The Ohio Republican Platform.

That to the party wise and true, That bore the flag of Union through Long years of blood untried to view;

That to the country we offer our congratulations, That in the success of the administration, Decreasing our debt without greater taxation.

That our laws should be changed as regards navigation, Permitting to vessels a fair registration When purchased abroad—as needs of the nation;

That we condemn the policy of Granting to Monopoly, Or corporations—if you please—Our public lands as subsidies.

That firmly fixed on neutral ground, We, with indifference profound, Regard the European strife, Though France or Germany yield his life, Merely for dynasties and kings—

That we refer last week to the great conflagration in Chicago, by which the finest business structures in that city were totally destroyed by fire.

That the condition of Strasbourge, according to all accounts, must be indeed deplorable. The people have been reduced to the verge of starvation.

THE CAMPAIGN OF 1870. GLORIOUS REPUBLICAN VICTORIES!

The political campaign of 1870 opens brilliantly for the Republicans. We point with pride to the following magnificent results:

VERMONT STEADY AND TRUE. The State of Vermont voted on the first Tuesday of September, for Governor, member of Congress, and Legislature.

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN MAINE. The State of Maine elected a Governor, Legislature, and five Members of Congress, on Monday last.

THE WYOMING VICTORY. The Republicans of the territory of Wyoming have achieved a splendid victory in the election of William T. Jones as Delegate to Congress.

COLORADO. The election returns received indicate the election of Chaffee (Republican), over Miller (Democrat), as delegate to Congress.

THE Democrats of Lancaster county have appointed a committee of their own ilk to confer with Republican sore heads, for the purpose of negotiating "terms" and "fixing up" a slate for the ensuing County election.

A DISPATCH to the American Press Association from Florence says that it is reported that the Italian troops, in heavy columns, forced the gates of Rome last night and entered the city.

THEY are now in complete occupation of the Eternal City. The foreign soldiery offered a slight resistance to the invaders, and kept up a brisk fire upon the declining columns.

THE Pope, however, ordered them to cease firing, and the Italians soon afterward were masters of the city.
