THE FREEDOM CALL.

TO THE PEOPLE OF POTTER COUNTY.

The recent aggression of the Slave Power, in repealing that section of the Missouri Compromise act prohibiting Slavery in Kansas and Nebraska, calls for immediate action on the part of all true friends of Freedom. The Slave Power, in the violation of the Missouri Compromise, has put an end to the whole system of Congressional compact between Freedom and Slavery. It thus becomes the duty of all genuine friends of a Free Government to stand only on the Constitution, and observe its provisions in reference to controversies arising between the different sections of the country.

Relying upon the apathy and indifference of the North, the leading Southern organs openly show their intention of procuring, by purchase or by war, Cuba, Hayti, and a portion of Mexico, and the valley of the Amazon, for the purpose of forming a slaveholding power sufficient to overthrow forever the influence of Freedom in the councils of the Nation. To resist this scheme, the North must be united; "the question of Freedom must be made paramount to all other political questions." That section of the Missouri Compromise which pledged sacred forever to Freedom the Territories now known as Kansas and Nebraska, must be re-asserted. The Government must be denationalized, and this Government brought back to its original policy of Freedom. For this purpose, meetings of the people have been already called in Vermont, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, and Massachusetts, while citizens of the Free States are preparing for the same action. With the same purpose in view, several County Conventions have already been held in this State, in which all the opponents of the Nebraska outrage, without reference to old party connections, have met together and acted harmoniously, with a view to the restoration of the Missouri Compromise.

Believing the People of Potter County are ready for this movement, we invite our fellow citizens, without distinction of party, to meet at a Mass Convention at Coudersport on Monday evening, September 18th, to counsel together, and take such action as the crisis requires. We also invite all of our fellow citizens, who are in favor of rescinding the Missouri Prohibition, and of repealing the fugitive Slave bill, to assemble in their respective townships on Thursday afternoon, September 14th, and make nominations for the County to be filled at the ensuing election, and bring return to the Mass Meeting of all the names given for each candidate.

The above Call has received, in our townships, over three hundred names, all voters. Our friends have advised us not to publish the list of names, as the other circulars not yet returned are known to have more names on their space will not permit us to publish. We are happily disappointed in the number of old line democrats who have showed their devotion to Liberty by uniting in this movement to build up the party of Freedom. The People are right. The public pulse is beating for Liberty and health. Let every man do his duty, and a glorious triumph will crown our efforts.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Judge Norris has just made an important decision in the Clermont (Ohio) Court of Common Pleas.

The case was this: a colored man, HENRY BOWSER, bought his freedom from his master, JOSEPH ANDERSON, of Kentucky, and gave two notes of $200 dollars each, which were signed by the maker and endorsed by J. C. GOWDY and FRANCIS DONALDSON. The "new made freeman" removed to Ohio. While engaged in some business, a neighbor came to him, and said, "two Kentucky men are looking for you; I think they are 'choppers.'" Pointedexter put in caution. Of course he did not pay the notes. Mr. Anderson thereupon brought suit against Pointedexter. The case was "ably" argued, and then submitted to Judge Norris. He decided that as Pointedexter had come into Ohio by the consent of his master, before the expiration of the notes, the slave became free the first moment he set his foot on the soil of Ohio. If not free the moment his foot touched our soil, how long would he remain here to acquire the freedom promised by the constitution.

The Kentucky case was argued by the counsel for the plaintiff, one of recent origin, one of the "choppers." Pointedexter, in his Missouri case, if I recollect right, asserted the same doctrine as do the Kentucky "choppers." He gave as a reason for the decision that the Abolitionists have become so troublesome to the people that they are forced to flee in that way.

Pointedexter was, therefore, a freeman at the time the notes were given; they were without consideration, and therefore cannot be recovered upon.—Cleveland Leader.

Moore's Rural New-Yorker.

The Rural New-Yorker is the leading American Weekly, Agricultural, Literary, and Family Newspaper—an assertion fully sustained by the fact that it has a much larger circulation than any similar journal published in this country or Europe. It embraces more Agricultural, Horticultural, Mechanical, Scientific, Literary and News Matter—interspersed with many engravings—than any other paper in the Union, rendering it unsurpassed as a Practical, Useful, and entertaining Family Newspaper.

In addition to the great amount of matter on other subjects—including a variety of choice reading for the family circle—each number of the RURAL contains the latest and most important News, briefly yet definitely stated, (the wheat without the chaff,) together with careful and reliable reports of the principal Grain, Provision, and Cattle Markets. It has six editors, is published in best style, and excels in both contents and appearance.

FORM, STYLE, AND TERMS:

Each number of the Rural New-Yorker contains eight double column pages, (forty columns), printed on superior paper and clear type, and appropriately illustrated.

TERMS, IN ADVANCE—$2.00 a year; three copies for $5.00; five copies for $8.00; ten for $15.00.

RESOLUTION PROPOSING Amendments to the Constitution of the Commonwealth.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, that the following amendments be, and the same are hereby proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, under and in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof, to wit:

PROPOSITION I, TO BE ARTICLE XI.

§ 1. The aggregate amount of debts hereafter contracted by the Commonwealth shall never exceed the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, except in case of war to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to redeem the public debt of the Commonwealth, and the money so raised shall be applied to the purpose for which the debt may be contracted, or pay such debts, and to no other purpose.

§ 2. To pay the public debt of the Commonwealth, and debts which may hereafter be contracted in case of war to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, and to redeem the public debt, the Legislature shall at their next session after the adoption of this section into law, provide by law for the creation of a sinking fund, which shall not be abolished till the said public debt be wholly paid, to consist of all the net annual income from the public works and stocks owned by the Commonwealth, or any other funds arising under any revenue law now existing or that may hereafter be enacted, so far as the same may be required to pay the interest of said debts semi-annually, and annually to reduce the principal thereof by a sum not less than a hundred thousand dollars, increased yearly by the same amount, at a rate of not less than fifty per centum per annum; the said sinking fund shall be invested in the loans of the Commonwealth, which shall be cancelled from time to time, in a manner to be provided by law; no portion of the sinking fund shall ever be applied to the payment of the debt of five hundred thousand dollars mentioned in the first section of this article, but the said sinking fund shall be applied only to the purposes herein specified.

§ 3. The credit of the Commonwealth shall not in any way be given or loaned to or aid of any individual, company, corporation, or association, nor shall the Commonwealth hereafter become a joint owner or stockholder in any company, association, or corporation in this Commonwealth, or elsewhere, formed for any purpose.

§ 4. The Commonwealth shall never assume the debts of any county, city, borough, or township, or of any corporation or association, unless such debts shall have been contracted to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to defend the state in war.

PROPOSITION 2, TO BE ARTICLE XII. Prohibiting Municipal Subscriptions.

The Legislature shall never authorize any county, city, borough, or township, by a vote of its citizens or otherwise, to become a stockholder in any joint stock company, association, or corporation, or to raise money for, or loan its credit to, or in aid of any such company or association.
