We are glad to see the friends of the Maine law so unanimous in urg- North forming one party, and the ing the passage of a prohibitory statfavor of the measure. We do not see how a valid objection can be made to paper that favored prohibition objects overwhelming majorities as show conto it. We cannot doubt its success.

Correspondence of the Journal.

Ulster, Nov. 1, 1854.

BRO. MANN: The sovereign people of the Keystone State have made a decision and rendered a verdict for Freedom. Noble men are they, and more than half sincere. They will not reverse that decision next year, or next, or next. No, sir, they will not. (They never loved to do anything better than to make that decision. They had longed for the proper time to come, and some had laid awake nights desiring its arrival; and, as the face of a long absent, yet ever faithful friend, they greeted it with their smilingest and heartiest "Good day, sir." But for that "Nebraska" abomination they would not have made their decision this fall; that, however, harried them up, and gave them a jog onward; so that they will not be found napping at the next Presidential election. Just remember that, gentle reader, and see if you have not read the truth in reading it. And right here we will set down another thing? That small majority that was given in this State against Prohibition constitutes a powerful reason why a Prohibitory Law should be enacted. For who are they that most need such a law, but those who voted against it ! Certainly a large majority of those voting for it, do not either make, buy, or sell liquors as a beverage; they, therefore, do not wint it. Had there been a very large majority for the law, the minority, chiefly, would have needed it; but the majority were against it; therefore by the fact that more in number will be cursed by the traffic, should the traffic be prohibited. It is better to save a hundred men from drowning, than to save but five. It were nobler to seek to deliver fifty who, nearly exhausted, were struggling in the waves, than to devote your attention to two or three who had reached the shore, and were retreating from the scene of peril. Surely a greater reason for the enactmenta speedy enactment-of a Prohibi ory Liquor isted, is furnished us by our recent election. I trust that at the next session of our Legislature such a law will be passed. If the majurity prove itself to be from twenty-five to fifty yours behind the age, there is no reason why Legislatures should "go and do likewise."

Yours in L., P., and F., R. L. STILWELL.

Cincinnati, Oct. 29, 1854. GENTLEMEN: I am induced to enclose you the herewith auful disclosure, just made in the Miami Valley, of the out-rageous and hellish designs of this horrible society of men; besame infamous organization (K. N.) quest Gara, Ball, Sterrett & Co. to have a hand-bill issued at once, with suitable comments to the public, conan important bearing on the spring elections; if it should not reduce the price of potatoes and common whisky, answer what may be objected against them with a deep sympathy for the Irish.

PARTIES.

The present condition of-parties in the United States is peculiar, and causes much speculation among thinking men. The Whigs, as a national party, are disbanded, and the Democrats are so to a considerable degree. The national Whig party ceased to exist when the Southern Whigs, in School Law-little and little-or as brethren, joined with the Administramuch as we can get at a time. The tion Democracy in forcing through the Nebraska bill. And the recent hibitory element in it, and we will elections at the North show that, howhave a Governor who will neither ever desperately the leaders of the Hunker Democracy may labor to idea of continuing a party connection with the slavery extensionists is repudiated by the masses of the Northern Democracy. A process of amalgamacting us. The whole northwestern ation is now going on between Southern Whigs and Democrats, under the name of "National Democracy;" and the party, so strengthened, will doubtto influence Whiskeydom to go and voters, composed chiefly of foreigners, office-holders, and office-seckers, at the North. Thus we have the division fairly made, the Southerners and their dough-face allies at the Free-Soil men of the North forming ute for those counties that voted in the other. The latter, having thrown offall party ties to save the country from slavery domination, by uniting their forces, have just carried several this plan, and rejoice that but one of the great Northern States by such overwhelming majorities as show con-indicated majority to interdect in the sphere of action all practices which it deems demornation; and if the Free-Soil men are true to themselves and their principles. it will do so, in future. Divided, hey can do nothing-united, they can do everything. In Ohio and other be permanent. They have, at least, about 80,000 majority, and Indiana the legitimate sphere of National concern by some 40,000. Of course many political intriguants and partisan pressfollowing these doughfaces would so TRIBUNE directs its course.

But a small portion of THE TRIBUNE probably he little heeded by honest and earnest men. In short, the course of events throughout the States, points unmisevery form of slavery aggression. Much danger to the country, and many wrongs, might have been pre-vented, if this thing had been done. THE TRIBUNE contains reliable reports vented, if this thing had been done sooner, but it is not yet too late .- Susquchanna Register.

ALWAYS IN ADVANCE.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE commences its XIVth annual volume with the month of September—commences it with a circulation (115,000) larger than was ever before accorded direct opposition to their Northern circulation has been gradually and laboriously attained by concentrating upon THE TRI-BUNE the best efforts of many editors and correspondents and by a greater liberality of outlay in each department than was probably ever before risked on any journal. It has been attained, not by sailing smoothly in the current of Opinion before the wind and basking in the smiles of majorities, but by an earlet us get into the harness again as maintain a national organization, the nest, fearless devotion to Truth and Progress as above all partisan exigencies, all temporary interests, all momentary illusions of popularity and success. Its thorough advocacy of Temperance and Liquor Prohibition, of Justice to the despised and down-trodden, and of the equal and inclienable Rights of the Human Race, irrespective of Sex or Creed or Color, have from time to time repeiled many sunshine friends, whose prejudices or seeming inverests were thereby contravened, but less retain a considerable body of have combined to form a character which it voters, composed chiefly of foreign will endeavor to main ain and assign it a position among journals which we feel that it will be henceforth a success not to impair.

The leading ideas to which THE TRI-BUNE is devoted may be briefly set forth as follows: 1. FREEDOM, to do whatever is essentially right—not alone for white Americans, or Angio Saxons, or Caucasians even not for one Race to determine whether they will or will not hold another Race in abject win or win not not a mother tace in abject bondage—but for every Race and Nation, and every adult rational human being. This Ercedom is rightfully absolute in the broad domain of Opinion and involves the equal and imperative right to Political Franchises; 2. Orden, or the necessary right of the tegative is powerful enough to control the alizing, herefore prejudicial to he common weat; 3. Benificence, or the wisdom and policy of employing the resources and credit of the community to accomplish works of general and unquestioned utility to which nd.vidual means are inadequate or which, though eminently conducive to the public do everything. In Ohio and other western States, the Anti-Slavery men direct income the outlay required for their have united, under the name of "Re- construction: 4. Industrial Development; publicans," and the union bids fair to as the corner-stone of a true and benignant National Policy, counting the naturalization of a new and vamable art or product of the the prestige of success to sustain soil as more important than the acquisition of them, having just carried Ohio by a fresh province or island, and equally within and National effort; 5. Prace, as a vita: con di ion of true Progress, to be cherished by the most anxious, assidnous study to proner es, there as elsewhere, still cling to as readily as we are prone to require redress the Administration, and denounce all for every wrong, and never to be surrendered such alliances; but as the effect of except at the call of endangered Liberty.
