J. BLOOMINGDALE, Principal.

The undersigned, Trustees of the Coudersport Academy, are moved by a sense of official and personal duty to invite the attention of the public—of parents in particular, to the rising and useful character of this institution of learning. When invited, a little more than a half-year ago, to the superintendence of its affairs, we found it depressed and still declining. We requested Mr. J. Bloomingdale to become its Principal Teacher, and trusted to his organization and other most energetic efforts to his discretion and management. Experience has proved him to be faithful, efficient, and practical—just such an instructor as this community need. The number of pupils in the school is now over sixty. We refer to Mr. Bloomingdale's advertisement for information as to the terms and conditions on which pupils are admitted, and for other facts of interest; and recommend the institution to the patronage of the people.

War Declared at Last.
THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the lugubrious note and the ravell of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their firesides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the aggression of the Russian Bears; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Ocean, formerly occupied by Thing & Brother, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old logyism that has been so long established in this section.

Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods:
Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Glass, Medicines, Dye Stuffs, Paints & Oils, Sashes, Putty, Climrs, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Feather Beds, Stone and Wooden Ware, And We mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good Call and see for yourselves.

Premium Fanning Mills. important to Farmers and Mechanics.
THE subscriber has purchased of J. Bamberg the right to use in Potter and McKean counties his patent in the construction of Fanning Mills. He has also, at great expense, commenced the manufacture of a PREMIUM MILL which will clean from 100 to 200 bushels per hour. This Mill was patented March 20, 1847, since which time it has stood at the head of the list at all the State and county agricultural societies where it has been exhibited, and is a universal favorite with all farmers who have tried it. It took the premium at the first Agricultural Fair held at Harrisburg, Oct. 31st, 1851, when there were 30,000 people present; and at the great State Agricultural Fair at New-York, held at Rochester Sept. 16-19, 1851, this Fanning Mill received the highest honors.
Having met with uniform success wherever tried, I confidently invite the farmers of Potter and McKean counties to call at my shop in Coudersport and examine for themselves.
A supply always on hand, to be sold on reasonable terms.
6-37t JOHN RECKHOW.

THE subscriber hereby gives notice to the public that having given PETER SHUTTS his note for eighty dollars, bearing date near the last of March, 1854, payable September, 1856, and having never received any value therefor, he will refuse to pay the same; therefore he warns any person from buying the said note with and expectation of his paying it.
