

Well Turned.
A young lady over the signature of "Kate," sends the following spirited article to the New Orleans True Delta. She gives fashionable young men a well-merited rebuke. She entitles her article: "How to educate Young America."
"I read in a paper," she says, "the other day, that some new ornamental branches in young ladies education were coming out soon—Cook-ology, Spin-ology and Weave-ology. All honor to the projector of so happy an improvement; but, allow me to ask, when our Misses become such pattern housewives, in what 'circle' will they look for suitable companions? Not in upperdom could they be found. Just fancy one of the be-whiskered, be-scented, mostachioed exquisites, in companionship with one of Solomon's maidens, who layeth her hand to the spindle, or playeth the flying shuttle, or compoundeth rare cookery. What affinity would there be between them? The same that exists between the butterfly and honey bee—one all glare and glitter, and frisking movements, the other all patient industry and sobriety.
I cannot think of a more useless article, or one more out of place in a room where work is progressing, than a fashionable young man. He knows so little about matters and things, I feel pain until he is safely lodged in the parlor among other things "more for ornament than use," annuals and bijouterie.
It will never do to commence the work of reform entirely on one side. I propose three branches more to be added to the list of studies for finishing young men fashionably, viz:—Saw-ology, Chop-ology, and Split-ology, and that in addition to the requisite number of "sheet, towels, apoons, and napkin rings," each promising pupil be furnished with a new wood-saw and a well-sharpened ax, and that daily exercise with them be practiced. It will supercede the necessity of gymnasiums.
In our onward march to perfection, and in taking up the accomplishments of our grandmothers, we earnestly beg that some provision be made, against being cut off from "the best society," such would be the result, unless the lords of creation are willing to keep pace with us. Their lily hands would scarcely, with present views, be willingly united with those which bear the marks of labor; and what a dreadful state of affairs would occur in upper snobdom, if one of the first families were to marry beneath their dignity.
Hasten, then, the glorious era when walking sticks shall be converted into hoe-handles, crochet-hooks into knitting-needles, and quizzing-glasses and flirtations be known no more.
SENSELESS.—Captain McIure, while making the North West Passage, had an interview at Point Warren with a wild tribe of Arctic Indians, the Chief of whom being asked why he went a great distance to trade with the Esquimaux, instead of trading with the posts on the Mackenzie river, said the reason was that the white men there had given the Indians very bad water, which killed many, and made others foolish, and that they would not have any such water! Think of that; ye hardy sons of the 4th latitude who think "bad water" essential to keep out the cold! The teetotal bear skin chief, with brass buttons for ear-rings, sitting on an ice-berg in the Polar sea, should be installed Great Grandfather of the Sons of Temperance of both hemispheres.
SHAMEFUL CONDUCT IN THE OHIO SENATE.—We noticed two weeks ago the courtesy of the Ohio Senate in admitting Mr. Day, a colored man, and editor of a paper in Cleveland, to a seat in the reporter's desk. Since then the Locooco Senate has disgraced itself by expelling Mr. Day from his seat, for no cause, except that he was a colored man. To act ought to sink the dough-faces, and we hope the people of Ohio will hold them up to a just execration. We quote the following from the report of Saturday:
"In the Senate the Resolution expelling Mr. Day, which it was understood was to be laid over until the return of Mr. Townsend, who is still absent, was to-day called up and passed by a vote of 17 to 10. Messrs. Sherman and Foot made eloquent appeals against the outrage."
Shame! Shame! The seventeen Senators have committed an act of desecration that should not be suffered to pass without rebuke.—Con. Reporter.
PREPARING FOR WAR.—Mr. Saunders the American consul at London, in one of his letters to the New York Herald, states that "Louis Napoleon is preparing for war on the grandest scale. It is known that he will have by early spring, an invading army of seven hundred thousand men fully equipped."
