Slander.

Read at the Academy on the last day of the

What is it ? Webster's definition is, If A false tale or report maliciously uttered, and tending to injure the reputation of another by lessening him in the esteem of his fellow citizens by expoaing him to impeachment and punishment; or by impairing his means of living." Stander often consists merely in signs or significant actions. There is calumny in an expression of the counter nance, in a hint, in an altered course of conduct, or withholding some accustomed - than they dare express by words.

Slander, in the misconstruction of language, is very common. It may be done by an implied amphasis, or by exagerstica, when some parme sin a discourse is susceptible of two interpretations the more erronce to, in taken and at once spread abroad. Prequently a remark a made with the injunction of secrecy, which is too generally disregarded, and the slander is eventually whispered as wide, v as if it had been proclaimed in the "market place, or upon the house tops;" and every one it is quite a different story. A white man says, "Where no wool is the fire gors our; so when there is no tale hearer the strife endeth." Look at some of the effects of slander. B hold a scene at which the heart bleeds. That dejerted father without employment was not long ago an enterprising man of business. Providence smiled on his industry; but the breath of scandal whispered an insinuation to his prejudice, and his credit is brought into suspicion, his creditors treat him with contempt, and in a short time he is robbed of his part gains and the means of gain in the future. From abundance and prespective independence, his family are reduced example; but it it is the melanchifty than tory of thous walk.

Few sins of the day exert as mighty an influence for evil as slander. No class is entirely secury from its withering blast, because it possesses ceaseless rigilance. By night and by day it s they work for slavery. Now I would at work doing its mischief. It employs recommend a trial of the experiment of tens of thousands to carry on it schemes, with holding the land as a gratuity from Although it is so powerful in its opera- every person owning a slave. I would tions yet it has but few modes of attack. Its main one is, " Well, have you heard the report?" This is sufficient intro- pagandists. duction to spend an hour or more in the most unjust, unkind and ruthless conrersation that ever come from the septime many warm expressions of good over the Western Radroad, Massachuonly to render their dark and virulent walk among big rocks that most resem intent the a ore sure to inflict its dendly ble little barns, lies the farm house of wounds. The cigars consumed throughout the country in one year would make a worm fence six feet high round the district of Columbia, and the air expelled squadron round the world, with enough ever to do the work of all the patent medicines.

" SIX FEET IN HIS BOOTS!" exclaimed Mrs. Partington. "What will the importance of this world come to, I wonder? Why, they might just as reasonably tell me that the man had six heads in his hat!"

A Western editor has such an antipathy to the new doctrine of sptritualism. that he will no longer have his paper printed on a sheet of "medium" size, and objects to having it enveloped in " wrappers."

FORTUNATE.—The two neighbors who "fell out," have got in again. Neither of them were injured.
