From the Syracuse Evening Chronicle. Dr. Wayland on Nebraska.

A neat edition of the admirable speech delivered by Pres. Wayland of Brown University, at the Providence Anti-Nebraska meeting, has been issued for popular distribution. It exposes the iniquity "of Douglas's bill from a high moral and religious point of view, and will be particularly acceptable to the christian portion of the community.

Dr. Wayland is positionally, and by habit, a conservative, and acquiesced with multitudes of like tendencies in the compromises of 1850. What were the real opinions entertained by such men, of that measure, is beginning to come out all over the country, now that the lying pretenses which concealed its true object are abandoned, and Slavery extension becomes more bold and undisguised in its movements. The power of reaction in such minds and the strength of their present purpose is proportioned to the depth of the delusion which was practiced upon them. We give a specimen :

"This seems to be only one of a series of measures of which the obvious intention is to render the whole legislation subservient to the interests of the slaveholding States, by securing, at all hazards, a majority in the Senate.

These measures it is painful to specify. I pretend not to enumerate them all, but I will mention only a few of the most important. Next came the Compromise of 1850. In this instance the free States were grossly insulted, and nothing could have carried the measure but the influence of a great statesman, who, by his conduct in this case, has left a stain on his reputation which even his former brilliant services can never erase.' " The great question which is henceforth to agitate the nation is the question of human rights. It has been the glory of this country, thus far, to stand forth everywhere in defense of human liberty. It is the position which we have taken on this question that has given us our influence among nations, and taught phen A. Douglas. We repeat, that down trodden humanity everywhere to look up to us for succor. But establish slavery not as the exception, but the it Cuba and Nebraska are twin brother rule-make slavery the law of the land, of evel.-N. Y. Tribune, May 6. the pivot on which legislation turns, and we must by necessity ally ourselves with despotism. We expose ourselves to contempt even now, by swaggering about human liberty, while a pious and benevolent lady is at this moment immured in Richmond for no other crime than that of teaching children to read. What will it be when such an act of oppression is sanctioned by the whole country ?

- I value the Union as much as any man. I would cheerfully sacrifice to it everything but truth and justice and liberty. When I must surrender these as the price of the Union, the Union becomes at once a thing which I abhor. To form a union for the sake of oppression, is to make myself an oppressor. This I cannot be, for I love liberty as much for my neighbor as for myself. To sacrifice my liberty for the sake of union is impossible. God made me free, and I cannot be in bondage to any man. These I believe to be the sentiments of the free States, and therefore it as a friend of the Union that I proteor against this bill."

Cuba and Nebraska. The accounts brought from Spain by the Africa contradict the advices which came by the preceding steamer in respect to the Black Warrior affair. We are now to'd that there has been no settlement of the case, as was previously represented, and that Mr. Soule was loud and violent in his demands. This fact renders it clear that it is well to keep a sharp lookout upon the course of the Administration on the Cuban question. Mr. Slidell did not make his speech without consulting the President and his friends. Mr. Soule has, no doubt, acted in the Black Warrior affair under the immediate instruction of the Administration.

Now let it be remembered that the Administration is in straits with the Nebraska bill. It is already casting about to see, what can be done to divert public attention if the measure shall altogether miscarry in the existing scheme to put it through the House as announced by Mr. Richardson. The Cuban question is jusf the one to raise a cloud of dust upon, which shall quite obscure Nebraska. Would it not be delightful to place in the hands of Mr. Pierce the power to announce the neutrainty laws repealed, so far as they relate to Spain, just in that happy nick of time when political disaster should most seriously threaten the Administration or the party ? From what we see, we feel confident that the Cuba and Black Warrior questions wait upon Nebraska. As Mr. Pierce has said, in substance, during the Nebraska discussion, "the people of this country must always have some political question to be excited about; but they forget the old as soon as a new one is started; and they will forget Nebraska in six weeks if something stirring follows on its heels." We presume that three more tricky and managing politicians do n't live than Franklin Pierce, Caleb Cushing and Peter Soule. If we were to add a fourth, we should of course name Stethis Administration is inclined to play a deep game of mischief, and that in doing

Hon. John C. Kunkel.

We have been applied to, frequently, for a copy of the glowing speech made by this eloquent Senator in rebuke of ELI K. PRICE, last week, but we regret to say that no stenographer was present, and therefore it is lost to the world. Those who heard it, say it was one of the best speeches ever delivered in the Senate Chamber-full of cogent argument, eloquent satire, crushing invective, brilliant appeals, and logical demonstraions: It came up, however, so incidentally and unexpectedly, that it passed over the Senate like a flash of lightning, never to be recovered. We have heard many veteran politicians say that Mr. Kunkel reminds them more in his style of oratory of Henry Clay in his prime, than any other living young man. He is truly eloquent, bold, fearless and ready.

The above notice of one of the most promising young men of Panagian, We can endorse the compliment, as one well earned and justly deserved. Mr. Kunkel has greatly distinguished himself in his course in the Senate, and it is a reproach that there is not a paper in Harrisburg that either reports his speeches or sketches of them, or notices them editorially. His speech on the Nebraska resolutions is said to have been one of the most brilliant and powerful ever delivered in the Senate Chamber .---Lancaster Whig.

Correct View."

The Columbus Fact, an independent ournal, very sensibly remarks : We see that the Whig press is crowing over the results of these elections. They are mistaken, however, it they think that these are Whig triumphs. Whiggery has been dead long ago, and the sooner the Whigs see this the better. The people merely intended to rebuke the present administration, but had no idea of resurrecting a defunct and befogged, old fogy party organization. "Whiggery" and "Democracy" are dead; out of the material will spring a new oaganization-a healthy, progressive party, composed of the best men of each.

· A FRIEND has just informed us that fruit and flowers may be preserved from decay and fading by immersing them in a solution of Gum Arabic in water two or three times, waiting a sufficient time between each immersion to allow the gum to dry. This process covers the surface of the fruit with a thin coating of the gum, which is entirely impervious to the air, and thus prevents the decay of the fruit, or the withering of the flower. Our friend has roses thus preserved which have all the beauty and fragrance of freshly plucked ones, though they have been separated from the pareut stem since June last. To ensure success in experiments of this kind, it should be borne in mind that the whole surface must be completely covered; for if the air only gains entrance at a pinhole, the labor will be all lost. In preserving specimens of fruit particular care should be taken to cover the stem, end and all, with the gum. A good way is to wind a thread of silk about the stom, and then sink it slowly in the solution, which should not be so strong as to leave a particle of the gum undissolved. The gum is so perfectly transparent that you can with difficulty detect its presence, except by the touch. Here we have another simple method of fixing the fleeting beauty of Nature, and surrounding ourselves ever with those objects which do most elevate the mind, refine the taste, and purify the heart.-Country Gentleman.

Is The Traffic Right? "Can it be right," asked Rev. Dr.

Wayland, "for me to derive my living from that which is debasing the minds, ruining the souls, destroying forever the happiness of the domestic circle, filling the land with women and children in a condition far more deplorable than that of widows and orphans; which is the cause of nine-tenths-of all the crimes which are perpetrated in society, and brings upon it nine-tenths of all the pauperism which exists; which accomplishes all these at once, and does it without ceasing? Do you say you are not responsible for the acts of your neighbors? Is this clearly so? Is NOT HE WHO NAVIGATES A SLAVE SHIP A PIRATE ?" TENDENCY OF SLAVERY .- Messrs. The undersigned, Trustees of the Coudersport Academy, are moved by a sense of official and personal duty to invite the attention of the Public-of parents in partic-ular, to the rising and useful character of this institution of Learning. When invited, a little more, than a half-year ago, to the superintendence of its affairs, we found it depressed and still declining. We requested Mr. J. BLOOMINGDALE to become its Principal Teacher, and entrusted its organization and other most onerous affairs to his discretion and management. Experience has proved him to be faithful, efficient, and practical—just such an instructor as this community need. The number of pupils in the school is now over sixty. We refer to Mr. Bloomingdale's advertisement for information as to the terms and conditions on which pupils are admitted, and for other facts of interest : and recommend the insti tution to the patronage of the people.

Justice among the Chivalry. Last Friday, Maubew F. Ward, who had, for what he conceived an insult to his brother, a school boy, armed himself to the teeth, sought the school-room of Professor Butler, called him "a scoundrel and a coward," and shot him dead, was acquitted by a Kentucky jury. He was rich, belonged to a powerful family, and, according to the morality of Kentucky society, was not to be blamed for taking the life of a school-master. What ! hang a Kentucky gentleman for killing a pedagogue ! Ridiculous !

Last Monday, n man, the property of a Mr. Street, of Charleston, South Carolina, was strung up by the neck and hung with as little ceremony as boys would string up a trapped rat. His crime was having struck a white woman. He had been duly convicted of it by a jury composed of magistrates and freeholders!

In view of these facts, we ask what the life of a poor man is worth in those States ? Free, a rich man shoots him down as he would a squirrel, and there is no punishment ; enslaved, he is hung up if he dare resent a blow. Life is hardly worth having there unless acand motives of others. companied by a good income and aristocratic position. An improvement in the Kentucky code would be the law of the dark ages which affixed a fine for murder in proportion to the rank of the victim. The Kentuckians should egact that any chivalrous gentleman may kill a young negro for one dollar, a grown up one for ten, a white laborer for fifteen, a mechanic for filiy, and a schoolmaster for one hundred. We should then have some hope of progress in the dark and bloody ground .- Phil. Daily Register.

WHILE passing a group of young marble-gamblers the other day, we heard a new version of Scripture. " Swear not at all," said we to a blubbering chick who was reeling out oaths with the energy of maturer years. "I wan't swearing at all on 'em-only the black c-ss who hooked my marbles. Boo-00-00 !"-Cayuga Chief.

The Indiana Patriol, a Democratic journal issued at Vincennes, comes out strongly and ably for Liquor Prohibition. As to the fear often expressed by his compatriots that the Whigs may make capital out of Prohibition the Editor suggests that the Democrats obviate all danger on that score by taking the lead in favor of Temperance Reform and calling on Whigs and others to follow them. .If they do this, he don't see how Prohibition can "hurt the party." A very sensible suggestion .- N. Y. Tribune.

We commend the above plan of action to those anxious hunkers hereabouts, who are terribly afraid the Free Soilers witl make capital out of the Temperance question. They will succeed much better we think if they will show the people that they are reliable friends of Temperance, than by following up the present attempt to disparage the efforts

THE DESPOTISM OF SLAVERY .---- We have before us a letter from a young man, formerly a clerk in the store of S. H. Goodwin, in this village, now in Mobile, Alabama, to a friend here, begging and entreating him not to send him any more copies of the Telegraph, on account of his personal safety. He says that if it were known that he received a paper of anti-slavery principles he would be ruined. Such is the freedom of thought and action tolerated in those States where the pet "institution," to strengthen, extend, and perpetnate which, the powers of the Federal Government are stretched to their utmost, exists. Ought we not to be induced, by such encouraging symptoms, to fasten upon the almost illimitable region of the West the blessings of human slavery? -Oneida Telegraph.

frank, alone, costs the whole of this excess, if not more. Abolish the franking privilege, and the department will instantly pay its way. That, however, does not suit Messrs. Jones and Houston. They prefer to pay nothing for their own letters and for sending their own stupid speeches about the country, and to tax every poor widow and every hard-working man to cover the expense. Of course these gentlemen both belong to the slave-driving Democracy. If they could only get Slavery into Nebraska and stop the circulation of letters and newspapers in the free States, they would probably regard the country as safe. Shall they be gratified ?-N. Y.
