

Hon. J. R. Giddings.—The "Old War Horse" of the Western Reserve is to be at Coudersport on the 4th. We will endeavor to be at the Capital of Potter on that day. There is a Mass there we have long desired to take by the hand; yea, more, we are assured that the men of Coudersport are unusually good looking, and the women have no equals in the "Old Key Stone." We shall see!—Wells-Free Press.

We shall give you a cordial welcome and shall be happy to introduce you to all the best looking men and women in this vicinity. But the people of this county do not deserve any credit for their good looks. They prefer to be judged by other qualities. Will Brothers Allen and Cobb have the kindness to notice the expected visit of the great champion of Liberty to this county, and to grace the meeting with their presence? We will promise them a good time if they will come, and a gathering of independent Republicans that will strengthen their hands for the work before them.

From the N. Y. Tribune.
Slavery vs. Commerce and Prosperity.
The N. Y. Journal of Commerce quotes the following from the Louisville Journal:
"We know of no other city in all this vast Union that is just now suffering so much injury from the effects of the superior enterprise of other communities, as Louisville. The construction of numerous railways in every direction, North, East, and West will have been built South, has had the effect to divert both travel and trade to other parts, and no effort worthy of regard has been made, to counteract this tendency."

The same paper, according to the Journal of Commerce, remarks:
"The city of Cincinnati has also been a sufferer from the injurious influences of the network of railways that have been spread out on the North between that city and the Lakes. But the citizens have had the sagacity to perceive the evil, and to remedy it by proposing to extend railroads to the South, which will give to Cincinnati a decided advantage in competing with Louisville for the trade in that direction."

Here we have an exposition by a leading New York journal friendly to the Southern system, of its blighting effects on the prosperity of the South. Why so—why "numerous railways in every direction, North, East, and West, while none have been built South." The proposition of Cincinnati to extend railroads South is, we are told, mere smoke. Any region that requires railroads can raise the means of making them, and they are made at second-hand. Poverty and slavery go together, and extensive railroads are the surest index of wealth and enterprise incompatible with the system which The Journal defends. When Kentucky surrenders to Louisville can flourish, and still then. This truth of Commerce Journal should lay to heart, and make its philosophy correspond with its name.

ROBERT M. FOUST, Esq., member of the House of Representatives from Philadelphia, has declined the presentation of a Silver Pitcher tendered by Sons of Temperance in Philadelphia for his exertions in the cause of temperance during the present session. He places this declination on the ground that others are equally entitled to credit for their labors for temperance legislation. Mr. Foust is as deserving for his modesty as for his devotion to the principles of temperance which lie so near to his heart. When solicited many years ago to take the editorial charge of a temperance periodical, his sole objection was a doubt as to his abilities to conduct it properly—though no one doubted his abilities but himself, and a long experience proved him more equal to the task. As a legislator, Mr. Foust has earned a fame, as a father of the Sunday prohibitory law, which is more desirable than any eulogium which could follow a mere presentation. He carries a long and enduring testimonial of his value in the hearts of the thousands of religion, morality, and temperance, than that which he has been honored with unaffected modesty to decline. That testimonial of the affection of a grateful people, he cannot decline. In the memory of this good act will live his unblemished name far into the multitude of posterity.—Lancaster Express.

ADDRESS ON PROHIBITION.
The Editors of the Saturday Eve. Express:
Having received numerous letters from the friends of Prohibition, urging the necessity of an Address of the State Central Committee, I would give notice that it has all along been intended to issue such a document as soon as it would be ascertained what was the final action of the Legislature. Several bills were before that body, and it was by no means certain that any other action would not be had on the subject. It would have been manifestly improper, therefore, to issue an Address previous to its adjournment. An Address will now be prepared, setting forth the provisions of the different laws in regard to the liquor traffic, and a Convention called to meet in Reading at some proper time before the beginning of the fall campaign.

In the meantime let the papers discuss the time for holding said Convention, and the friends of the cause send to the Committee the FUNDS to meet the expense of publishing the Address, of which at least FIFTY THOUSAND should be issued. P. COOMBE.
Philadelphia, May 8, 1855.

A clergyman by the name of David White preached in Chillicothe, Missouri, on Sunday, the 8th inst., and having spoken disrespectfully of Slavery, he was invited to leave the town or pay the penalty in a coat of tar and feathers. He preferred to leave. He was a coward.

Very Important Information.

DR. JONES, one of the most celebrated physicians in New-York, writes as follows:
Dr. CURTIS—Dear Sir—Having witnessed the excellent effects of your HYGEANA on several cases of chronic Bronchitis, and being much in favor of counter-irritation in affections of the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs, I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Medicated Apparatus as being the most convenient and effectual mode of applying anything of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt thousands of persons may be relieved, and many cured, by using your remedies.
You are at liberty to use this in any way you may think proper.
Respectfully, yours, &c.,
C. JOHNS, M. D.,
No. 609 Houston street, New-York.

Prof. S. CENTER writes as follows:
GENTLEMEN—I have recently had occasion to test your Cherry Syrup and Hygeana Vapor in the case of chronic sore throat, that had refused to yield to other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me, that, whatever may be the composition of your preparation, it is no imposition, but an excellent remedy, I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all.
Rev. Doctor CHEEVER writes:
New-York, Nov. 15, 1854.
Dear Sir—I think highly of Dr. CURTIS's Hygeana, as a remedy in diseases of the throat and lungs. Having had some opportunity to test its efficacy, I am convinced that it is a most excellent medicine, both the Syrup and the inhalant application to the chest.

Putnam's Monthly.

It is assuming the publication of Putnam's Monthly, it is only necessary for us to refer to the special notice issued with our hearty approval, upon the first of April, by the late publishers. The Magazine will aim at greater excellence in the direction hitherto pursued; and, without being a partisan, will hold decided opinions, and will treat all public questions from a humane and truly national point of view.

In all the other varied departments of a Monthly Magazine, it will hope to amuse, instruct, and benefit; to criticize generously but justly; and to attract to its pages, as it has already done, the contributions of able men in every walk of Literature, Science, and Art. The past volumes are the best assurance that nothing offensive to the purest morality, and no wanton attack upon honest conviction, will ever find a place in the Magazine. All communications should be addressed to DIX & EDWARDS, Publishers of Putnam's Monthly, 10 Park Place, New York.

"For Truth—our Country, and the Slave."

OUR WORLD.

603 Pages, 12mo., 10 Illustrations, Price $1.25

THAT this exciting story should arouse the liveliest interest and deepest feeling, is natural and obvious—it relates to THE GREAT QUESTION which so deeply engrosses the minds and hearts of all our people. Its character, incidents, and scenes, are all OUR OWN, AND OF OUR TIME. It is vividly and effectively written; and the Truth of History and the Charms of Romance render its pages at once CAPTIVATING AND CONVINCING. It shows the wrongs and cruelties inflicted upon THREE MILLION SLAVES! and the bondage in which the Slave-power attempts to hold TWENTY MILLION FREEMEN!

"As a literary work, it is superior to Uncle Tom's Cabin. It will excite, first, attention, and then admiration throughout the country, and take its place at the head of all recently published books." (Buffalo Express.) "We have never read a fictitious story which so completely engrossed one's attention from commencement to close." (Boston Evening Gazette.)

Court Proclamation.

WHEREAS, the Hon. Robert G. White, President Judge, and the Hon. O. A. Lewis and Joseph Mann, Esqs., Associate Judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphan's Court, and Court of Common Pleas for the County of Potter, have issued their precept, bearing date the 22d day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and to me directed, for doing a Court of Oyer and Terminer and General Jail Delivery, Quarter Sessions of the Peace, Orphan's Court, and Court of Common Pleas, in the Borough of Coudersport, on MONDAY, the 18th day of June next, and to continue one week.

Notice is therefore hereby given to the Coroners, Justices of the Peace, and Consabes within the county, that they be then and here in their proper persons, at 10 o'clock A. M., of said day, with their rolls, records, inquisitions, examinations, and other remembrances, to do those things which to their offices appertain to be done. And those who are bound by their recognizances to prosecute against the prisoners, who are or shall be in the jail of the said county of Potter, are to be then and there to prosecute against them as will be just. Dated at Coudersport, Feb. 23, 1855, and the 29th year of the Independence of the United States of America. P. A. STEBBINS, Sheriff.

IMPORTANT TO LUMBERMEN.

SKINNER'S PATENT SHINGLE-MACHINE. THE undersigned, agent for the Patent in Potter and the adjoining counties of Pennsylvania and New-York, would respectfully call the attention of Lumbermen and others to this labor-saving machine, patented Nov., 1851, and now in successful operation in various parts of the United States. This machine will give and shave from one to two thousand shingles per hour, and will work hemlock equally as well as pine, the practical working of which can be seen at Coudersport, where one is now in operation. Any information respecting the same will be given by addressing the subscriber, O. CHAMBERLAIN, Ellensburg, Pa., March 22, 1855.

TO PRINTERS.

BRUCE'S NEW-YORK TYPE FOUNDRY, established in 1813, has now on hand, ready for immediate delivery, in fonts to suit purchasers,

- 100,000 lb. Roman Type of new cut,
- 50,000 " Fancy Type,
- 10,000 " Scripts of various styles,
- 5,000 " Germans,
- 5,000 " Ornaments in great variety,
- 5,000 " Borders,
- 30,000 feet Brass and Type Metal Rules, and all the novelties in the business.

All the above Types are cast by steam power, of the new metal peculiar to this foundry, and which is certainly superior to any ever used before in any part of the world. The unexcelled rapidity in the process of casting, enables me to send these more durable types at the prices of ordinary types, either on credit or for cash.

Presses, Wood Type, and all other Printing Materials, except paper and Cards, (which have no fixed quality or price,) furnished at manufacturers' prices. The latest Specimen Book of the Foundry is freely given to all printing offices, on the receipt of fifty cents to prepay postage.

Printers of newspapers who choose to publish this advertisement, including this notice, three times before the first day of July, 1855, will be allowed the first day of the purchase of five times the amount of my manufactures. New-York, Feb. 12, 1855. Address, GEO. BRUCE, 45-31, New-York.
