A BEAR AT SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Traverse City Mich., Herald says: 'There was a new scholar at the Methodist Sabbath school last Sunday. Just as the bell had been struck and the superintendent was about to give out the opening hymn, a young bear, weighing perhaps for ty pounds, trotted up the aisle, smelled the books that the librarian had spread out before him, grunted his approbation of them, and then quietly seated himself upon his haunches in the pulpit. It is stating the case mildly to say that everybody was surprised and that the children smiled audibly-very audibly. The officers of the school were willing to do all that was reasonable for the mental and moral edification of the young cub, but he so entirely absorbed the attention of the children that it was thought best to have bim leave. He was accordingly politely invited to retire, but he had evidently come

It was his first attendance to Sunday school, and being thoroughly imbued with the spirit of Young America, he resolved to see the thing through. A strap was finally got around his neck, and he was led away and fastened in a small adjoining room used as a store room. Order was restored, and the Superintendent was once more about to commence services, when a racket, as if all bedlam had broken loose, was heard in the

Once more the officers came to the rescue, and, on opening the door, they found that the cub had broken loose from his fasten. ings, and upset a five gallon kerosene can, and was playing mad in a most magnificen style. As the door was opened bruin dashed out, shook the dust off his feet as a testimony against the treatmentibe had receiv ed, and left, evidently disgusted with the

FIRST WOMEN'S VOTES FOR CONGRESS. The women of Wyoming Territory, availing themselves of their new privilege, came up bolaly to the ballot-box the other day and voted for a delegate to Congress. In this they gave us a practical definition of woman's rights, exercised independently and without fuss or brawling. The women of Wyoming, fortunately for them, were not led by Susan B. Anthony or any of that tribe. They acted for themselves under the law which gives them the right of suffrage, and as their ballots were counted in and became a part of the vote of the Territory, we may conclude that woman suffrage is a fixed fact in Wyoming. However, women are scarce out there, which may account for the liberality of the " brutes" who make the laws. This first vote cast by women for a Congressman is an episode in the agitation for woman's rights and may prove crumb of comfort to the Anthony's and

____ HOW TO QUIT USING TOBACCO.

It is impossible to quit the use of tobacco after it has become a settled habit, without more or less bad feeling and prostration. The man who would free himself from the curse of tobacco using, must make up his mind that he has a hard struggle to pass through, call all his will-power to aid, and resolve to quit at once and forever. This leaving off by degrees seldom succeeds. It is better to make the battle short, sharp and decisive. A thorough course of bathing to eliminate the tobacco from the system, will make the struggle much less severe, and prove the greatest aid that can be given. The Turkish baths are best if they can be had. If not accessible, the wet-sheet pack or vapor bath should be taken instead. There will not be much appetite, and but little food should be taken. Fruit is best. No drink but water, and that may bedrank as freely as desired. To allay the craving for tobacco hold cold water or pieces of ice

LETTER FROM A GERMAN SOLDIER.

The German Democrat recently had a private letter frow a German soldier at Weissenburg to his brother in this city, written just after a battle. He gives an ac count of what he saw as a member of the guard regiment which started in the morning with 3 000 men, and in the evening had 450. A bullet took off a little of his own scalp. They had to charge four times before they got the town, and at every charge they were mowed down. The French fought splendidly, but rashly; and besides they were not properly fed. They do not aim well. The Turcos are of no use to face regular soldiers. The Chassepots are good veapons, but the coffee-mills (mitrailleurs) are fit only for playthings. With all the hellish machines that can be brought into the field, says the writer, France cannot prevent German victory. MacMahon had 150,000 and the Crown Prince had 140,000. The Bavarians fought splendidly. The Geisberg was taken at the point of the bayonet, under great difficulties, which only German cold-bloodedness could have over onie.

A CITIZEN of Chesterfield, Me., hung himself with an ox chain, in his wood-shed where he was discovered by his wife while yet alive; but she was unable to unfaster be chain, and before any one came to his assistance, in response to her cries, he was strangled to death.

A TRAIN lately ran from Altoona to Harisburg, on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, a distance of one hundred and thirtytwo miles, in three hours, an average of a little less than one minute and twenty seconds to a mile. One strip of sixteen miles was done in eighteen minutes.

A FRENCH lady attached to the court cirele writes to a friend in London : "The Emperor is driven nearly crazy by maligant rumors that his mind is becoming unsound.

How much trouble would be saved if peowould heed the following sentence in "Lothair."

"Never you sign a paper without reading it first, and knowing well what it means."

A DISTINGUISHED Baltimore judge, who recently went to Saratoga to enjoy a fashionable life, fell dead as he was crossing a hotel piazza, attired for a hop.
