WORDS OF CHEER.

We have frequently been strengthened in our purpose to publish a fearless and liberal paper, by the kindly meetings of our brethren of the independent press, whose good opinion is of more value to us than the blandest smiles of those whose sole purpose is to strengthen and uphold American Hankerism.

We do not publish these kindly greetings because we feel that we deserve the half that is said of us, but because they cheer us on in our work, and we hope to inspire our readers with something of the same feeling.

Thus speaks the Onondaga Telegraph:
"The People's Journal, an excellent, original paper, published at Coudersport, Pa., comes to us with an entire new dress. We are rejoiced at this evidence of prosperity in a journal so deserving. By the way, we notice that the Journal credits our article entitled 'The Iniquity Consummated,' to the Cynoga Chief. Though the sentiments may be such as that paper is supposed to entertain, yet the 'locum tenens' of the Telegraph does not wish the Chief to assume the responsibility of his lucubrations."

We regret that we have made any omission of proper credit, for that is one of the things we pride ourselves on doing right.

"The People's Journal, an excellent, original paper, published at Coudersport, Pa., comes to us in a new dress, and greatly improved in appearance, as country papers are generally improved by new dresses. The Journal is an honest and able exponent of true Jeffersonian Democracy, and the freemen of Potter county should see that it is well supported."

During our recent visit at Wellsville, we had the pleasure of stepping in at the store of Lancy & Co. Mr. Lancy has the appearance of a true gentleman, and is, we should judge, a fair man to deal with, at least he seems to understand his business, and know how to select goods, of which he has a large and varied stock, which customers rather than cash.

We were also much pleased with the appearance of T. L. Smith's hardware establishment. A more complete assortment of hardware, mill furnishings, etc., we seldom see in a country store, and we would say to those desiring articles in his line of business, that as we are our own hardware store [Jas. Smith's] does not contain the same, our own shops and stores should always take the preference; they can do no better than to call at T. L. Smith's, in Wellsville.

We call attention to the advertisement of James Smith, and also the card of C. Smith, in another column.

THE ADMINISTRATION AND ITS SUPPORTERS.

It is common to speak of the Party that sustains the present Administration, as the Democratic Party. We shall be guilty of no such misnomer. Democracy is government by the People, for the benefit of the People. Democracy in this country, if genuine, is supposed to government by classes, sections, factions, cliques, or executive power and patronage. A Party which sustains such a Democracy, and sympathizes with it in such opposition, is the Democratic Party. On the other hand, a party which sustains a faction, clique, section, class, or an Executive Power, in opposition to the People, for the sake of an interest, adverse to their interests, is essentially and grossly anti-Democratic, whatever its pretensions.

The supporters of the present Administration constitute precisely such a Party. Its entire policy, from the moment it commenced the dispensation of patronage, down to the passage of the Bill for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and the inception of the conspiracy to obtain Cuba, has been steadily aimed at the establishment of its own power, by subjugating the will and interests of eighteen millions of the free people of the country, not interested in what is called slave property, to the will and interests of four hundred thousand persons, with their dependents, interested in such property; in other words, by subjecting the People to the government of a Class, of which it is the active, unscrupulous agent.

The next movement of this Democratic Administration was; an attempt through one of its instruments in the House to raise the tax on newspapers and letters, so as to oblige the People of the free States to make up the vast deficit in the revenues of the Post Office Department, occasioned by excess of expenditures among Slaveholders over receipts, the extravagant appropriations made to mail steamship Companies, and the carriage through the mails free of cost of documents, pamphlets, and letters, sent by members of Congress." This meant attempt to increase the burden of the Many for the benefit of the Few, fortunately failed to command the assent even of the Administration majority.

But the crowning act of this Democratic Administration—the act which has given it and its supporters an immortality of infamy—is the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, with a view, as it is now clearly demonstrated, to introduce Slavery in Kansas, and to establish a Principle in virtue of which Slavery Propagandism may go forth conquering and to conquer—a measure uncalled for by the People, repugnant to their sense of Right and to their best interests, sprung upon them by surprise, forced through Congress in glaring opposition to their will, by the votes of men pretending to represent them, while betraying them; acting all the while under the dictation of an Administration professing reverence for Democracy, and practicing implicit obedience to the Slaveholding Oligarchy!

We ask every sober-minded, disinterested Democrat in the country, is such an Administration Democratic? Are its supporters Democratic? There is the record,—is it not true? And does not every act there recorded prove that it is the agent of the Class Interest of Slavery, working for its aggrandizement, not only to the neglect, but in utter violation, of the rights and interests of the People!

To call such an Administration Democratic, is to lie to God and man. To call its supporters the Democratic Party, is to utter a libel on all genuine Democracy. Call them Administration men, Pierce men, Serviles, Slavery Propagandists, Covenant Breakers, anything you please, so that you define their true position; but, for the sake of all that is decent and of good report in Republican institutions, do not disgrace the name, Democracy, by styling them Democratic—the Democratic Party.—National Era

WHAT IS GOING ON IN KANSAS.

Mr. ABELARD GUTHRIE, the writer of the following letter, has been for some years a resident of Kansas; is a Benjamin Democrat, and would probably have been the present Delegate in Congress had not the combined forces of slavery and the Federal office-holders proved too strong for him, electing a Reverend Thomas Johnson a missionary of the Methodist Church South, and a supple tool of the Slave Power. Mr. Guthrie now ranks as a member of Congress (who communicates to the Era) as follows:

KANSAS TERRITORY, June 9, 1854.

So it seems the foul deed has been consummated, and this beautiful Territory, for whose benefit I have spent so much time and money, is surrendered up to the full power of Slavery. But the outrage is not to stop here. It is but one link in the chain of insult and injury offered to the people of the free States. You will remember that at the last session of Congress $70,000 were appropriated to enable the President to treat with the Indians of these new Territories for their lands. But this law was disregarded until the plan for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise was arranged; and then, instead of commissioners being sent to treat with the Indians in the ordinary way, delegations from each tribe were hurried off to Washington, and the treaties there made, so that neither the tribes at large nor the public know anything of the conditions of these treaties. The Indian Agents, the Senate, and the particular friends of the Administration alone know what is going on. These individuals circulated the story that no citizen would be allowed to take claims or settle on the lands ceded by the Indians to the Government, until the surveys were made and the lands offered at public sale. In the meantime, Senator [Name] sent a private telegraphic dispatch to his friends to go and take possession of the most desirable locations. This information was circulated secretly, and thousands of the pro-slavery party swarmed over the country before those not in the secret were apprised of what was doing. These men, I understand, have banded together to prevent the settlement of anti-slavery men in the country. Several meetings of these "clubs" have been held in Missouri, and anti-slavery men have been denounced with fierce threats. This I knew from the start would be the course pursued by the slave power if the Missouri restriction was removed. Thus you see the one great act of treachery and bad faith has been followed by others equally atrocious. Are freedom to be no end to these outrages? Are freemen to be thus trampled upon, their rights disregarded, their personal safety even endangered? And no remedy? Will the people of the free States quietly submit to these wrongs and insults—to be mere vassals of the slave power? I am for resistance—I care not to what extent. I call upon you and every friend of freedom to come to our assistance—to rescue this land from this remorseless power—in this country, the most beautiful, the most fertile, and the most healthy, I do verily believe, on the face of the earth.

You see the plan of operations adopted by our adversaries; it is this: it is ascertained where a company of slaveholders and their friends desire to settle; the Indian Department at Washington then sends on for a delegation of the tribe owning the desired lands, this delegation goes to Washington, makes a treaty ceding the coveted lands, and private information is sent to the slaveholders that all is ready, and they take possession before outsiders know that a treaty has been made or the lands sold to the Government at all.

This is an easy way of colonizing the whole Territory with slaveholders, while an anti-slavery man cannot even get a good home. These are facts which the whole country ought to know, and as soon as I am in a little better health I shall endeavor to make known. I wish we could have a press here. Can you not assist us in getting one?

What we want are men—men of courage, industry, and intelligence. They can find no place on the habitable globe where they can get a more desirable home than here. The other Territory (Nebraska) is not comparable to this in any respect, and there the slaveholder will make no effort at dominion.

Your obedient servant,
ABELARD GUTHRIE.

SLAVE-HUNTS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

It is some time since the good people of Adams County were entertained with a "slave-hunt" within their borders. Tom Flanagan, if we recollect right, led the chase on the last occasion, and subsequently took lodgings in the Eastern Penitentiary, since which slave-hunting has not been thought very profitable in this region—certainly not very respectable. Last week, however, our County was honored with two slave-hunts, the depouement of "claimants," offering a reward of $500, each, three tall, likely specimens of "human chattels," from Maryland, for whose ears the music of clanking chains and the task-master's whip had lost their charms, passed through this place on route for the land of freedom. Not long after followed in hot pursuit, a couple of "claimants," offering a reward of $500, each, and another grown man, were overhauled near Arend's own, in this county, as fugitive slaves, by Andrew Hartman, (miller) of Franklin township, and a Mr. Gallagher. After some deliberation it was determined to haul them down to Gettysburg, here to await the arrival of their masters—Hartman acting as teamster and Gallagher as out-ride. By some means, one of the darkies, soon after the arrest, managed to elicit his escape, leaving the husband, wife and child in possession of the captors. The husband was thereupon securely corded, and all went well until within a mile or so of Gettysburg, when it was deemed advisable that Gallagher should ride to town and make arrangements for the reception of the prisoners. The latter had gone but a short distance, when the wife unloosed the cords which fettered the husband's arms, and he springing from the wagon, took to the woods, and was out of sight before Andy had time to communicate the escape to his comrade. Gallagher turned in fruitless pursuit of the husband, and Andy proceeded to town with the balance of his charge, now reduced to the wife and child. On reaching the County Prison, he demanded room for his prisoners, but Sheriff Scott, not clearly understanding that he had a right to furnish accommodations for others than those officially committed to his custody, referred him to our committing magistrates. Andy immediately drove his team to the front of the Star office, but not finding the Justice at home, went in search of him, leaving the wagon in the care of the woman and her child. A kind word from a gentleman passing by induced the weeping mother to leap from the wagon, and, weeping, leaving the team to take care of itself. That night the whole party got safely on the "underground railroad" and have since been heard of by their generous captors—Gettysburg Spy.

TuZ. Peter U. S. as well evacuate New Hampshire. It is pretty evident that they can elect no U. S. Senators there. The choice of the publishers of The State Capital Reporter, Burke's anti-Pierce Democratic organ, as State Printers, seems to have settled the matter for this term. The Opposition manifestly gains strength; and if drugged liquor (as has been charged) is the cause of the Administration failure in this respect, it is clear that either such liquor is abundant, or its effects are remarkably permanent. We trust the victims will henceforth stick to cold water.—Tribune.

The Know-Nothings of Detroit have nominated "Ned Buntline" for President. What does the "littile Giant" think of that?—Exchange.

If Ned's friends can keep him out of the State Prison long enough, he will prove a dangerous rival of the leader of the Neb-rascals.—Onondaga Gazette.

War Declared at Last.

THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the rattle of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their firesides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the aggressions of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Olean, formerly occupied by Thig & Broder, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the wants and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogymen that has been so long established in this section.
Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods:
Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Oil-Cloths, Drugs, Medicines, Dyestuffs, Glass, Paints & Oils, Nails, Putty, Chairs, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Feathers, Stoves and Wooden Ware.

And we mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good. Call and see for yourselves.

J. BLOOMINGDALE, Principal.
The undersigned, Trustees of the Coudersport Academy, are moved by a sense of official and personal duty to invite the attention of the public—of parents in particular, to the rising and useful character of this institution on learning. When invited, a little more than a half-year ago, to the superintendence of its affairs, we found it depressed and still declining. We requested Mr. J. Bloomingdale to become its Principal Teacher, and trusted to his organization and other most energetic efforts to his discretion and management. Experience has proved him to be faithful, efficient, and practical—just such an instructor as this community need. The number of pupils in the school is now over sixty. We refer to Mr. Bloomingdale's advertisement for information as to the terms and conditions on which pupils are admitted, and for other facts of interest, and recommend the institution to the patronage of the people.
