 Milling bought the entire stock of the store floors & SHOES, In the Store floor formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDES, No. 145 LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA, Is now ready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheap as any other stand in Columbia. La dies BOOTS is and faiters made to order. Sp. Repairing of all kinds entry done. Don' for the place. Give us a call? June 18:1570-tf.] A. G. GUILES.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S.	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNE MANN'S BRENNE AND CAPS, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- dot the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and QUALITY in soft and shift prim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinhad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Hoy, and the Fall style of Slikk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do medic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Lluen and Paper Cuffs and Colars, et also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Parties who favor us with their patronage are assured that if will be our constant aim to merit here: confidence and support. Tal and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. ect9: 08-19 FINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Just received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, corner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDANO. Software and universe states has given more general and univers states has given more general for the states has given more states interest of the company has a far general and interest of consumers can have; hence it is the general and univers states has given more states interest of the company to put the best general and univers states have; hence it is the interest of the company has a far general faci- ties, interest of the company to put the best general agents for the company. DIN'S, REESE & CO, General Agents for the company. DIN'S, REESE & CO, Gunabas, PA, MPORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES. BACABA AND PATENTEES. DEVENTOR'S AND PATENTES' BACABA AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND AND PATENTES' DATA STATES AND	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broko it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which sourd and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and fishful master. SroonsAt a tea-party in Washington, where General Batler was a guest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his eup unfurnished with an important imple- ment, of which he was supposed to appre-	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si,irits, delivered his note, and was hvited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following aneedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the orator, went out in	sawit? A party of hintshift hild to closs a river—which they did by swimming their torses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog tarned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage from their residence. The keeper of the stoll house had a big, surly mastif, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujen suffered severely; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they The way through the lawn from their house to his hig nod was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as ho saw them take the up river rond he turned and ran with great speed head to the hong. In a very little while	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- mense business for the cables, and the ro- toration of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the Fronch cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do yon go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jimmy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'o ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what so your idea in going to so many?" "Why, too see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- pooks, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to shoose from when he is about to select a wife." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gutes Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female write; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her laws." A Boston woman refused to permit her
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstruct, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrusted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X. HEGLER, oct30+409-417 A. J. KAUFFMAN, TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of ieredat the very lowest price. Sep 4-69-4fw] MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEÅ, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, Andready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As now ready to sell all kinds ef LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheeng as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' Boots and Gaiters made to order. 9. Reparing of all kinds neatly done. Don' forget the place. Give us a call! THIS HOTELS: HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS. HOTELS.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S.	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North Fifth street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNE MANN'S BRENNE AND CAPS, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- dot the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and QUALITY in soft and shift prim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinhad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Hoy, and the Fall style of Slikk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do medic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Lluen and Paper Cuffs and Colars, et also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Parties who favor us with their patronage are assured that if will be our constant aim to merit here: confidence and support. Tal and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. ect9: 08-19 FINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Just received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, corner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. So Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the general and uniform states has given more general decision of the states that the consumption now throughout the entire country far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production more the surest guarantee of its crade than any indices the surest guarantee of its crade than any minber of consumers can have, hence it is the lightst interest of the Company to put the best strictles, added by the best scientific ability can be company throughout New Jersey. Dela- and at wholesale by DIMNS REESE & CO. General Agents for the Company. INFORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES. BAZABAT AND MATENTEES. BAZABAT AND MATENTEES. DIVENTORS' AND PATENTEES. DIVENTORS' AND PATENTES. Diverse for Agent for the company. Given of Patents are free to resort of the above title, while and claphia. BARBER & CO. 529 Chestnut St., Philadelphia. The east of the sales of their liven- tor and Patents. The above of Patents are free to resort of the agent of the sales of their liven- tor and Patents. The failer of this Bazaar consists in this, interferee on the part of the Proprietors. On interferee on the part of the Proprietors, paten- tant inventors, Patentees and Owners of Pat- itant inventors in advance, believing it to be interferee on the part of the Proprietors. On proof of they is strictle where in the sole of pat- itant inventors in advance, believing it to be unifie to ask pay for services not yet rendered, but if nany of their Patrons desire to employ them as the	Saw. The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. boy. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated bim honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. Sroons.—At a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was aguest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his cup unfurnished with an important imple- ment, of which he was supposed to appro- ciate the value. "Why, General Butler." she exclaimed, in a little womanly flutter	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si irits, delivered his note, and was hwited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hear and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they beard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. Turn Boston Traveler relates the following aneedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in thrs city at which he made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the orator, went out in a rage, and resorting to the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I have been to hear	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The uext day, when the pieman came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the sto hous had a big, surly mastif, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujeu suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as ho saw them take the up river coad ho turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, ac- companied hy a very powerful dog that or-	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the re- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the Fronch cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jimmy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals i but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- nocoks, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to shoose from when he is about to select a wife." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female writer; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her lass." A Boston woman refused to permit her musband to go on a fishing excursion, " be- aue he was very apt to get drowned when
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the office connected with his residence, on Seconstreet, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompt and careful attention. F. X. FIEGLEN, octave word by a second method of the rent will meet with prompt of a second method of the rent will meet with prompt of the yarch hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-tfw] MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entire stock of formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDES!, IADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Rooth formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDES!, No. 145 LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, Standing of all kinds effection of the stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, Standing of all kinds effections and Gaiters made to order. This HOTEL IS PLEASANTLY LOCATERS (CONTINENTAL.)	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUCHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO,	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 13 North Staff street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-c8-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNEMAN'S THE LARGEST STOCK OF HAATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offered to the people of Coumbia, comprising as the does, STLEE and QUALIT' in soft and still brin, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American Gill, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Rob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Colars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Tarties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant aim to inert. Child example our well selected stock at at low prices. Matter and course street, Columbia, Pa. cet9:49-13' TINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Just received, at the fine Grocery Establishment ging new Goods: 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. So Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the fueled and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this. The far exceedes that of any other Fertilizer. The arge capital involved in its production fords the surest guarantee of its craft than the interest of consumers can have; hence it is the ingest interest of the Company to put the best fields interest of the Company to put the best field of the Southern Sector. Definition for the company throughout New Jersey. Defa- ing 2000 for the Company to put the best for any fire of consumers can have; hence it is the fight of the Company to put the best for any fire of the Company. INFORTANT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTEES DACAGENER AND PATENTEES DACAGENER AND PATENTEES DACAGENER AND PATENTEES DACAGENER AND NATENTES DACAGENER AND ANTONE The undersigned would respect an establishing the fueld the above title, where inventors, Paten- tees and Owners of Patents are free to trass of the life inven- tor and Patents. The feature of this Bazaar consists in this, first and inventions may transact their fuels first and first first first proprietors. Of the stand first first first first first first and first and first first first first first first and first and first first first first first first fi	Saw. The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; J only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. SpoonsAt a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was a guest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his cup unfurnished with an important imple- ment, of which he was supposed to appro- ciate the value. "Why, General Butler." she exclaimed, in a little womanly futter of consternation, "haven't you a spoor.?" "No indeed, madam," quickly responded	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— "My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si,irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following aneedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I havo been to hear Wendell Philips speak, and such words, such abuse, too bad ! The rasend dearvers	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the stoll house had a big, surly mastiff, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Baujieu suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take the up river road ho turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, ac- companied by a very powerful dog that or- dimarily keen about the house and grounds	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- diently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the re- itoration of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the Fronch cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I vo been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goos to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female vriter; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her lass."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the other steed with his residence, on Seconstruct, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to S.P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sepi-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompute at his provide at his result. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompute at a state of real estate, collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompute at a state of real estate. Collection of rents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prompute at a state of rents and stoperior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of an office of the state and stoperior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify are hand made and stoperior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify are hand made and stoperior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of identify are hand in the store form formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDES'. No. IAS LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds ef LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, MISSE' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheep as any other stand in Columbia. La dies' Boots and Gaiters made to order. By Repairing of all kinds neally done. Don' forget the place. Give us a scall? June 18-1870-tf.] A. G. GUILES. HOTELLS. HOTELLS. HOTEL	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUCHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO, SNUFF, HAVANA, YARA, and	 ES. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North Staff street and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BRENNEMAN'S THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before ofter- ed to the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STLEE and UALIT's in soft and still brim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Rob Koy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cutis and Colored shirts, and colored that it will be our constant alm to sent the ill be our constant alm to constite the store our well selected stock at at low prices. MBRELLAS AND CANES. Futtes who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to imerit their confidence and support. Cul and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, JELLIES, PRESERVES, HONEY, FACHES, TOMATOES, SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, SUGLISH PICKLES, WINSLOW'S GREEN COLM 	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. So Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the general and uniform satisfaction than this our and an introduced to the Farmers of the fields and Southern States has given more general and uniform satisfaction than this consumption now throughout the entire consumption now throughout the entire consumers can have, hence it is the infest interest of the 'company to put the best conce. In the premanance of its trade than any infest interest of the 'company to put the best states and wholesale by the dest scientific ability can be company throughout New Sersey, Dela Market Newseaw. DIN'S REESE & CO. General Agents for the Company. Infest and the southern states and a wolesale by the company throughout New Sersey, Dela Market Newseaw. DIN'S REESE & CO. General Agents for the Common. Market Newseaw. INFERT TO INVENTORS AND PATENTERS. DINENTORY AND PATENTERS' DISCOMPARIAN PATENTERS' DISCOMPARIAN SALES ADOMENS and Destant St., Philadelphia. Discompariation of the sales of their inven- teres and Owners of Patentis are free to resort and a University of the sales of their inven- teres and Owners of Patentis are free to resort and the above title, where inventors, Paten- tees and Owners of Patentis are free to resort and the sales there for set of the sales of the above title where inventors, of the sand owners of Patentis are free to resort and inventors, Pratentees and Owners of the sand differ faitman desires the first and inventors, Pratentees and Owners of the sand differ faitman desire to employ of their interests, the Proprietors will the charge provide the short enter of the Proprietors with the charge provide the short enter parts dot the stabilishmeric provide the short enter set of the fees, nor provide the short enter of the Strabilish- ther interests, the Proprie	Saw. The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. boy. Nover fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jonos. If the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. Sroons.—At a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was a guest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his cup unfurnished with an important imple- ment, of which he was supposed to appre- ciate the value. "Why, General Butler." she exclaimed, in a little womanly flutter of consternation, "haven't you a spoor.?" "No indeed, madam," quickly responded the General, springing from his seat with well netted carnestness, and slapping his	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was hwited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hear and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following ameedide to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I havo been to hear Wendell Philips speak, and such words, such abuse, too bad ! The rascal deserves to be hung, and if we bad him at the South the ownid be hung, and that right quickly	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carringe dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the trassider. They had a carringe to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. The way through the lawn from their bouse to he high road was nearly half a mile. The way through the lawn from their bouse to he high road was nearly half a mile. They found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take the up river road he turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, ac- companied by a very powertal dog that or- dinarily kept about the house and grounds and never went with the car	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- tiently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the Fronch cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday School, fimmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jimmy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, to usee, I gets a little of what's going on at email, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have sic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." Miss P INELSE kays: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women, although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a witer; and yet during her school days she vas.considered the most stupid in her lass." A Soston woman refused to permit her fusts Ajar," is said to be making more thas."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for th purchase and sale of real estate, collection of crents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. X.FIEGLER, N. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and saperior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of ieredat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-4001 MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Room formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEA, No. 145 LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds of LADIES' BOOTS & GAITDRS, CHILDREN'S BOOTS & COLUMBIA, PA, Angle accommodations for Strangers and Colum and Pennsylvania Railroads, FRONT STREET, COLUMBIA, PA, Angle accommodations for Strangers and Trav	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO, SNUEF, HAVANA, YARA, and COMMON SEGARS. Also, SNUEF & TOBACCO BOXES. PIPES—2	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North State and examine the stock and prices, sep5-c8-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BREN EN EMAN'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before ofter- dices, STLEE and QUALITY in soft and stift prim, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince, Arbur, Mawerby, Gilmore, Rob Roy, and the Fall style of Silk data, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mesite Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Colored Shirts, Plannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mesite Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and colars, de. Also, UMBRELIAS AND CANES. Artiles who favor us with their patronage are are assured that it will be our constant alm to signed explore. Call ad examine our well selected stock at at low prices. Sust received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, conner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, Stath CEREN PEAS & c., & c. Together with a very fine assortment of a station of the a set of the selection of the set of the selection of the selection	SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. SOLUBLE PACIFC GUDADO. No Fertilizer introduced to the Farmers of the fuelde and Southern States has given more general and unitorm satisfaction than this duano. The far exceeds that of any other Fertilizer. The large capital in volved in its production fords the surest guarantee of its crafted than any index of consumers can have; hence it is the ingest interest of the Company to put the best first interest of the Company to put the best first structure of its trafted than any index of consumers can have; hence it is the ingest interest of the Company to put the best first and the surest first rade that units interest of consumers can have; hence it is the ingest interest of the Company to put the best first and the souther states of the company throughout New Jersey. Dela- st and a wholesale by . DIAL State State States and the Souther is states ind a wholesale by . DIAL State State States and the Souther is states ind a wholesale by . DIAL State States and the Souther is states . MENTORS' AND PATENTERS' . DATA DEAL TO INVENTORS . State A state States Roomes . State Chestnut St., Philadelphia. . BARBER & CO. . The advort of his Bazaar consists in this, interfereace on the sales of their inven- 	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the caves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broko it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which sourced and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and fulful master. SroonsAt a tea-party in Washington, where General Batler was a guest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his cup unfurnished with an important imple- ment, of which he was supposed to appro- ciate the value. "Why, General Butler." she exclaimed, in a little wonanaly flutter of consternation, "haven't you a spoor.?" "No indeed, madam," quickly responded the General, springing from his seat with well atted carnestness, and slapping his pockets, one after the other, "upon my word, inadam, if you don't believe me,	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si irits, delivered his note, and was havited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hear and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, thero was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the orator, went out in a rage, and resorting to the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I have been to hear wendell Philips words of the orator, went out in a rage, and resorting to the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I have been to hear wendell Philips may the bear to hear wendell Philips words of the orator, went out in a rage, too bad ' The rascal deserves to be hung, and if we had him at the South he would be hung, and that right q	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pienan came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books : I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the toll house had a big, surly mastif, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujen suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they The way through the lawn from their house to hie high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as ho saw them take the up river road he turned and ram with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, ac- companied by a very powerful dog that or- dinarily kept about the house and grounds and never went with the carriage, ac- timarily kept about the hous	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- tiently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- mense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- bles connecting this country with Europe n good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, timmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female vite; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her dass." A Boston woman refused to permit her misband to go on a fishing excursion, " be- aue he was very apt to get drowned when we went upon the water, and, moreover, id not knew how to swim any more than goose."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the street, between Cherry and Union, every day fron 7 to 9 A. M., and iron 6 to S.P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for th purchase and sale of real estate, collection of creats, and the reacting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp und careful attention. F. X. FIEGLEN, oct30+03-01 A. J. RAUFFMAN. TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and superior to an brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-00 MICHAEL LIPHART. LADIES! LADIES! READ! READ! The undersigned having bought the entir stock of LADIES' BOOTS & SHOES, In the Store Roon formerly carried on by JAMES SHROEDEN, No. IAS LOCUST STREET, COLUMBIA, PA., Is now ready to sell all kinds ef LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen any other stand in Columbia. La dies' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen any other stand in Columbia. LADIES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen any other stand in Columbia. Dates any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & GAITERS, As cheen as any other stand in Columbia. MISSES' BOOTS & COLUMBIA, PA. Ample account of the Reading and Colum and Pennsylvania Railroads, FRONT STREET, COLUMBIA, PA. Ample account of the Reading and Colum and Pennsylvania Railroads, MIRANKIN HOUSE, Proprietor, FLANKLIN HOUSE, MARTIN FERWIN, Sep1-60- URIAH FINDLEY, Sep1-60- URIAH FINDLEY	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWERS. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO, SNUFF, fIAVANA, YARA, and COMMON SEGARS. Also, SNUFF & TOBACCO BOXES, PIPES—a thousand and one varieties. Call at	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North State and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BREN EN EMAN 'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HAATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, set and yrange and the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Hoy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' GURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Collars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Arties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to. Call and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. BRENEMAN'S No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. ect9.'69-1y TINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Must received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, corner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, TOMATOES, TOMATOES, SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, SULLIES, PRESERVES, WINSLOW'S GREEN CORN GREEN PEAS & c., & c. Together with a very fine assortment of Family Grocerles, of all kinds. A LAROE LOT OF NEW YORK CANDIES, FOREIGN FRUITS, 	<section-header> SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC Solution Solutitition So</section-header>	The poor boy did not feel very comforta- ble or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber un- der the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he bad rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful," Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. boy. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their con- duct which soured and made him suspi- cious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. SrooxsAt a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was a guest, the host- ess, glancing over the table, perceived his cup unfurnished with an important imple- ment, of which he was supposed to appre- ciate the value. "Why, General Butler." she exclaimed, in a little womanly flutter of consternation, "haven"t you a spoor.?" "No indeed, madam," quickly responded the General, springing from his seat with well acted carnestness, and slapping his pockets, one after the other, "upon my word, madam; if you don't believe me, madam, you may search me!" The ap- pla	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was hvited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same hundrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE BOSTON Traveler relates the following aneedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips . "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the oratoring room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I havo been to hear Wendell Philips speak, and such words, such abuse, too bad ! The rascal deserves to be hung, and if we bad him at the South the would be hung, and that right quickly too.—Oh, it is too bad, too bad.' 'How long did you hear than one full hour,' repli- d the Southerner,	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pieman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the stoll house had a big, surly mastiff, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Baajieu suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take tho up river road ho turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, ac- companied by a very powertal dog that or- dinarily kept about the house and grounds and never went with	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the Fronch cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon hay the three ca- oles connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, fimmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jimmy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have dic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American femalo writer; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her dusts." A Boston woman refused to permit her musband to go on a fishing excursion, " be- aue he was very apt to get drowned when to event upon the water, and, moreover, id not know how to swim any more than goose."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and from 6 to 8 P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for th purchase and sale of real estate, collection of creats, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp of careful attention. F. XJEGLER, out are ful attention. F. XJEGLER, and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, out are ful attention. F. XJEGLER, and the rent general made and superior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-tfw] MICHAEL LIPHART.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWERS. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO, SNUFF, fIAVANA, YARA, and COMMON SEGARS. Also, SNUFF & TOBACCO BOXES, PIPES—a thousand and one varieties. Call at	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North State and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BREN EN EMAN 'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HAATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, set and yrange and the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Hoy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' GURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Collars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Arties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to. Call and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. BRENEMAN'S No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. ect9.'69-1y TINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Must received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, corner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, TOMATOES, TOMATOES, SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, SULLIES, PRESERVES, WINSLOW'S GREEN CORN GREEN PEAS & c., & c. Together with a very fine assortment of Family Grocerles, of all kinds. A LAROE LOT OF NEW YORK CANDIES, FOREIGN FRUITS, 	<section-header> SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC SOLUBLE PACIFC Solution Solutitition So</section-header>	The poor boy did not feel very comfortable or hapry. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber under the eaves. If wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their conduct which source and made him suspicious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. Srooxs.—At a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was a guest, the hostes, general Butler," she exclaimed, in a little wonanly futter of consternation, "herei't you a spoor?" "No indeed, madam," quickly responded the General, springing from his seat with well atted earnestness, and slapping his pockets, one after the other, "upon my word, madam, jif you don't believe me, madam, you may search me!" The applause which greeted this spontaneous sully "may be more easily imagined than described."	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and I know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si irits, delivered his note, and was havited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hear and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, thero was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the orator, went out in a rage, and resorting to the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I have been to hear Wendell Philips words of the orator, went out in a rage, and resorting to the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I have been to hear wended! Philips speak, and such words, such abuse, too bad ! The rascal deserves to be hung, and if we had him at the South he would be hung, and that right quickly too.—Oh, it is too bad, too bad.' 'H	sawit? A party of hintshuit had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran swiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog tarned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carringe dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the shol house had a big, surly mastiff, that al- ways sailedout and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujen suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, why through the lawn from their house to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came to the bridge, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take the up river road he turned and overtook the carriage, ac- companied by a very powerful dog that or- dinarily kept about the house and grounds and never went with the carriage. The little dog then held back,	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- ciently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the re- storation of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon hay the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, finnty?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; out I've been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says : "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to shoose from when he is about to select a wife." Miss P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female writer; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her tusts." A Boston woman refused to permit her nusband to go on a fishing excursion, " be- aue he was very apt to get drowned when te went upon the water, and, moreover, id not knew how to swim any more than goose."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and iron 6 to 8 P. M. Person wisaing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his office or through the post office. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for th purchase and sale of real estate, collection of creats, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, out are ful attention. F. XJEGLER, and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with promp of and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, and careful attention. F. XJEGLER, and the rent of the country. They are of ieredat the very lowest price. sep 4-69-tfw] MICHAEL LIPHART.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWERS. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO, SNUFF, fIAVANA, YARA, and COMMON SEGARS. Also, SNUFF & TOBACCO BOXES, PIPES—a thousand and one varieties. Call at	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North State and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BREN EN EMAN 'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HAATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, set and yrange and the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Hoy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' GURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Collars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Arties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to. Call and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. BRENEMAN'S No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. ect9.'69-1y TINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Must received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, corner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, TOMATOES, TOMATOES, SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, SULLIES, PRESERVES, WINSLOW'S GREEN CORN GREEN PEAS & c., & c. Together with a very fine assortment of Family Grocerles, of all kinds. A LAROE LOT OF NEW YORK CANDIES, FOREIGN FRUITS, 	<section-header><section-header><section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header></section-header></section-header></section-header>	Sinw. The poor boy did not feel very comfortable or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber under the eaves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. by. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I'l the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their conduct which soured and made him suspicious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. Srooxs.—At a ten-party in Washington, where General Butler was aguest, the hostered at ind in the would have been a good man to live with. It was their conduct which soured and inade him suspicious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master.	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people flocking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— " My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si, irits, delivered his note, and was invited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hour and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following ameedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I havo been to hear Wendell Philips speak, and such words, such abuse, too bad ! The rascal deserves to be hung, and if we had him at the South words be hung, and that right quickly too.—Oh, it is too bad, too bad.' 'How long lid you hear him speak? asked the friend, "Why for more than on	sawit? A party of hintshult had to closs a river—which they did by swimming their horses—the pack of dogs all following, ex- cept a terrier, who dreaded the plunge. Af- ter looking on for a time, with many dis- tressful barks, he suddenly turned and ran wiftly up a bank till out of sight. There was a bridge some distance above. After a while the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his com- rades. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London : A pieman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pieman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pieman came along, the dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pieman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relat- ing, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neigh- bors on the Passaic. They had a carriage dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives.—Their course often took then across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the stol house had a big, surly mastiff, that al- ways sailed out and attacked their dog, who was no match for him, and sometimes Beaujeu suffered severely ; so that at length he declined accompanying them if they took the road up the river toward the bridge. The way through the lawn from their honse to ihe high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take the up river road ho turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, are they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take the up river road ho turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overt	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- dently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- toration of the cable at this time is yery opportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nission of business. The Robert Lowe will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon have the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, fimmy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; but I vo been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why, yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'om all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, so usee, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife." Miss P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American femalo writer; and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her subshalt to go on a fishing excursion, "be- aue he was very apt to get drowned when the upon the water, and, moreover, id not know how to swim any more than goose."
Columbia and vicinity. He may be found at the street, between Cherry and Union, every day from 7 to 9 A. M., and iron 6 to S.P. M. Person wishing his services in special cases, between these hours, will leave word by note at his offle- or through the post offlee. sep1-70 REAL ESTATE AGENCY. The undersigned have opened an office for the purchase and sale of real estate, collection of crents, and the renting of property. Busines entrasted to their care will meet with prom- ue careful attention. F.X.FIEOFFAN. OF BUILDERS AND OTHERS. Building, paving and other brick always on hand. They are hand made and superior to any brick in this part of the country. They are of icredat the very lowest price. sep 4-49-tfWill MICHAEL LIPHART.	MISHLER'S BITTERS! PURE & UNADULTERATED For Sale by J. C. BUCHER. BEST STOUT PORTER! From E. & G. HIBBERT, LONDON. For sale by J. C. BUCHER, Locust Street, above Front. Agent for the PURE MALT VINEGAR. Cannot be purchased at any other establish- ment in town, and is warranted to keep fruits and vegetables perfect. The Best Brands of Imported SCOTCH AND LONDON ALE. For Sale at J. C. BUCHER S. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWERS. BUGHER will still keep on hand the Best Brands of SMOKING AND CHEWING TOBACCO, SNUFF, fIAVANA, YARA, and COMMON SEGARS. Also, SNUFF & TOBACCO BOXES, PIPES—a thousand and one varieties. Call at	 E. Call at the Works No. 9, 11 & 18 North State and examine the stock and prices, sep5-69-tfw OPEN! OPENING! OPENED! THIS DAY, THIS WEEK, AND UNTIL FURTHER ORDERS, AT BREN EN EMAN 'S 128 Locust Street, THE LARGEST STOCK OF HAATS AND CAPS, For Men, Youth and Children, ever before offer- does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, set and yrange and the people of Columbia, comprising as it does, STYLE and UALITY in soft and still bring, such as the Warwick, Ida Lewis, Sinbad, Prince, Arthur, American Girl, Kute, Peerless, Lady Thorn, Howing, Star, Cuban, Waverly, Gilmore, Hob Hoy, and the Fall style of Silk Hats, just out, together with a full stock of GENTS' GURNISHING GOODS, Consisting of White and Colored Shirts, Flannel Shirts and Drswers, English, German and Do mestic Hoslery, Gloves, Handkerchiels, Suspenders, Ties, Linen and Paper Cuffs and Collars, de. Also, UMBRELLAS AND CANES. Arties who favor us with their patronage are assured that it will be our constant alm to. Call and examine our well selected stock at at low prices. BRENEMAN'S No. 128 Locust Street, Columbia, Pa. ect9.'69-1y TINE FAMILY GROCERIES, AT HARDMAN'S! Must received, at the fine Grocery Establishment, corner 3rd and Cherry streets, the follow-ing new Goods: SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, PRESERVES, PRESERVES, TOMATOES, TOMATOES, SUGAR CURED HAMS AND DRIED BEEF, SULLIES, PRESERVES, WINSLOW'S GREEN CORN GREEN PEAS & c., & c. Together with a very fine assortment of Family Grocerles, of all kinds. A LAROE LOT OF NEW YORK CANDIES, FOREIGN FRUITS, 	<section-header><section-header><section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></text></section-header></section-header></section-header></section-header>	Saw. The poor boy did not feel very comfortable or happy. If e shut up the woodhouse, and then went up to his little chamber under the eaves. If e wished he could tell Mrs. Jones; but she wasn't sociable, and he had rather not. "Oh, my God," said Sam, falling upon his knees, "help me to do the thing that is right." I do not know what time it was, but when Mr. Jones came into the house the boy heard him. He got up, crept down stairs, and met Mr. Jones in the kitchen. "Sir," said Sam, "I broke your saw, and I thought I'd come and tell you, 'fore you saw it in the morning." Mr. Jones: "I should think morning soon enough for to tell of your carelessness." "Because," said Sam, "I was afraid if I put it off I might be tempted to tell a lie about it. I'm sorry I broke it; but I tried to be careful." Mr. Jones looked at the boy from head to foot, then stretching out his hand, "there Sam," he said heartily, "give me your hand. Shake hands; I'll trust you, Sam. That's right; that's right. Go to bed. by. Never fear. I'm glad the saw broke; it shows the mettle's in you. Go to bed." Mr. Jones was fairly won. Never were better friends after that than Sam and he. Sam thinks justice has not been done Mr. Jones. I'l the boys had treated him honestly and "above-board" he would have been a good man to live with. It was their conduct which soured and made him suspicious. I do not know how this is; I only know that Sam Fisher finds in Mr. Jones a kind and faithful master. Srooxs.—At a tea-party in Washington, where General Butler was aguest, the hostered at ind a faithful master. Srooxs., one after the othe, perceived his cup unfurnished with an important implement, of which he was supposed to appreciate the value. "Why, General Butler." She exclaimed, in a little wonanly futter of consternation, "haven't yon a spoor ?" "No indeed, madam," quickly responded the General, springing from his seat with well acted carnestness, and slapping his pockets, one after the other, "upon my word, madam; if you don't believe me, madam, you m	Old Dr. Strong, of Hartford, Conn, was not often outwitted by his people. On one occasion he invited a young man to preach for him, who proved rather a dull speaker, and whose sermon was unusually long. The people became weary, and as Doctor Strong lived near the bridge, near the commence- ment of the afternoon service, he saw his people locking across the river to the other church. He readily 'understood that they feared they should have to hear the same young man in the afternoon. Gathering up his wits, which generally came at his bidding, he said to the young minister— "My brother across the river is rather fee- ble and f know he will take it kindly to have you preach to his people, and if you will do so, I will give you a note to him, and will be as much obliged to you as if you preached for me; and I want you to preach the same sermon that you preached to my people this morning." The young minister supposing this to be a commendation of his sermon, started off in good si-irits, delivered his note, and was havited to preach most cordially. He saw before him one-half of Doctor Strong's peo- ple, and they had to listen one hear and a half to the same humdrum sermon that they heard in the morning. They under- stood the joke, however, and said they would never undertake to run away from Strong again. THE Boston Traveler relates the following aneedote to illustrate the power of the elo- quence of Wendell Philips : "Some years ago—it was before the re- bellion—when Wendell Philips and others were using every effort to abolish slavery, there was a meeting in this city at which be made an address. A Southern slaveholder was present, and after listening a while to the burning words of the orator, went out in a rage, and resorting to the counting room of a friend, exclaimed, 'I have been to hear Wendell Philips speak, and such words, such abuse, too bad ! The rascal deserves to be hung, and if we had him at the South we would be hung, and that right quickly too.—Oh, it is too bad, too bad.' 'How long ild you hear	sawit: A party of ministrain har to broke the pack of dogs all following, except a territer, who dreaded the plunge. After looking on for a time, with many distriction of the looking on for a time, with many distriction of the looking on for a time, with many distriction of the looking on for a time, with many distriction of the look of the river, and joined his commander a while the dog came running down the awhile the dog came running down the other side of the river, and joined his commander. Another, of a dog belonging to a grocer in London: A pleman with meat pies was wont to stop on the street before the shop, and sell his pies to the passers-by—the dog often standing by and observing the traffic. One day the pleman gave him a pie. The next day, when the pleman came along, the dog came out, looking expectantly. But the pleman, shaking his head, said no. The dog turned immediately into the shop, and contrived to make his master understand he wanted a penny. Getting it, he sailed out, carrying it to the pleman, and received his pie. There is one more anecdote worth relating, that is not in the books: I had it from those admirable gentlewomen of the old school, the Misses R., long time my neighbors on the Passaic. They had a carriage of dog that commonly accompanied them in their drives,—Their course often took them across the river, over a bridge four miles from their residence. The keeper of the toll house had a big, surly mastif, that always sailed out and attacked their dog, who twas no match for him, and sometimes to be high road was nearly half a mile. One day, when they came down to the gate, they found the dog there waiting for them. As soon as he saw them take the up river road he turned and ran with great speed back to the house. In a very little while he returned and overtook the carriage, arriage, and they foul the hash following the trans day such the boys of the ordinarily kept about the house and grounds and never went with the carriage. The little dog then held back, and his big comirative wo	he purpose of repairing such faults, and he stormy character of the coast of New- oundland necessitates long waiting after he cable is raised and the ends buoyed, un- il a time is found when the sea is suffi- diently calm to permit a splice to be made The European war has created an im- nense business for the cables, and the ro- toration of the cable at this time is yery poportune, and greatly facilitates the trans- nissiou of business. The Robert Lowo will at once proceed to repair the break in the French cable off St. Pierre, and we shall soon haye the three ca- les connecting this country with Europe in good working order.— The Telegrapher . "WHERE do you go to Sunday school, "immy?" "Why, marm, I go to the Bap- ises, the Methodisses, and Presbyteriums; bart I vo been trying the 'Piscopals for two or three weeks." "You don't seem to be- ong anywhere, then, Jummy?" "Why,yes, narm, don't you see? I belong to 'em all exceptin' the 'Piscopals; but I'm going 'to ine them too now." "Well, Jimmy, what s your idea in going to so many?" "Why, rou see, I gets a little of what's going on at em all, marm. I gets liberries, and hymn- books, and all that; and when they have bic-nics I goes to every one of 'em." ANTHONY TROLLOPE says: "I do not comprehend the reason for the existence of so many women; although I suppose Provi- dence had some wise end in view, in giving to every man at least eight or ten women to choose from when he is about to select a wife." MISS P HELTS, whose success began with 'Gates Ajar," is said to be making more noney than any other American female vite: and yet during her school days she vas considered the most stupid in her dusts." A Boston woman refused to permit her musband to go on a fishing excursion, " be- aue he was very apt to get drowned when we went upon the water, and, moreover, id not know how to swim any more than goose." "Dots your officiating elergyman preach he Gospel, and is his conversation and car- iage consistent therewith?" was a circu- tr from a bishep to a church waten of hi