

Free Democratic Nominations.

FOR GOVERNOR, DAVID POTTS, JR., OF CHESTER CO. FOR SUPREME JUDGE, WILLIAM STEPHENSON, OF MERCER CO. FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER, GEORGE R. RIDDLE, OF ALLEGHENY CO.

ORGANIZATION OF KANSAS.

Some few conscientious Democrats, un-der the name of the party, and hoping always to be the best, are reluctant to admit the proof of a settled conspiracy to extend Slavery into Kansas. These men will have no part in the party, and will not have any of their names on the list of officers for that party. Here they are: H. B. REEDER, of Pennsylvania, Governor. DANIEL WOODSON, of Virginia, Secretary. MISSISSIPPI BROWN, of Missouri, Chief Justice. JOHN W. JOHNSON, of Ohio, Associate Justice. ANDREW J. LEWIS, of Louisiana, District Attorney. J. DONALDSON, of Illinois, Marshall.

MURDERED FOR REFUSING TO TREAT.

An Irishman was recently murdered at Rock Island, Illinois, because he couldn't be made to drink. We find the particulars of the affair in the Rock Island Advertiser. On the Thursday evening, a party of five persons got into a row about treating at the Washington House, in this city, the consequence of which was the infliction of five wounds upon one of their number, by another of the party, producing death in a few minutes. The name of the murdered man was John J. Gallagher. The whole party were raffish fellows, and immediately down from the Pinericks, and their names identify the murderer as being a man by the name of James McFadden or McFadden.

Free Home—Why it was Defeated.

Senator Hunter no doubt thought himself in getting the Senate to amend the Freedmen's Bill, by adopting his substitute, he would most effectually (as he designed) stop to emigration from the North to Kansas and turn the current to the South. The object is plain. The bill we quote from, no one could be ignorant of, is the bill to amend the Nebraska, Kansas or Minnesota, which is the full government price of a quarter and a quarter an acre, which is the price in the States for the land and a quarter an acre.

Did,

At the Court of Common Pleas, in the County of Potter, on the 15th day of August, 1854, the following cases were called on and tried: In the case of HENRY D. Youngest on the one side, and Mary Ross, aged two years, six months, and one day.

Moore's Rural New-Yorker.

The Rural New-Yorker is the leading American Weekly. Agricultural, Literary, and Family Newspaper, an assertion fully sustained by the fact that it has a much larger circulation than any similar journal published in this country. It is published weekly, and contains the latest and most important news, briefly yet definitely stated, (the wheat without the chaff.) together with careful and reliable reports of the principal Grain, Provision, and Cattle Markets. It has six editors, is published in best style, and excels in both contents and appearance.

FORM, STYLE, AND TERMS.

Each number of the Rural New-Yorker contains eight double quarto pages, (forty columns,) printed on good paper, and clear type, as is appropriately illustrated. TERMS, IN ADVANCE—$2.00 a year; three copies for $5.00; five copies for $8.00; ten for $15.00. D. T. MOORE, Rochester, N. Y.

Notice.

THE School Directors of the different townships and persons desirous to pursue the occupation of teaching, will please take notice, that teachers must first apply to Directors for a specific school, before they can obtain from the Superintendent a certificate of qualification. The Superintendent is not authorized to give a general certificate, permitting teachers to take charge of any school in the county—it must be specific—hence the necessity of first applying to the Directors. The Directors may be present at the examination of their respective teachers, if they desire. I am now visiting schools, and while so engaged, will, if it be desired, examine those teachers already employed for the Fall and Winter schools, and thus avoid the necessity of those at a distance calling on me at the county seat. M. R. GAGE, County Superintendent.

RESOLUTION PROPOSING Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be, and the same are hereby proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, under and in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof, to wit:

PROPOSITION I, TO BE ARTICLE XI. § 1. The aggregate amount of debts hereafter contracted by the Commonwealth shall never exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, except in case of war to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to redeem the public debt of the Commonwealth, and the money so raised shall be applied to the purpose for which the debt may be contracted, and no such debts, and to no other purpose.

§ 2. To pay the public debt of the Commonwealth, and debts which may hereafter be contracted in case of war to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, and to redeem the public debt, the Legislature shall at their next session after the adoption of this section into the Constitution, provide by law for the creation of a sinking fund, which shall not be abolished till the said public debt be wholly paid, to consist of all the net annual income from the public works and stocks owned by the Commonwealth, or any other funds arising under any revenue law now existing or that may hereafter be enacted, so far as the same may be required to pay the interest of said debts semi-annually, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than five hundred thousand dollars, increased yearly by compounding at a rate of not less than five per centum per annum; the said sinking fund shall be invested in the loans of the Commonwealth, which shall be cancelled from time to time, in a manner to be provided by law: no portion of the sinking fund shall ever be applied to the payment of the debt of five hundred thousand dollars mentioned in the first section of this article, but the said sinking fund shall be applied only to the purposes herein specified.

§ 3. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any way be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, company, corporation, or association, nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner or stockholder in any company, association, or corporation in the Commonwealth, or elsewhere, formed for any purpose.

§ 4. The Commonwealth shall never assume the debts of any county, city, borough, or township, or of any corporation or association, unless such debts shall have been contracted to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to defend the state in war.

PROPOSITION 2, TO BE ARTICLE XII. Prohibiting Municipal Subscriptions. The Legislature shall never authorize any county, city, borough, or township, by a vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, association, or corporation, or to raise money for, or loan its credit to, or in aid of any such company or association.
