"Two companies of Irish soldiers were stationed in the Court House to keep back the rabble."-Boston Paper.

Ave! throng the Courts, that once were free With bands of savage soldiery;
Call out the Irish kern!
Beneath the shade of Bunker shaft,
Where earth the blood of freemen quaffed, Another tale this day we learn

Crush Massachusetts under foot, Enslave and menace, stab and shoot! The northern mind is bowed; No more the pi'grim banner waves, Content we see our fathers' graves
By Slavery's grouning cannon plowed.

O Massachusetts! Mother-home! The rocks that dash to whitening foam Those seas the "Mayflower" pressed; Those very rocks cry out to-day—
The waves dash their glittering spray,
To see thy weakness thus confessed!

And shall Virginia's brutal lords, Backed and sustained by foreign swords Thy ancient soul subdue! Shall Irish steel and southern fraud Reverse the mandate given by God—
"Do as ye would men do to you!"

Oh! never, while to misery's sob Our eyes o'erflow, our pulses throb, Can come a day so cursed! Whi'e hope remains, while arms are strong, Whi e lives the sense of right and wrong— Those fetters be it ours to burst! We have been patient, and our peace

Mistaken was für cowardice; We try a different tense; The passive mood both brought us chains, The active now alone remains To bring these tyrants back to sense.

Up, Massachusetts! up and arm! c p. Massachusetts: up and arm!
Let every steeple toll the alarm:
Rally thy freemen coon!
Old Boston, as you hope to live,
Ne'er le: that frightened fugitive,
In fetters quit your barracoon!

Who her our rights we now defend, Or if the North must yet descend From depth to lower deeps; Remember this, nor be you dumb When the great time to act has come, WITH US THE SOUTH NO PROMISE KEEPS

THE CUBAN PLOT.

The second act in the great scheme for consolidating and perpetuating the domination of the slaveholding interest, was opened yesterday in the Senate of the United States. The Louisiana resolutions concerning Cuba were presented and refered to the Committee on Foreign Relations. A profoundly interesting and significant debate, though of course in its present stage it could only deal with the subject at arms' length, was had upon it. The leading point made by the representatives of the slaveholding interest was, that if Spain takes any measures to effect, however gradually and peacefilly, the removal of Slavery from the Island, such a step, or the proof that it Is in contemplation, will justify this country in taking forcible possession of Cuba and holding it as part of the United States. The only doubt raised by Southern Senators related to the matter of fact,-whether any such project was in contemplation or not. Mr. SEWARD alone intimated that he should oppose any intervention on the part of this Government in the internal uffairs of Cuba.

The indications are unmistakable that the next great battle against the domination of Slavery, is to be fought in connection with Cuba .-- if the Free States feel sufficient interest in the inherited, it was achieved. It cost a matter to fight it at all. But the Slave power is so flushed with its Nebraska victory;—it has the whole Executive power and patronage of the favored his progress. The victory Federal Government so completely th its control; -so considerable a portion of the northern representatives are anxious to sell their votes for office or for cash :- and the people of the Free | When the wheels of our ocean steam-States have become so habituated to ers have moved around a million times a cowardly and disgraceful submission the dial hand markes one. It was so to whatever of degradation their own representatives may impose upon marked their progress through the them, that but little ground for future hope remains. So far as the present Congress, and the present Administration are concerned, we have no doubt master. There has never been a that everything will be done which the Slaveholding interest may de- without dialects. The Yorkshireman mand. Jefferson Davis is the ruling spirit in the Executive Department. He has been an open and declared advocate of Secession; -and the policy of the Administration, under his lead. is to prepare the South for this contingency.

If the people of the Free States have any disposition to resist the accomplishment of these designs, they will have an opportunity to show it before many months .- Times.

THE LEAVEN OF FEDERALISM.

The so called Democracy of New Hampshire, owe their strength as a party at the present time, to the assistnuce they receive from the old school Federalists, who act and sympathise . with them, and at the polls vote for their candidates. Had it not been for this support, the sham Democracy would be in a minority of 30 in the recently elected House.

We can furnish conclusive evidence to sustain our statements. Take for illustration four towns in this county, which send four Representatives body. It was natural and instinctive for them to do so.

Amherst gave 30 majority against Baker for Governor, yet the Federal ists of that town, true to their principles of thirty years standing, elected Perley Dodge for Representative. In Temple and Wilton the hunker Demacracy were in a hopeless minority, but aided by such old school Webster men as Dr. Kingsbury and secret. Timothy Parkhurst, they succeeded in electing pro-slavery men to the House.

The same kind of coalition with similar results took place more or less in every county in the State.

is all fitting and proper. We only ask the honest young men who havebeen decoyed into the embrace of Fed eral measures, to pause and consider if these things are not so .- Manchester (N. H.) Democrat.

THE SCHOOMASTERS OF OUR REPUBLE."

The following extract is from a work recently issued in New York, which contains notices, in prose and verse, of American men, literature, art, and progress. It will be persued with interest by our readers:

The Schoolmasters or America .- It seems to be one of the laws of Porvidence, that the founders of states shall never divide their glory with those who come after them. Moses, Solon, and Lycurgus; Romulus, and Alfred and Washington, have left none to dispute their fame. The name of Cadmus inspires to-day, the same veneration that was felt for him by Plato. No dramatic poet will dream of usurping the throne of Shaksphereno future astronomer will lay a profane hand on the crown of Galileo. The world looks for no other Iliadthere will be no second Dante. Daniel Webster has interpreted the constitution, and NOAH WEBSTER has left us a standard of the English language which will guide all successive ages. The pen is the only scepter which is never broken. The only real master is he who controls the thoughts of men. The maker of words is the master of the thinker, who only uses them. In this domain he has no rival. He stands at the fountain-head of thought, science, civilization. He is controller of all minds to him all who talk, write and print. pay ceaseless and involuntary tribute. In this sense, Noah Webster is the all-shaping, all-controlling mind of this hemisphere. He grew up with his country, and he moulded the intellectual character of her people. Not a man has sprung from her soil, on whom he has not layed his all-forming hand.-His principles of language have tinged every sentence that is now, or ever will be uttered by an American tongue. His genius has presided over every scene in the nation. It is universal. omnipotent, omnipresent. No man can breathe the air of the continent and escape it.

The scepter which the great lexicographer wields is so unqu was most worthily won. It was not life-struggle for an honest, brave, unfaltering heart-a dear and serene intellect. No propitious accidents was won after a steady trial for sixty years. Contemplate the indices of his progress; for science, like macnienery, measures its revolutions.with Galileo and Bacon-their books unexplored seas of learning. It was so with Noah Webster. When our republic rose, he became its schoolgreat nation with a universal language cannot now talk with a man from Cornwall. The peasant of the Ligurtan Appenines drives his goats home at evening, over hills that look down on six provinces, none of whose dialects he can speak. In this country, five thousand miles change not a sound of a word. Around every fireside, and from every tribune, in every mart, every field of labor and every fac tory of toil, is heard the same tongue. We owe it to Webster. He has done for us more than Alfred did for England; or Cadmus for Greece. His books are forever multipluing his innumerable army of thinkers who will transmit his name from age to age.-Only two men have stood on the New World whose fame is sure to last, Co. lumbus its discoverer, and Washington its saviour. NOAH WEBSTER is, and will be its great teacher; and these three make our trinity of fame. The publishers of Webster's Dictionary, have rendered the author's name im-

Now the secret was out. This Carter was a ficticious character, and the Doctor had the

After a lingering illness of several weeks, a portion of which time he was kept alive by stimulants, he had breathed his last. He had no doubt that this announcement would fall sadly on the ears of those who had so faithfully attended to his wants, but he hoped they would bear it with resignationhe hoped they would reflect on the oft-repeated words, "Memento mori" -that he would now no longer detain, but would leave them to their own reflections! The result of this announcement was startling. None of the Professors, and but few of the students, had ever heard of this Carter. "Who is he?" was whispered. None knew but the "kind friends who had attended him," and they would n't tell; and the President seemed so DEEPLY AFFECTED, they did nit like to ask him. - Brookrille American.

A SWEEPING ARGUMENT.

There is a bill before Congress which proposes to grant one hundred and sixty acres of land to every single man and double that amount to every married man in the territory of Utah, with a proviso that no man shall have the benefit of the act who is married to more than one wife. The delegate from Utah has moved to strike out the proviso on the ground that the man who has a plurality of wives, stands more in need of land than others. If this be not a sweeping argument, we are at a loss to conceive what would be considered as such.—Telegraph

Premium Fanning Mills. mportant to Farmers and Mechanics.

THE subscriber has purchased of J. Bamborough the right to use in Potter and M'Kean counties his patent in the construction of Fanning Mills. He has also, at great ex-bense, commenced the manufacture of a PRE-MIUM MILL which will clean from 100 to 200 bushels per hour. This Mill was patented March 20, 1847, since which time it has stood at the head of the list at all the State and ceunty agriculturul societies where it has been ex-hibited, and is a universal favorite with all farmers who have tried it. It took the premium at the first Agricultural Fair held at Harrisburg, Oct. 31st, 1851, when there were 30,000 people present; and at the great State Agricultural Fair at New-York, held at Rochester Sept. 16-19, 1851, this Fanning Mill received the highest honors.

Having met with uniform success wherever tried, I confidently invite the farmers of Potter and M'Kean counties to call at my shop in Coudersport and examine for themselves. A supply always on hand, to be sold on reasonable terms.
