

Appeal to Young Men of the Age.

Five and twenty years ago the men to whom this is addressed were in their cradle. But during the quarter of this century the moral destiny of the world depends upon them. The strong hands of the veterans are, one by one, palsied by the touch of age. The voices that have rung out for God and Truth are slowly passing into the harmonies of a better world. Upon your shoulders the Ark of Reform is henceforth to rest. In your hands the torch of human progress is to be borne onward.

Among the sacred truths bequeathed to your charge is the Temperance Reform. It owns an existence no longer than yours. Thirty years ago this movement was restricted to a few earnest spirits, who, further upon the mount of progress than their fellows, had caught the rays of the early dawn before it had gilded the plants below. The first national organization against alcohol was formed in 1826. Since then the history of the Temperance Reform has been a history of healthy progress—the steady movement from the unknown into the known and well established. The first local society with its pledge against the use of ardent spirits alone, and the subsequent adoption of the total abstinence principle, the Washingtonian movement, the formation of beneficial Orders, like the Sons of Temperance, the creation of political "Alliances," and the enactment of laws for the entire prohibition of the deadly traffic, are but the successive stages of a mighty revolution, each related to the other, and all looking to a common end. An abstract principle once confined to a few sagacious minds, has since walked into the halls of legislation, and in five sovereign States, it now sits upon the bench of Justice, crowned with the majesty of law.

The God of love has stood by the history of this reform from the cradle, and has guided it onward through its most critical periods. To the young men of our time it is now committed both as a trial and as a trust. What is it that God and humanity demands of us? What is the great question for our solution? Unless we greatly err, that question is simply this—Shall we, by Jehovah's help, destroy the traffic in intoxicating poisons, or shall they destroy us? Shall we lay alcohol in the grave or permit him to lay a myriad of our comrades in their own? Shall we consent to have the most brilliant intellects among us any longer extinguished? Shall we permit the fair bride of to-day to become the desolate widow of to-morrow? Shall we stand by and see the nobles of our brotherhood go down to darkness and the worm? Shall we suffer this monstrous evil to cast its hideous shadow athwart the rays that fall from Calvary itself, or shall we, hand in hand, join in the death-grapple with the Hades? The destiny of millions hang over our answer.

The determination of the question demands great plainness of speech, as well as earnestness of action. Let us learn to speak right out. The press that is silent on this topic deserves a place in the cellars of Hercules. The legislator who has not studied the code of prohibition is unworthy of the seat he occupies. The orator is to point his shafts, the voter must aim his ballots, and the philanthropist is to direct his prayerful efforts straight towards this, as the grand moral question of the age.

In this warfare for humanity, we have need of patience. Wilberforce toiled through one whole generation ere the British Parliament declared the slave trade a piracy. Opinions grow slowly. Let us put our trust in Truth rather than majorities. The prohibitory law movement was, not long ago, in a minority of one; but the Lord of Hosts stood with that man, and together they were more than overmatch for all that were against them. Galileo with his telescope, and Columbus with his compass, stood up alone against the world, but they at last brought over the whole world to their positions. May it not be also that before this century closes the law of Maine will become the law of Christendom?

Comrades in this sublime warfare! we are compassed about with a great cloud of witnesses.—If humanity beckons us onward. We tread upon the dust of heroes as we advance. White-robed Love, floating in mid-air before us, leads us to the conflict. The shouts of the ransomed are in our tents; and the voice of praise makes music amid our banners.

Let us press forward with our age. Let us wear a bright link in the history of our country! Let us lie down to rest nearer the goal of human perfection. Let us find in our toils an ever exciting stimulus—an ever fresh delight. So shall our later annals be written in the characters of the millennial glory. So shall our posterity be cheered by that sun which shall shine with a seven-fold luster, as the light of seven days.

Though we were but two or three, Sure of triumph we should be. We our promised land shall see, Though the law seems long;

Every fearless word we speak, Makes sin's strong-holds bend and break. Wickedness is always weak. But Truth is young and strong.

But Two Parties.

"To this complexion it must come at last." The passage of the Nebraska Bill will break up all the old divisions, and unite all the people of the Union into two contending parties—those who would keep our Free Territory secure from the curse of Slavery, and those who would give Slavery free license to run riot and spread itself over every foot of Free Territory in the Union.

It will be the end of all compromises. For, if the compromise in favor of Freedom, which has been in force and regarded as binding for a whole generation, is to be repealed, and with it the compromises of 1850, in order to give Slavery more room, no compromise, however solemnly enacted, will be worth the parchment on which they are written. All compacts in relation to Slavery will be held null, and the question must be settled by an appeal to numbers.—Millwaukee Free Democrat.

How sublime the virtue that still plants without any expectation that it shall ever reap. He most emulates the Deity who plants for future generations.

The People's Cash Store, AT COUDERSPORT.

Something New, and Something Wanted.

THE subscriber has just received from the City of New-York, and opened at the store formerly occupied by Haskin & Smith, on the north side of the Court House square, a selected assortment of New Goods, comprising Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, and Hardware.

The motto of business—adopted—is, "the sure shilling and the ready shilling." The above Goods will therefore be sold exclusively for either Cash or ready-pay in hand, and upon such terms that the purchaser cannot be otherwise than satisfied that he has made a good bargain—received a "quid pro quo"—something for something in value for his money. An exchange will gladly be made with the Farmer, for his Produce: Butter, Cheese, Eggs, Grain in any quantity, and with it, the more Cash the better. The subscriber will at all times take pleasure in exhibiting his Goods to the Customer, that quality and prices may be examined.

L. F. MAYNARD.
Coudersport, July, 15, 1853. 69tf

CHECKED GINGHAMS in variety, and prices to suit.

Coudersport Academy. THE Trustees have the pleasure to announce that they have succeeded in procuring the services of Mr. J. BLOOMINGDALE, from Yates county, N. Y., to take charge of the Academy. From his long experience as a Teacher, and his eminent success heretofore, we have every reason to hope that our Academy will be established on a permanent footing. We cheerfully recommend the Institution to the fostering care of the public. The Winter Term will commence on Wednesday, the 18th of January, 1853, and continue eleven weeks.

Terms: Elementary branches—Orthography, Geography, Arithmetic, &c., &c., $2.25 Higher Arithmetic, First lessons in Algebra, and Grammar, &c., 3.25 Higher English branches, Algebra, Philosophy, &c., 4.75 Higher Mathematics, Latin, Greek, and French languages, 6.25 Instruction on the Piano Forte, extra, 10.00 Use of instrument, 3.00 Vocal music free of charge. It is desired that students for next term should make application by the 1st of January.

The Trustees never before have felt an equal degree of confidence in recommending this Institution to a discerning public. The success of the past term has more than justified their expectations. Mr. Bloomingdale has proved himself to be an experienced, energetic, and efficient teacher; and, with him at the head, they can, with the utmost assurance, predict that the Academy will speedily become, preeminently, one of the best and most successful institutions of the kind in Pennsylvania or New York. Rooms in the Institution may be had at reasonable charges, on application to the Principal. Payment of Tuition to be made to the Principal on entering the school. H. H. DESE, President. THOMAS B.
