THE TRUE WIFE.

Sur is no wife who sustains not her Husband in the day of calamity, who is not, when the world's great frown makes the heart chill with auguish, his guardian angel, growing brighter and more beautiful as misfortunes crowd' along his path. Then is the time for tial of her gentleness, then is the time Goudersport, Pa, will regularly attend the for testing whether the sweetness of courts in Potter county. lier temper beams only with a transient light, or like the steady glory of the morning star, shines as brightly under the clouds. Has she then smiles just as chaiming? Does she say," Afflic-Son can not touch our purity, and should not queuch our love?" Does she try by happy little inventions to litt from his sensitive spirit the bur-den of thought?

There are wivez-nay, there are Beings who, when dark hours come, fall to repining and upbraiding-thus idding to outside anxiety the harrowing scenes of domestic strife-as if all the blame in the world would make Sne hair white or black, or change the fecree gone forth. Such know not that our darkness is heaven's light; our trials are but steps in a golden ladder, by which, if we rightly ascend, we may at last gain that eternal light, and bathe brever in its fullness and beauty.

"Is that all ?" and the gentle face of the wife beamed with joy. Het Adsband had been on the verge of N.B.-All claims due and payable to the to tenderly cared for all her life .---But, says Irving's beautiful stories, "a friend advised him to give not sleep to his eyes nor slumber to his éyelids until he had unfolded to her dil his hapless case."

"And that was her answer, with the smile of an angel-is that all? I feared by your sadness it was worse. Let these beautiful things be takenall this splendor, let it go; I care not for it-l only care for my husband's love and confidence. You shall forget in my affection that you were ever in prosperity-only still love me, and will aid you to bear these little reverses with cheerfulness."

Still love her! she a man must reverence, ay, and liken her to the very angels, for such a woman is a revelation of Heaven.

From the Schoolmate. MUCH-ABUSED WORDS.

LIBERTY-is an all-glorious word, the pride and boast of our-country. He has been the orator's Bucephalus, his very war-horse with his "neck clothed with thunder." Of how the hoble creature is degraded ! He is made by many a boasting republican in this land of the free, to pace in this pitiful manner-Libery -LIBERTY !! 7-27 y War Declared at Last. THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the reville of the drum, calling its slumber-ing millions to arms in the defense of their fitesides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and rending forward their armies to battle against she aggressions of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New. In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartucribin under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Olean, formerly occu-pied by Thing & Brother, and are now re-ceiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogyism that has been so long established in this section. AN INSTANCE OF COOL IMPUDENCE .----A sharpnosed, glib-tongued woman was marketing with her basket on her arm, in one of the markets of Cincinnati, when she stopped before a station where hominy grits, buckwheat flour, etc., were sold by the small quantity. Unlike the present time, every thing was down then to the lowest figure. Going up to the seller, she said.

"What do you ask a half-bushel for meal?"

"One shilling, ma'am." "Ain't that rather high ?"

"High! Shan't I give you a half bushel ! If you think a shilling is a high price for half a bushel of Indian mcal, I'll give you a half busheltome, now.

"Is it sifted?" asked the womanindicating that even as a gift, she was bot going to take it unless it was first hate.
