From the Cayuga Chief. THE INIQUITY CONSUMMATED.

THE NEBRASEA BILL HAS PASSED! The work of our forefathers has been overturned. The only barrier between Freedom and Slavery, existing by act of Congress, has been thrown down and the Black Power, with domineering insolence, stalks over it. The immense and fertile regions of Nebraska and Kansas and the territories of the West have been added to the domain of Slavery and sorrow. It matters lit-tle how this dark and damning deed was consummated. Many are indignant because it was accomplished by unfair and unparliamentary tactics.-We are not. The act itself, however brought about, is an outrageous fraud, so black with infamy and corruption, that Hell itself must stand aghast. Perhaps the North will acquiesce. We hope it will not, but our heart is heavy and sorrowful. We see little to hope for at present. Already the proslavery presses are taking up the cry that this is a "final settlement." The Northern States have become debauched by the Slave Power. That Power through party drill and tactics rules the North-shapes and moulds Northern men to suit its own caprice, and bribes them to do its dirtiest work.

The Slave Power has again triumphed! It triumphs as it always has. It has secured all it asked for. And let us say, it always will triumph until Northern men arouse to a sense of their duty and cast off the yoke of bondage to party. Party drill and party tactics has secured the passage of the Nebraska bill, in defiance of the most earnest and overwhelming protest that ever went up from an indignant people. Both of the old political parties have become corrupt and putris, as the supple and pliant tools in the hands of Slavery propagaudists. It is time the Freemen of the North should assert their own manhood, by spurning the lead of political wirepullers, and forming themselves into a great Northern party for Freedom, which shall go on conquering and to conquer. Let the party be speedily formed, and perhaps we can save Nebraska. We can at least prevent the further spread of the accursed institution; we can abolish Slavery in the District of Columbia, and repeal every enactment made by Congress to uphold the curse of Human Bondage. Then we shall be in a situation for thoing still more, and the earnest friends of Liberty can take into consultation and devise means for ridding our country of its foulest stain throughout the whole of our vast domain.

We can do all this now, if Northern men but do their duty. But a few years hence and it will be everlastingly to late. Let Northern men continue on in their present folly and wickedness of "choosing" the least between two evils,"—as they are wont to call it—but half a dozen years longer, and the black pall of Slavery will overspread the entire West, together with Cuba and the "islands of the sea." Perhaps you do not believe States would ever pass a law to legalize the kidnapping of men, women children, without judge or juand ry? Yet they have done it! Six held in the south-National Era. months ago you would have laughed at the idea of Congress striking down Mason and Dixon's line to permit Slavery to go North of it. That, too. tell you the whole end and aim of this help the republic, for its days are numbered. If this Government continues its present course, it cannot exist. It has became a stench in the nostails of Almighty Justice, a hissing and by-word among the nations. No nation maintains so bare-faced and infamous a despotism as ours. If it can exist and maintain it, then History is a stupendous lie, and the Bible a flagrant falsehood. "Man proposes and God disposes." Let us see to it while we may to redeem our once happy country, and leave the result

PASSING THE CO PLIMENTS .- "Good morning, Mr. Smith-on the sick list to-day:" "Yes, sir, got the ague."
"Do you ever shake!" "Yes; shake amazingly." "When do you shake again?" "Can't say when; shake every day; why do you ask!" "Oh, nothing in particular; only I thought If you shook bad I'd like to stand by and see if I couldn't shake those fifteen dollars out of your pocket which you've owed me so long.

That man who runs down the girls, speaks ill of the married women, throws a quid of tobacco into the contribution box, and takes a penny out to buy more, can never have peace in this world. Bed-bugs, mosquitoes and the night-more, and all the hob-goblins of a guilty conscience will haunt him on his way to that well heated prison where the convicts are fed on cinders and aquafortis soup, and are allowed no o'her amusement than to sit and pick their teeth with a red hot poker through all eternity - Dow, Jr.

The Pliant Greeks of the North, the Waslike

The people of the Free States do not exactly understand the grand iddas of the Slavery Propaganda. The following extract from an editorial in the Richmond (Va.) Inquirer, will apprise them of the relations they hold to the Romans" of the South: "The relations between the North and the South are very analogous to those which sub-sisted between Greece and the Roman Empire after the subjugation of Achaia by the Consul Mummius. The dignity and energy of the Roman character, conspicuous in war and in politics, were not easily tamed and adjusted to politics, were not easily tained and adjusted to the arts of of industry and literature. The degenerate and pliant Greeks, on the con-trary, excelled in the handicraft and polite pro-fessions. We learn from the vigorous invec-tive of Juvenal, that they were the most use-ful and capable servants, whether as pimps or professors of rhetoric. Obsequious, dexterous, and ready, the versatile Greeks monopolized the business of teaching, publishing, and manthe business of teaching, publishing, sillowing ufacturing in the Roman Empire—allowing their masters ample leisure for the service of their masters ample against our in the field. The the State, in the Senate or in the field. The people of the Northern States of this Confed eracy exhibit the same aptitude for the arts of industry. They excell as clerks, mechanics, and tradesnen, and they have monopolized the business of teaching, publishing, and ped-

This is delightful. "Degenerate and pliant," " excell as clerks, mechanics, and tradesmen," and "have monopolized the business of teaching, jected them, and hold them as vassals: but let us beware that, like the Romans of old, we be not debauched by our slaves.

We commend this picture of Northern character, by one of the Slavery-Propaganda, to the Northern men in Congress who have lately been making themselves so useful to the Slaveholders. The following Northern Representatives who voted, May the 8th, to take up the Bill to repeal the Missouri Compromise, with a view to urge its immediate passage, will learn from the foregoing paragraph what the modern Romans think of them:

Shall we draw a farm or something equally do or whole duty? If not, may God valuable, we forget what. This week we have received another advertiseaccount of his "$100,000 Gifts for the People," with a like request to pubpayment. We beg to inform these and the pipe sounded loudly, "Hands bring gentlemen, one and all, that we are the ship to action." For some three minutes not in that line of business and do not every thing was bustle—casting the guns loose, desire to invest in any "Gift" enter- clearing the decks, &c. Five minutes more prise whatever. Moreover, we be-lieve that these "Gifts" are a perfect men standing with the match-lines in their that our skirts are clear; let us labor humbug, and that a lottery is a lottery, hands, waiting for the word to fire. Just as whether called by the name of "Gifts for the People," or any other name. People like to be humbugged, and have a wonderful desire to engage in gambling enterprises, if it is only genteel gambling. The poor miserable fellow who shakes a few pennies in a hat is shunned and detested, but some man who wears fine clothes can carry on the most stupendous schemes to raffle off his wares, and the people applaud and help him! Is it consistent for professed christians to take this course? Verily "ye are gamblers all and partakers in the same

IMPROVEMENT OF TIME

The celebrated Earl of Chatham performed an amount of business, even trigues of foreign courts, but his eye was on every part of the British dominions; and scarcely a man could move without his knowledge of the man and his object. A friend one day called on him when Premier of England, and found him down on his hands and knees playing marbles with his little boy, and complaining that the rogue would not play fair; gaily adding, that "he must have been corrupted by the example of the French."

The friend wished to mention a suspicious-looking stranger, who, for picious-looking stranger, who, for some time, had taken up lodgings in London. Was he a spy, or merely a private gentleman? Pitt went to his drawer, and took out some scores of small portraits, and holding up one which he had selected, asked, "Is that the man?" "Yes, the very person." O! I have had my eye on him from the time he stepped on shore." All this was accomplished by a rigid observance of time, never suffering a moment to pass without pressing it into publishing, and peddling." "Obsequi- service. No one will try to improve ous. dexterous, and ready," they make his time, unless he first be impressed the "most useful and capable servants, with the necessity. A New Invention.—A resident of Fredonia, N. Y., has invented a curious aparatus for supplying locomotives with water. According to the new plan, a cistern must be constructed beneath the track, having connected with it a force-pump, which in its turn is connected with a series of friction wheels, inserted above it in the track. The locomotive is run upon these wheels, and then, however swiftly its wheels may revolve, it can get no farther, as the friction wheels upon which it stands revolve with those of the engine. The force pump is in this manner set at work, and made to raise from 1500 to 2000 gallous per minute. A practical test of the invention is about to take place on the Buffalo and

A YANKEE TRICK IN THE BALTIC.

A letter from an officer in the Baltic fleet to an English paper, dated April 18th, tells the following rather good story:

"One morning a few days since, we saw a large vessel eight or ten miles ahead, which we ment of the same description from fully believed to be aRussian man-of-war, as Mr. Perham, containing a detailed she made all sail to get away and showed no lish and take tickets in his lottery as sails-fighting trim-so we beat to quarters, we got within good distance the blackguard ran us the American colors, and coolly told This is an age of humbugs we know. as he would have hoisted them sooner, but he wanted to see how smartly we wold clear for action. If our tars did not bless him on the wrong side of heaven, never believe me."

ONE WORD TO YOUNG MEN.

There is a Divinity that stirs within you. God has implanted in each of your bosoms a sense of honor. Stand up with the firmness of a granite pillar-of a promontory which through unknown ages has withstood the fury of the elements-against the charms and fascinating pleasure of a sinful world. They dazzle but to bewilder-they smile but to deceive. Do this and you will be prosperous. You will have peace, honor, and dignity; and you will be classed with the wise and good. You may be poor, but you may possess more than gold : true nobility of mind and character you will tread the upward path of virtue-you will win an immortal prize. O, young man, follow your higher nature, and you will fashion warriors and volunteers from the interior of Asi Minor. His countrymen look upon him as born to perform a great mission.
