

MINISTERS BECOMING POLITICIANS.

The following letter appeared last week in the National Era, the able and consistent organ of the anti-slavery sentiment at Washington. The author is a local clergyman in the town from which he dates his letter. He is of Democratic antecedents—one of those men who laboring with and among the people, know well their sentiments:

RAYMOND, N. H., April 21, 1852.

In past times, say twenty-five years ago and more, the Methodist, Baptist, Free Will Baptist, Christian, and Universalist ministers of this State, embracing not far from two-thirds of the whole number in the State, were mostly Democratic in politics. The Congregationalists, Presbyterians, and Unitarians, were mostly Whigs. In those times many ministers of the Democratic party were active politicians. They discussed politics in the circles they met, voted at the polls, were often chosen legislators, made fervent prayers for the perpetuity and spread of our glorious liberties at military reviews, Fourth of July celebrations, and at political conventions. When Jackson, Van Buren, and others were candidates for the Presidency, some ministers attended meetings at which political addresses were given, and offered prayer. So late as 1850, at a political meeting addressed by stump orators of the Democratic party, a minister offered prayer, which was considered so valuable that it was published in a political paper. Any one who read it could but see that it was quite political. Democratic ministers within half a dozen years, have attended, as members, political conventions for the nomination of State, county, and other officers. Even in the present year, in one county, a minister who was the only one that voted with the Democrats in that part of the State, attended the caucus just before the election, and was an active member.

In all these and other cases that might be named, there was no complaint that ministers were meddling with politics. No, no; that was all very well. They were patriotic, and "for their country."

But since 1835 a change has been taking place. The Democratic party proving recreant to the true principles of Democracy as they were maintained in the days of Jefferson, ministers have left it. The party becoming prostituted to the upholding of Slavery and to the extension of it, preachers have been leaving it, so that at present but very few support it. Perhaps out of 650 ministers now in the State, there are not fifty that are of the Democratic party. Hundreds of the ministers are opposed to Slavery. They are for Temperance, Peace, and Liberty. They do not make these the subject of their discourses; they pray for those in bond, and occasionally some of them make God's violated law speak out in tones of thunder. This is more particularly the case on annual fast and thanksgiving days. Formerly those days had become seasons for amusement and feasting; so that churches obtained but few hearers. Now more attend.

But while ministers have been taking this course, some of the people have been in a agony. Ministers could be active in politics while Democrats, but to be active for the cause of Freedom, Oh, "that alters the case!" And such ado, perhaps, was never heard on such a subject before. "Church and State united!" "Ministers preaching politics!" "Ministers electioneering!" and the like, have been vociferated loud and long. Editors of political papers have called upon the people to leave the ministrations of such political priests, and some of the people have declared they would not hear nor help support such ministers. But the heavens have not fallen, as yet.

Quite a number of ministers in the State have gone into the Know Nothing movement. Of this I have nothing to say, as to defending them. A little time will show whether the course was wise or not.

The class who have denounced ministers for meddling with politics, as described above, and who have left meetings, now feign themselves as hungry for the Word of Life. They may say in public that Slavery must be let alone; that the Fugitive Slave Act is a law and must be obeyed; they may attend political conventions, if they are of the Democratic party; but farther than these they must not go. If any know of some such out of employ, will they not send them this way, that these few bleating sheep scattered here and there without a shepherd, may get something to sustain their poor famishing souls? &c.

A Touching Custom.—A common custom in Paris, which impresses a stranger favorably, is that of lifting or taking off the hat when a funeral passes. A writer on this subject relates the following: "Some years since, we were one of that rushing crowd ever pouring up Broadway. When in front of old St. Paul's, all eyes were attracted by the appearance of the crew of the French war vessel, La Belle Poule, which then visited the United States under the command of the Prince de Joinville. The crew were in their naval uniform, bright and beautiful, and were sauntering along seeing sights. "All at once they stopped and formed a line, faced inward, and uncovered. How exquisite and touching was the scene when we discovered in that thoughtless, busy, hurrying crowd, a man of foreign birth, evidently poor and friendless, under whose arm was a tiny coffin, and by his side the stricken mother. They were in search of a burial place for their babe, and were jostled and unheeded in that gay torrent of humanity, until they met those hardy, tempest-tossed mariners, who on the instant, with bare heads, stood in silent respect, while the sacred ashes of the unknown infant were passing. Such are French manners."

The newspaper is a law book for the indigent, a sermon for the thoughtful, the most indifferent, it may also instruct the most profound.

War Declared at Last. THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the rattle of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their fides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the aggressions of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Olean, formerly occupied by Tilling & Brother, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogysism that has so long established in this section.

Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods: Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Caskets, Oil Cloths, Drugs, Medicines, Gyle Sticks, Glass, Paints & Oils, Sash, Putty, Chairs, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Feathers, Stone and Wooden Ware, And we mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good. Call and see for yourselves. N. S. BUTLER & CO. Olean, May 5, 1854. 6-5f

HYGENIA.

Brought Home to the Door of the Million. A Wonderful Discovery has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of Philadelphia, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygenia, or Inhaling Hygienic Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician says: "It is evident that inhaling constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arid cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygenia is for sale at the druggists' through out the country."

N. Y. Dutchman, Jan. 14. The Inhaler is worn on the breast, under the linen without the least inconspicuousness—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.

Hundreds of cases of cures like the following might be named. One package of the Hygenia has cured me of the Asthma of six years standing. Jas. F. Keecherry, P. M., Danecannon, Pa. I am cured of the Asthma of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygenia. Margaret Eastman, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Paul of No. 5 Manumott st., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygenia.

My sister had been cured of a distressing cough of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her physicians. She was cured in one month by the Hygenia. J. H. Gubert, P. M., Richmond, Me.

S. M. KNIGHT, Attorney for Government Claimants, Washington, D. C. CONTINUES to give prompt and personal attention to the presentation of Claims of every description against the Government, and particularly to those before the Treasury Department, Pension and Bounty-Land, Bounties, Patent and General Land Offices; and Board of Claims.

An experience of years, and a familiarity with the means of obtaining the earliest and most favorable action on Claims, with his facilities for the dispatch of business, justify him in assuring his Correspondents, Claimants, and the Public generally, that interests intrusted to his keeping will not be neglected.

PENSION, BOUNTY LAND, PATENT, AND PUBLIC LAND LAWS.

He has nearly ready, for gratuitous distribution among his business Correspondents, (and those who may become such,) a neat pamphlet containing a synopsis of the existing Pension, Bounty Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws, down to the end of the late Congress—including the Act of MARCH 3, 1855, under which all who have heretofore received less than 160 acres are now entitled to additional land; said Act grants also 160 acres to all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Chaplains, Soldiers, Wagon Masters, Teamsters, and friendly Indians, of the Army, including State Troops, Volunteers, and Militia—and all Officers, Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines, Clerks, and Landsmen, of the Navy, not heretofore provided for, who have served not less than fourteen days (unless in battle) at any period since 1776; and to the widows and minor children of all such persons entitled, and deceased.

This pamphlet contains "Forms of Application" more full and complete than any elsewhere to be found; adapted to the wants of every class of Claimants under the Act, with copious decisions and instructions of the Department, and practical suggestions as to the course to be pursued in suspended or rejected cases.

Parties not wishing to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by this Office in securing prompt and personal superintendance of their claims at the Department, can obtain copies of the above pamphlet, by retaining thirty cents in postage stamps.

INDUCEMENTS TO CORRESPONDENTS. Correspondents who prepare and forward cases for management by this Agency will be dealt with liberally; supplied with an necessary blanks gratis, and kept constantly advised of the changes that from time to time occur in the execution of the laws.

Premium Fanning Mills. Important to Farmers and Mechanics. THE subscriber has purchased of J. Bimborough the right to use in Potter and McKean counties his patent in the construction of Fanning Mills. He has also, at great expense, commenced the manufacture of a PREMIUM MILL, which will clean from 100 to 200 bushels per hour. This Mill was patented March 20, 1847, since which time it has stood at the head of the list at all the State and county agricultural societies where it has been exhibited, and is a universal favorite with all farmers who have tried it. It took the premium at the first Agricultural Fair held at Harrisburg, Oct. 31st, 1851, when there were 30,000 people present; and at the great State Agricultural Fair at New-York, held at Rochester Sept. 16-19, 1851, this Fanning Mill received the highest honors.

Having met with uniform success wherever tried, I confidently invite the farmers of Potter and McKean counties to call at my shop in Coudersport and examine for themselves.
