

A SHEEP SPECULATION.

A very verdant youth, on the shady side of thirty, traveled out of sight of home for purposes unknown, and stopped at a hotel to procure refreshments.

A tip of the eye from one to the other, as he entered, indicated that they considered this awkward specimen "game," and "mine host" glanced inquisitively at his rough exterior, as though taking an inventory and balancing accounts for dinner.

"Yes, sheep; would n't you like to purchase some four or five hundred to stock your farm with ha ha!" "H-h-how do you sell 'um?" asked the Dutchman.

"Seeing it's you," said drover No. two, taking him by the button-hole and speaking with mock seriousness, "seeing it's you, neighbor, you may have all you can pay for at two dollars per head."

"P-p-pick?" exclaimed the Dutchman.

"Yes, have your pick, and take all you can pay for at two dollars per head." So off went the drovers and Dutchman, followed by all in the bar-room, even mine host himself, to see the fun.

"Yes, we hear the bargain; have all you can pay for at two dollars per head. Come, hand out your money, and pick your sheep."

Dutchman very leisurely opened his capacious wallet, and surprised the bystanders by presenting all twenty dollars, and proceeded to select his sheep. Here the drovers discovered that he knew what was mutton, and had probably learned to distinguish wool from another article called hair.

"Hold on, man!" said drover No. one, "you've your number; here's ten."

"Well, but m-may be I-I-I might find enough t-to pay for a few more." So he threw over in all one hundred and twenty-five, then straightening up—

"H-h-here's your money, sir; I s-s-pose I could pay for more, but I guess I've got all the good 'uns!" The drovers found little satisfaction in the roars of laughter that greeted this announcement, and they cursed the Dutchman most heartily, who proved to be a Yankee after all.

S. M. KNIGHT, Attorney for Government, S. M. Chantama, Washington, D. C.

CONTINUES to give prompt and personal Attention to the prosecution of Claims of every description against the Government, and particularly to those before the Treasury Department, Pension and Bounty-Land Bureaus, Patent and General Land Offices, and Board of Claims.

An experience of years, and a familiarity with the means of obtaining the earliest and most favorable action on Claims, with his facilities for the dispatch of business, justify him in assuring his Correspondents, Claimants, and the Public generally, that interests entrusted to his keeping will not be neglected.

He has nearly ready, for gratuitous distribution among his business Correspondents, (and those who may become such,) a neat pamphlet containing a synopsis of the existing Pension, Bounty Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws, down to the end of the late Congress—including the BOUNTY LAND ACT OF MARCH 3, 1855, under which all who have heretofore received less than 100 acres are now entitled to additional land; said Act grants also 100 acres to all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Chaplains, Soldiers, Wagon Masters, Teamsters, and friendly Indians, of the Army, including State Troops, Volunteers, and Militia and all Officers, Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines, Clerks, and Landsmen, of the Navy; not heretofore provided for, who have served not less than four-year days (unless in battle) at any period since 1776; and to the widows and minor children of all such persons entitled, and deceased.

This pamphlet contains "Forms of Application" more full and complete than any elsewhere to be found; adapted to the wants of every class of Claimants under the Act, with copious decisions and instructions of the Department, and practical suggestions as to the course to be pursued in suspended or rejected cases.

Parties not wishing to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by this Office in securing prompt and personal superintendence of their claims at the Department, can obtain copies of the above pamphlet, by remitting three cents in postage stamps.

INDUCEMENTS TO CORRESPONDENTS. Correspondents who prepare and forward their claims for management by this Agency will be dealt with liberally; supplied with all necessary blanks gratis, and kept constantly advised of the changes that from time to time occur in the execution of the laws.

It is within the subscriber's power to direct his Correspondents to the locality of every many persons entitled under the Act; and having obtained several thousand Land Warrants under former laws, he is in possession of data that will materially assist in securing additional bounty.

Fees, below the usual rates—and contingent upon the admission of Claims. The highest cash prices given for Land Warrants, Revolutionary scrip, and Illinois Land Patents.
