War Declared at Last.

THE long repose of Europe is about L to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the reville of the drum, calling its slumber-ing millions to arms in the detense of their firesides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the aggressions of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S.
