

IMAGINARY EVILS

BY CHARLES SWAIN

Let to-morrow take care of to-morrow; Leave things of the future to fate; What's the use to anticipate sorrow; Life's troubles come never too late; If to hope overmuch be an error, 'Tis one that the wise have preferred; And how often have hearts been in terror Of evils that never occurred!

From the Pittsburgh Daily Gazette. THE OHIO KNOW-SOMETHINGS.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—In answer to numerous inquiries from your State touching the new Order of Know-Somethings, the Grand Council has directed that the platform of the Order, with certain explanations and directions, be made public. The fundamental object of the Order is, to induce "Sam" to discard his alliance with Slaveholders and put his trust in Freedom, to purge his platform of proscription of Protestant adopted citizens, and to make opposition to the despotism of Slavery as prominent as that to Popery.

Will you please insert the above and the following in the Daily and Weekly editions of your paper?

SAM'S NEPHEW.

Platform of Principles of the Know-Somethings.

1st. Opposition to all forms of tyranny over the mind and body of man. 2d. Neither Nature, nor the Constitution of our Country, recognizes the right of man to property in man.

3d. Principles and character—not birthplace—are the true standard of qualification for citizenship.

4th. No adherent of any Foreign power, either political or politico-religious, should be eligible to naturalization.

5th. There should be neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude, except for the punishment of crime, in any of the Territories, nor should any more Slave States be added to the Union.

6th. Candidates for political offices, should be men of undoubted integrity and sobriety, and known to be in favor of resisting, by all lawful and constitutional means, the aggressions of Popery and Slavery.

7th. The people are the rightful source of political power, and all officers should, as far as practicable, be chosen by a direct vote of the People.

These persons, legal voters, who approve of the above principles, and are desirous of uniting with such an organization, can meet in their respective localities, and organize temporarily, by choosing a President and Secretary, and, having pledged an honorable secrecy, subscribe their names to the Platform, and authorize their Secretary to address Box No. 733, Postoffice, Cleveland, O., (post-paid) when an initiating Deputy will be sent to perfect their organization at the earliest practicable moment.

In the meantime the enrolment of additional names may be continued until the Deputy shall arrive. It is desirable to have a complete roll of all who approve of these principles by the 4th day of July next.

Members of other secret organizations who are resolved to vote only for men possessing the qualifications mentioned in the 6th Article of the above Platform can consistently unite with us, as the Order is not a political party for the elevation of its own members, but for the promotion of good and true men wherever found, and it is ready to co-operate with all who maintain these principles of whatever political name.

By AUTHORITY.

A FRIEND from the country, on telling Footo of an extensive funeral of a certain attorney, the wit replied: "Do you bury your attorneys?" "Yes, to be sure we do—how else?" "O, we never do that in London."

"Don't," said the other, much surprised, "how do you manage?" "When the patient happens to die, we lay him out in a room over night, throw open the sash, and in the morning he is entirely off."

"Indeed," said the other in amazement, "what becomes of him?" "Why, that we cannot tell; all we know is, that there is a very strong smell of brimstone in the room next morning."

"WHAT is the meaning of a back-biter?" said a reverend old gentleman, during an examination at a parochial school. This went down the class till it came to a simple little urchin, who said, "P'raps it be a flea."

Is the boy that got flogged for telling a fib the same "trembling lyre" that the poet speaks of? Are modern satirages meet for consideration?

The Virginia election takes place on the fourth Thursday of May next.

FOUNDY. D. B. BROWN would give notice to the public that he is prepared, at his Foundry in Coudersport, to do all manner of Casting—will make and finish to order all kinds of Machinery, Mill Gearing, Board and Log Cars, Sleigh-Shoes of all sizes, and every article needed by a Lumbering community. And to farmers he would say, that he has procured some of the best Plow patterns in use, both Flat Land and Side Hill, and keeps them constantly on hand. And will make to order Field Rollers, Harrows, Cultivators, and every article used by them in his line of business. He is prepared also to do all kinds of BLACKSMITHING. And from his long experience in the above business, he feels confident of giving satisfaction to those who may give him a call. N. B.—Old iron bought, or taken in exchange for work. 7-27y

War Declared at Last. THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the rattle of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their fields and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the aggressions of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, annual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Olean, formerly occupied by Thing & Brother, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogyism that has been so long established in this section. Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods:

Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carriages, Oil Cloths, Glass, Paints & Oils, Sash, Putty, Chairs, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Feathers, Stone and Wooden Ware.

And we mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good. Call and see for yourselves. N. S. BUTLER & CO. Olean, May 5, 1854. 6-51

Notice. THE Governor of the State of New-York has appointed the subscriber a Commissioner for the State of New-York, to take the acknowledgment of Deeds and other instruments, and to administer oaths pursuant to an act of the Legislature of the said State. ISAAC BENSON. Coudersport, Dec. 12, 1851.

New Goods. T. B. TYLER has just returned from the city, and is now prepared to show the largest and best stock of Drugs, Medicines, Paints, Oils, Books, Stationery, Paper Hangings, and Fancy Goods in the county. He is also prepared to sell lower than at Wellsville, and as low as any other establishment in Coudersport. April 15, 1855.

HONEY.—A good quality of honey for sale at C. SMITH'S.

T. BAS, fresh and cheap, at TYLER'S.

HYGEANA.

Brought Home to the Door of the Million. A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. CURTIS, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lung. We refer to "Dr. CURTIS' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygeana Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has numerous certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician says: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the nasal cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at the druggists' through out the country. N. Y. Dutchman, Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid. Hundreds of cases of cures like the following might be named. One package of the Hygeana has cured me of the Asthma of six years standing. J. F. Keesberry, P. M., Duncomon, Pa. I am cured of the Asthma of 10 years standing by Dr. CURTIS' Hygeana. Margart Eastman, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Paul of No. 5 Mammoth-st., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana.

My sister had been cured of a distressing cough of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her physicians. She was cured in one month by the Hygeana. A. H. Gault, P. M., Richmond, N. Y. Price Three Dollars a Package.—Sold by CURTIS & PERKINS & BOYD & PAUL, No. 149 Chambers-st., N. Y.—4 Packages sent free by express to any part of the United States for Ten Dollars.

N. B.—Dr. CURTIS' Hygeana is the original and only genuine article, and all others are base imitations or vile and injurious counterfeits. Shun them as you would poison. Sold by Russell & Scott, No. 138 Market-st., Philadelphia, who will sell by the dozen at the Proprietors' rates.

DIARIES for 1855 just received at TYLER'S.

TO OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, THEIR WIDOWS, AND MINOR CHILDREN.

S. M. KNIGHT, Attorney for Government Claims, Washington, D. C., CONTINUES to give prompt and personal attention to the prosecution of Claims of every description, against the Government, and particularly to those before the Treasury Department, Pension and Bounty-Land Bureaus, Patent and General Land Offices, and Board of Claims.

An experience of years, and a familiarity with the means of obtaining the earliest and most favorable action on Claims, justify him in assuring his Correspondents, Claimants, and the Public generally, that interests entrusted to his keeping will not be neglected. PENSION, BOUNTY LAND, PATENT, AND PUBLIC LAND LAWS.

He has nearly ready, for gratuitous distribution among his business Correspondents, (and those who may become such,) a neat pamphlet containing a synopsis of the existing Pension, Bounty Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws, down to the end of the late Congress—including the BOUNTY-LAND ACT OF MARCH 3, 1855, under which all who have heretofore received less than 160 acres are now entitled to additional land; said Act grants also 160 acres to all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Chaplains, Soldiers, Wagon Masters, Teamsters, and friendly Indians, of the Army, including State Troops, Volunteers, and Militia and all Officers, Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines, Crews, and Landsmen, of the Navy, not heretofore provided for, who have served not less than fourteen days (unless in battle) at any period since 1776; and to the widows and minor children of all such persons entitled, and deceased.

This pamphlet contains "Forms of Application" more full and complete than any elsewhere to be found; adapted to the wants of every class of Claimants under the Act, with copious decisions and instructions of the Department, and practical suggestions as to the course to be pursued in suspended or rejected cases.

Parties not wishing to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by this Office in securing prompt and personal superintendence of their claims at the Department, can obtain copies of the above pamphlet by remitting thirty cents in postage stamps.

INDUCEMENTS TO CORRESPONDENTS. Correspondents who prepare and forward cases for management by this Agency will be dealt with liberally; supplied with all necessary blanks gratis, and kept constantly advised of the changes in the law to time occur in the execution of the laws.

It is within his subscriber's power to direct his Correspondents to the locality of very many persons entitled under the Act; and having obtained several thousand Land Warrants under former laws, he is in possession of data that will materially assist in securing additional bounty.

Fees, below the usual rates—and contingent upon the admission of Claims. The highest cash prices given for Land Warrant Revolutionary Scrips, and Illinois Land Patents.

Address S. M. KNIGHT, Washington, D. C. 46-3f

Tin and Hardware. THE undersigned has connected with his Tin, Sheet Iron, Copper, and Stove Business, that of HARDWARE and CUTLERY—so that he is now prepared to supply the public with almost every variety of Hardware, Mill and Cross-Cut Saws, Hoop Iron, Nails, Cable and Ox Chains, Carpenters' Adzes and Broadaxes, Manilla Rope for Cables. A general assortment of Clocks, Jeweled Ware, Toys of every description, and all other articles that he keeps all such things as the public wants in his line, which he will sell, not for less than cost, but for a very small profit indeed, and hopes by a strict attention to his business to receive liberal share of public patronage.

All kinds of Produce taken in exchange for Goods, at the highest market prices; also, $20 per ton paid for old iron. JAS. W. SMITH. 6-42 ly

Premium Fanning Mills. Important to Farmers and Mechanics. THE subscriber has purchased of J. Lamborough the right to use in Potter and McKean counties his patent in the construction of Fanning Mills. He has also, at great expense, commenced the manufacture of a PREMIUM MILL which will clear from 100 to 200 bushels per hour. This Mill was patented March 20, 1847, since which time it has stood at the head of the list at all the State and county agricultural societies where it has been exhibited, and is a universal favorite with all farmers who have tried it. It took the premium at the first Agricultural Fair held at Harrisburg, Oct. 31st, 1851, when there were 30,000 people present; and at the great State Agricultural Fair at New-York, held at Rochester Sept. 16-19, 1851, this Fanning Mill received the highest honors.

Having met with uniform success wherever tried, I confidently invite the farmers of Potter and McKean counties to call at my shop in Coudersport and examine for themselves. A supply always on hand, to be sold on reasonable terms. JOHN RECKHOW. 6-37f

THE subscriber hereby gives notice to the public that having given PETER SHUTTS his note for eighty dollars, bearing date near the last of March, 1854, payable September, 1856, and having never received any value therefor, he will refuse to pay the same; therefore he warns any person from buying the said note with any expectation of his paying it. [651] CONSIDER STEARNS.

Machine Oil. Mill Owners will always find supply of Oil for machinery at satisfactory prices, and in any quantity, at TYLER'S Drug Store.

"Halloo! Halloo! Halloo!" SPENCER is in town! Mountains or READY-MADE CLOTHING for almost nothing. I have bought this coat, and these pants—no broke, either! Hurrah! All the boys shall have one of SPENCER'S coats! Hurrah! But, to be candid, friends, there's nothing like it in all the country. Just go over there, and for a little of nothing he'll sell ye a rag that, though ye're the biggest rascal above ground, will make ye as far as a praxet to look at; though ye haunt a cent in yer pockets, falks will bow and scrape to ye as though ye were millionaires, and 'real gentlemen.' Fashion! Great thing! Better dead than out of it—many an honest fellow has been 'cut' because of the cut of his coat; but no danger if ye buy of Spencer—his clothes are just the fashion, and ye haunt a cent in yer pockets, falks will bow and scrape to ye as though ye were millionaires, and 'real gentlemen.'
