

FREE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

At twelve o'clock on Wednesday, May 24, the Free Democratic State Convention assembled at Wilkin's Hall, on Fourth Street. The Convention was called to order by W. B. Thomas, of Philadelphia, and the call for the Convention read, after which G. W. Jackson, of Pittsburg, was appointed temporary Chairman, and C. P. Jones of Montgomery, temporary Clerk.

A committee of three were next chosen to prepare a roll of the delegates in attendance, and report the same to the Convention.

After the transaction of some other unimportant business, the Convention adjourned to meet again at half-past two o'clock.

Afternoon Session.—At half-past two o'clock the Convention re-assembled and came to order by appointing Mr. Hoops of Cumberland, temporary President. The Committee appointed in the forenoon, through their Chairman Mr. J. H. Foster, then reported the following officers for the permanent organization of the meeting:

President—Edw. D. Grizzam of Allegheny.

Vice-President—W. B. Thomas of Philadelphia, Robert Robbin of Armstrong, James N. Smith of Butler, Saml. D. Clark of Lawrence, and Saml. M. Farland of Washington.

Secretary—C. P. Jones of Montgomery, W. F. Clark of Mercer, and Isaac Erret of Allegheny.

The President on taking his seat, addressed the Convention in a very neat and eloquent speech. He thanked the delegates for the honor conferred on him, and expressed a determination to fulfill to the best of his abilities the trust confided to his charge.

Mr. Jones of Montgomery offered a resolution providing for the appointment of a Committee seven to draw up resolutions expressive of the faith and principles of the Free Democratic Party of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. R. Erret, of Allegheny, offered a resolution declaring it inexpedient at this juncture for the Free Democratic party to nominate a candidate for Governor. Mr. Erret sustained his resolution in a forcible manner. He wished to have an expression of opinion on the Nebraska bill at the next election and while the friends of the measure concentrated their strength upon one candidate, he did not think it wise or expedient to do so.

Free Democratic State Convention.—Thursday, May 25.—The Convention met at nine o'clock, when the chairman read letters from Mr. Morehead of Indiana and Samuel Aaron of Norristown, pledging their support to the cause and its nominees.

Mr. Jones, from the committee, reported a preamble and resolutions, which were amended and passed, as follows: Assembled in State Convention for the purpose of making their nomination for State officers, the Free Democratic party take occasion to reaffirm the principles to govern their action as well as their views and sentiments in regard to the present posture of national and State affairs, therefore—

1. Resolved, That hereafter we will not be content with resisting the aggressions of the Slave Power, wherein we fight to disavow but will "carry the war into Africa" itself; and will not cease our struggle until we have excluded Slavery from all the territories, established in the District of Columbia, prohibited the sale of human beings, for the debts of their alleged masters, under federal process, repealed the Fugitive Slave Bill, disavowed the National Government from all support of Slavery, and used all constitutional power to drive the ignominious system from our country.

2. Resolved, That the Pittsburg Platform of Independent Democrats, adopted August 12, 1852, (except the tenth article thereof,) is a bold assertion of true Democratic doctrine, and the measure there proposed are Democratic reduced to practice, and we therefore cordially approve, and will steadfastly adhere to it.

3. Resolved, That we are in favor of dividing the State into single senatorial and representative districts for the State Legislature; and are opposed to all special and class legislation and log-rolling enactments, and demand instead the passage of general laws, and that each bill shall be confined to one object, which shall be named in the title.

4. Resolved, That we regard the traffic in intoxicating drinks as one of the most fruitful sources of misery, pauperism and crime, and demand its total prohibition, by a law adequate in its penalties and means of execution to accomplish that object. (Eloven members voted to lay this on the table.)

5. Resolved, That we are in favor of the sale of the Public Works of the State to the highest and best bidder, and at the earliest practicable period, regarding their continued possession by the State as a fruitful source of corruption, and as entailing on the tax-payers of the State a heavy and undiminished burden. (This resolution was laid upon the table.)

Mr. Foster offered the following resolution, which was lost by a vote of thirteen yeas to twenty nays: Resolved, That any church, which has used its spiritual influence to acquire political power, should be looked upon with distrust by every true friend of liberty, as the natural ally and upholder of slavery—physical and mental; and that our legislators should not grant to any clergy special privileges, but should take measures to prevent them (as such) acquiring valuable property by will, not needed for any proper church purposes—or any property, by undue spiritual influence over those in a dying condition.

Mr. Anderson, Yenang, moved for a reconsideration of the vote by which the resolution inviting a convention of the opponents of slavery throughout the State at Harrisburg, was lost.

Mr. Mann spoke in favor of the motion. He thought the passage of such a resolution as that referred to would result in much good to the anti-slavery cause throughout the State and he would therefore vote for a reconsideration.

Mr. Robb was opposed to any such convention as that proposed, he thought no good could come from it.

Dr. Gazzam spoke at some length against the reconsideration of the vote. He was of the opinion that a convention such as that proposed would injure rather than serve the Free Democratic party.

Mr. Mitchell, Indiana, was in favor of a reconsideration.

Mr. Clark, Lawrence, spoke in favor of the proposed convention; he was in favor of the measure, it would have the effect of uniting the enemies of slavery and of sending anti-slavery members to Congress, a step towards which nothing had been done by the convention.

The motion was debated at considerable length and finally lost by a vote of nine yeas to twenty-two nays.

Mr. Mann moved that the State Committee of last season be re-appointed for the ensuing year. Carried.

The following resolutions were offered by Mr. Mann and adopted: Resolved, That the prohibition of Slavery North of 36 deg. 30 min. was part of a compromise which never should have been made—but that compromise having been made, and the part of it favorable to Slavery having been substantially executed, it is as disgraceful to the Slave interest to demand the repeal of the part favorable to freedom, as it is to Northern doughfaces to yield to that demand, and as it will be to all Northern freemen if they acquiesce in its repeal.

Resolved, That the eleven Pennsylvania allies of Slavery in Congress, who have misrepresented the State and sought to dishonor their constituents by the repeal of the Missouri prohibition of Slavery, ought to receive the hearty contempt of all true Americans who believe the Declaration of Independence was adopted in good faith, and not as a rhetorical flourish; and we hereby pledge ourselves to use our utmost exertions to bring about union and harmony amongst true men of all parties for the defeat of all such men.

On motion, a resolution of thanks to the officers of the convention passed, after which the convention adjourned sine die.

Who Shall Get Patronage.—An ambitious gentleman from Pennsylvania, has been in Washington anxious for an appointment as Judge in one of the new Territories of Nebraska or Kansas. Upon presenting his claims to a member of the Cabinet, he was told "your Representative is against the Nebraska Bill." "I believe he is," said the applicant. "Well," says the Secretary, "you may go home; no man can be appointed to office whose immediate Representative is against the Nebraska Bill." The applicant did go home. Nice dispensation of patronage truly! Suppose the applicant's member had been a Whig?—N. Y. National Democrat.
