From the Syracuse Tye, Chronicle. ANOTHER SLATERY PROJECT.

A dispatch last night calls attention to a bill introduced last winter by Senator Johnson of Arkansas, looking to the organization of another Slave Territory and State. The bill was made the special order for the 15th of the present month, and as this Congress is soon to go out, and with it the power of the slaveholders, we may look for some pretty tall legislation during the four months of its session. The particulars of this project are copied by the Erening Post from the Ohio Home Visitor, which is entitled to the credit of digging, the infamous project out and bringing it to light.

Mr. Johnson's bill is an adroit scheme for making a slave State on the west of Arkansas, in what has long been known as the Indian Territory. The proposed Territory extends from the Texas border on the South, to the 37th degree of north latitude, and from the western line of Arkansas to the 100th degree of longitude. It into Texas, as seen on all the modern maps, and contains a country 200 miles in width from north to south. and 400 miles from east to west, being considerably larger than Ohio. This tract includes the cession to the Cherokees, Creeks, Seminoles, Chocktaws, and Chickasaws; or three Territories now known as the Cherokee, Muskogen and Chahta Territories. The bill of Senator Johnson, now without the consent of the legislature: are to be retained; that a Governor is to be appointed at a salary of $2,000, the Territories to help them in the tended over the Territory; that two U.S. district Judges with salaries of 82.500 each, shall be appointed; and that whenever these Territories come together and signify their willingness and energetic struggle .- N. Y. Trib. to be united under one government, they shall be organized into a Territory to be called Neosno; and whenever they open their country to settlement, they shall be entitled to admission as a State.

There is no question about Slavery here, and no one would suspect that there was anything but meal in the innocent looking tub. But a very exretienced old rat would not be much deceived by these appearances of innosence. These Indians are even now, nearly all slaveholders. A few vests since, the Creeks held about four hundred slaves, and the entire negro-population of the five tribes is estimated at about two thousand. It wis this very region that was the subjet of such a warm discussion in the American Missionary Board at its last session; and it appears that they call all men abolitionists who wish to have the slaves tought to read, and that they have forbidden all missionaries among Alem to exercise their functions, save on the condition that the slaves are not total to read the word of God. Should Mr. Johnson's bill pass, no educization scheme from the North can save the Territory; since all Whites and Indians are excluded by the act. Popular sovereignty, in this case, is guarded as carefully as it was in the long par iament when Cromwell placed his soldiers at the doors, and refused admission to all but his own amon. Slavery is faithful to itself, livie, and shows precisely what this sovereignty principle means. We adthis the genius of the slaveholders. They are some; and if the old gentleman who stirs the coals in a certain piece described by John Milton, does not come to their assistance and carry them safely through, we shall begin to think that he has ceased to be good to his own.

KANSAS FOR SLAVERY!

The most brazen of the false prophets who have been lulling the people of the North into a false security and color at the news from that Territory how flying across the country. The list battle has been fought, and vicbory perches on the flag of Human Bondage. Gen. Joseph W. Whitfield, a Federal office-holder, unequivocally and openly in favor of legalizing Slavery in Kansas, has been chosen her delegate to Congress, and chosen on the Slavery issue. True, he has been some years in the region, and was vaunted "the Squatters' candidate," which doubtless gained him some votes; Mr. R. P. Flenniken, his antagonist, being a very recent immigrant; but the main question was Slavery or No Slavery, and Slavery has triumphed. Doubtless, it was helped by a large immigration, for the week, from Missouri and perhaps Arkansas; but that which the slaveholders have done once, they may and Probably will do again when the decitive struggle on the election of Del-Gates to a Territorial Legislature tall take place; and for this we see no remedy. If Gov. Reeder shall Postpone this election till next June. the we shall hope for a better result; but if not, there is scarcely a chance. We believe there are this hour four Ex., Als. Fi. Fa., Vend. Ex., Als. Vend. Ex., Pla. Vend. Ex., issued out of the Court of State to one that she will be Free.

Where now are the Claytons and Edward Everetts, the Oldses and Bird Chapmans, who proclaimed the whole struggle against Douglas's bill a fight for an abstraction, and declared that Kansas was secured to Freedom by her climate, her soil, and her geofollowers and disciples of these prophesiers of smooth things?

"There, ye wise saints! behold your light, your star!
Ye would be dupes and victims, and ye are! What becomes, moreover, of the sneers at the Kansas Emigration Society? From the Kansas papers which have lately reached us, printed a few days hefore the election, we learn that the chief settlement of the emigration (Wakarusa-Lawrence) was the focus and stronghold of whatever resistance was made to the Slave Power. Had embraces the square that dips down there been half a dozen Wakarusas instead of one, the result would have been gloriously different. What is to be done? Kansas was legally shielded against the inroads of Slavery for thirty years preceding the last. There were some slaves held there, but they were held in bondage : without law and against law, like captives on a pirate-ship. The moment the Territory was organized and provided with a Judiciary, every slave in laying on the table of the Senate, and it could have been liberated on habeas to be taken up in two weeks after the corpus or some other summary process, meeting of Congress, provides that if the Nebraska act of last session had no white man can settle in this region simply said, nothing about Slavery. The victory just achieved for Slavery that all the Indian laws and customs is the second act of the drama lately begun in Congress under the leadership of Senator Douglas. The third and a Secretary at $1,500; that $10,000 act, directly and positively legalizing be paid from the Treasury to each of Slavery in Kansas, remains to be played next season. We fervently organization; that such of the laws of hope that the catastrophe may be Arkansas as fix the penalty for offenses averted, but the chances are decidedly amounting to felony are to be ex- against us. It will not be by indolence, by caviling, by empty predictions that the matter will take care of itself, that Freedom for Kansas is to port, bounded on the north by lands of Bingbe achieved, but by earnest resolution
