

From the N. Y. Eve. Post.
FURTHER ENORMITIES COMMITTED BY THE WESTERN SAVAGES.

To-day we publish an account from a Missouri paper of certain remarkable proceedings which were had lately at Parkville, in the northwestern part of Missouri. The violence and robbery committed, and the preparations for deliberate murder, from a fitting sequel to the late exploits of the Missourians in Kansas.

Justice, like charity, should begin at home. It is not worth while to make a great outcry about wrongs committed on American citizens abroad, while the civil authority fails to protect American citizens from far greater wrongs in their own country. If the lives of our own countrymen are not safe here—if their personal liberty is not respected—if their property may be pillaged by a conspiracy, and the plotters remain unpunished and the outrage unredressed—with what face can we require other countries to abstain from treating in a like manner such of our countrymen as they may find on their soil? How can we ask them to respect rights which we do not respect ourselves? They may turn upon us and say: "How is it that you demand a different measure of justice from that which you give? We have only treated your citizens more mildly and less arbitrarily than you treat them yourselves."

There was, it seems, a newspaper published in Parkville, under the title of the Industrial Luminary, which gave offence to Atchison's faction by the freedom with which it spoke of the recent election frauds in Kansas, and expressed a desire, cherished by a very considerable party in Missouri, that Kansas should be a free state. The pro-slavery party assembled, passed resolutions that the press of the Parkville Luminary should be thrown into the Missouri river, that two conductors, Messrs. Park and Patterson, should be pitched after it, if they could be caught within the state; that they should be followed and hanged if they attempted to settle in Kansas; and that if any preacher of the Northern Methodist Church should offer to preach in Platte County, he should be tarred and feathered for the first offence, and hanged for the second. The savages who were present executed the first of these threats immediately, throwing the press into the river; the second is yet to be fulfilled, and the barrel of tar and bag of feathers, with the halter, are doubtless ready for the next Methodist who preaches in the county. During the holding of the assembly it seems that the wires of the telegraph which pass through the place were busy communicating despatches "of an encouraging nature," doubtless from the leaders of the Atchison party, by whom these outrages were instigated.

Thus there is no crime, no act of robbery or cruelty, not even murder committed at which these wretches are to stop in the prosecution of their intent to prevent Kansas from adopting a free constitution. All respect for law, for the principles of natural justice, for the dictates of humanity, for the usages of civilized life, is to be trampled under foot, and nothing is to be held sacred from outrage that interferes with their purpose. The acts of these plotters against the freedom of Kansas are the great national sins of the day, and the foulest blot on the morals and honor of the nation. In all the abominable acts of oppression committed by the despots of the old world, there is nothing more tyrannical in spirit, and scarce anything so atrociously brutal in act.

It was a hard case, certainly, that Dr. Peck, an innocent man, according to his own statement, should have been arrested by the Spanish authorities of Cuba on suspicion of treasonable practices; it was hard, that after his release he should not be allowed to reside and mend teeth in the city of Puerto Principe, where all his acquaintances lived; and we do not wonder that he chose to leave the island rather than live any where else. He was not however, pitched into any of the rivers of Cuba, nor stripped of his property, nor threatened with being hanged by the neck if he did not leave the island immediately. The condition affixed to his liberation, that he should not continue to make his home in Puerto Principe, was not accompanied by the threat that if any others of his countrymen should have the hardihood to visit Puerto Principe, they should suffer an ignominious punishment for the first offence, and death for the second. If the Spanish authorities had behaved half as arbitrarily and atrociously in his case as the organized Atchison faction has done in that of Park and Patterson, the whole country would have been in a flame of indignation, from the Mexican frontier to the Canadian.

Let us attend to the worst cases first, and as these happen to be nearest to us, we can most conveniently give them our attention. When the rights of the American citizen are sacredly respected on the soil of his own country, our sensitiveness for foreign insults will appear more natural and reasonable. We do not wish to degrade so grave a subject by any trivial allusion, but all civil governments should remember, in consulting for the safety of their subjects, that there is great truth in the old nursery rhyme,
If you would keep them safe abroad,
Pray keep them safe at home.

GRAND DIVISION S. OF T.—A quarterly session of this body was held at Blairsville, Indiana county, in this State, commencing Wednesday, the 25th of April, which was attended by the grand officers from Philadelphia and Pittsburg, and a numerous representation from Indiana, Blair, Huntington, and surrounding counties. The meeting was characterized by harmony and unanimity of sentiment on the part of the representatives, and the public proceedings cheered and encouraged by the presence of a large number of young ladies who had been initiated as "accepted visitors."

From the reports presented by the Grand Scribe, the order was shown to be in a flourishing condition in the southern and eastern portions of the State, which was generally attributed to the admission of women, and the admirable working of the "degrees" recently adopted.

A public procession came off on Thursday, in which the ladies participated, proceeding to the English Lutheran church, where a very interesting and instructive address was delivered by the G. S., Wm. Nicholson, of Philadelphia, and a beautiful piece (to the air of "Old Folks at Home") sung by the ladies, together with other appropriate exercises—the only regrets expressed at the conclusion being, by the ladies, at the absence of the Grand Worthy Patriarch, who was detained by his official duties in the House of Representatives.

The next Quarterly Session will be held at Scranton, Luzerne county, on the fourth Wednesday of July next.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Very Important Information.

Dr. JONES, one of the most celebrated physicians in New-York, writes as follows:
Dr. CUTLER—Dear Sir:—Having witnessed the excellent effects of your HYGIANA on IRRITATING HYOEAN VAPOR and CHERRY STROUF in a case of chronic Bronchitis, and being much in favor of counter-irritation in affections of the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs, I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Medicated Apparatus as being the most convenient and effectual mode of applying anything of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt thousands of persons may be relieved, and many cured, by using your remedies.
You are at liberty to use this in any way you may think proper.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
C. JOHNS, M. D.,
No. 609 Houston street, New-York.
Prof. S. CENTER writes as follows:
GENTLEMEN,—I have recently had occasion to test your Cherry Syrup and Hygean Vapor in the case of chronic sore throat, that had refused to yield to other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me, that, whatever may be the composition of your preparation, it is no imposition, but an excellent remedy. I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all.
Rev. Doctor CHEEVER writes:
New-York, Nov. 15, 1854.
Dear Sir:—I think highly of Dr. CUTLER'S Hygeana, as a remedy in diseases of the throat and lungs. Having had some opportunity to test its efficacy, I am convinced that it is a most excellent medicine, both the Syrup and the inhaling application to the chest. The Hygeana is for sale by D. W. SPENCER, Coudersport.

Putnam's Monthly.

In assuming the publication of PUTNAM'S MONTHLY, it is only necessary for us to refer to the special notice issued, with our hearty approval, upon the first of April, by the late publishers. The Magazine will aim at greater excellence in the direction hitherto pursued; and, without being a partisan, will hold decided opinions, and will treat all public questions from a humane and truly national point of view.
In all the other varied departments of a Monthly Magazine, it will hope to amuse, instruct, and benefit; to criticize generously but justly; and to attract to its pages, as it has already done, the contributions of able men in every walk of Literature, Science, and Art. The past volumes are the best assurance that nothing offensive to the purest morality, and no wanton attack upon honest conviction, will ever find a place in the Magazine.
All communications should be addressed to DIX & EDWARDS, Publishers of Putnam's Monthly, 10 Park Place, New York.

J. BLOOMINGDALE, Principal.

The undersigned Officers and Trustees of the Coudersport Academy are moved by a sense of official and personal duty, to call the attention of the public, and of the people of our county in particular, to the rising and useful character of this institution of learning.

When we invited the present worthy Principal to the post, we found the Academy in a depressed and declining state. We submitted its organization and other most onerous affairs to his discretion and management; and our experience enables us with increased confidence to assure parents and guardians that he has proved faithful, efficient, and practical—just such an instructor as this community needs.
