

STRONG ENOUGH
"Why is it, my son, that when you let your bread and butter drop, it is always buttered side down?"
"I don't know. It hadn't oughter, had it? The strongest side ought to be uppermost, hadn't it, ma? and this is the strongest butter I ever seed in all my life."
"Hush; it's some of your aunt's burning."
"Did she churn it?" Why, the the great lazy thing!"
"What, your aunt?"
"No, this yere rank butter. To make that poor foolish churn; it's strong and rank enough to churn itself."
"Re still, Zeb, it only wants working over."
"Well, marm, if I was you, when I did it, I'd put in lots and gobs of lasses."
"You good for nothing! I've eaten a great deal worse in the most aristocratic New-York boarding houses."
"Well, all great people of rank ought to eat it."
"Why?"
"Cause it's rank butter."
"You yurmit you! What makes you talk so smart?"
"The butter's taking the skin off my tongue, mother."
"Zeb, don't lie. I can't throw away the butter."
"I tell you what I'd do with it, marm—I'd keep it to draw blisters. You ought to see the flies keel over and die as soon as they touch it."

Mr. PARK'S LETTER.—Read the mainy letter of Mr. Geo. S. Park, whose printing establishment was destroyed at Parkville by a mob of Missouri slaveholders. How honorably does his conduct contrast with the race of servile editors in the free States, who dare not wag their tongues or pens against the lawless and ruffianly proceedings of the Missouri marauders! So completely are the great mass of the sham Democratic papers sold to do the dirty work of the slavery propagandists, that when Gov. REEDER, a man chosen from the ranks of the party by their own President, to look after the interests of Kansas, returns and publicly declares that the laws are powerless, that Kansas is invaded and conquered by an armed mob from Missouri, they dare not give him a hearing before their readers; who would be entirely ignorant of the scenes transpiring in that territory, only for the information they derive through other sources! And yet these servile profess to conduct free presses!—Mercur Freeman.

DRESS.—The honorable Miss Murray, sister of a Scotch Duke, and maid of honor to Queen Victoria, has been staying for some days in New-York: Miss Murray is a lady of fine person, robust health, and uncommon energy of character—aged about 35 years. Her frank and cordial manners, her intelligence, and her great kindness of heart, secured her many friends. She appears, however, to have been struck with amazement at the extravagant expenditure, the helplessness, and the ill health of that unfortunate class of beings, the fashionable women of our cities. Miss Murray, like the fashionable women of Europe, dresses so plainly that it probably costs her less to dress one year, than many a New-York lady expends for half a dozen handkerchiefs. It is a settled thing in Europe, that extravagance in dress is the very extreme of vulgarity, and is never indulged in except by those whose only claim to distinction is the length of their purse.

An old farmer, who feared neither God nor man, had hired a devout negro, and to get some Sunday work out of him, he would always plan a case of "necessity" on Saturday, and on Sunday would put that point to the man's conscience. One morning old Sambo proved refractory; "he would work no more on Sundays." The master then argued with him that it was a "case of necessity, and that the Scriptures allowed a man to get out of the pit on the Sabbath day, a beast that had fallen in." "Yes, massa," rejoined the black, "but not if he spend Saturday in digging de pit for de very purpose."

SETTLING AN ESTATE.—The Omaha Indians have a novel way of settling the estate of a deceased person where there are no legal heirs to the property. The people en masse are notified to meet at a given time and place, at which they resolve themselves into a court. The property is exhibited, and all who desire to be heirs of the property stand forth, and at a given signal enter upon a race to a goal a mile distant. The first one back is the legal heir.

INK STAINS.—Housewives who are horrified at the sight of ugly ink-stains, will like to get hold of a receipt for removing them. The Buffalo Republic says: "The moment the ink is spilled, take a little milk and saturate the stain, soak it up with a rag and apply a little more milk, rubbing it well in. In a few minutes the ink will be completely removed."

Bloomers.—The Kansas Tribune says, Perhaps Lawrence is the only city in America where a majority of the ladies wear Bloomers. During a pleasant day they may be seen in all parts of our enterprising place—not walking out for the novelty of the thing, but making calls and pursuing their ordinary avocations, without even suspecting that their custom was attracting unusual attention; and, indeed, it does not. The ladies consider them far more convenient than the street-sweeper; and they ought to be the best judges.

The editor of a newspaper down east, has been bled to improve the circulation of his paper.

The young lady in Paris, who lately made her fortieth ascent in a balloon, has certainly a taste for moving in the upper circles.

War Declared at Last.
THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the rattle of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their liberties and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the enormous hosts of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.
In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Ocean, formerly occupied by Thing & Brother, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods, adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogyism that has been so long established in this section.
Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods:
Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, Hats, Caps, Carpets, Carriages, Oil Cloths, Drugs, Medicines, Dye Stuffs, Glass, Paints & Oils, Sash, Putty, Chairs, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Feathers, Stone and Wooden Ware, &c. &c.
And we mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good Gull and see for yourselves. N. S. BUTLER & CO. Ocean, May 6, 1854. 6-51

HYGENA.
Brought Home to the Door of the Million.
A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician says: "It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arid cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygeana is for sale at the druggists' through out the country."
N. Y. Dutchman, Jan. 14.
The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.
Hundreds of cases of cures like the following might be named. One package of the Hygeana has cured me of the Asthma of six years standing.
Jas. F. Keesherry, P. M., Duncannon, Pa. I am cured of the Asthma of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.
Margaret McDonald, Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. Paul, No. 5 Manumond-st., N. Y. was cured of a severe case of Bronchitis by the Hygeana.
My sister had been cured of a distressing cough of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her physicians. She was cured in one month by the Hygeana.
J. H. Gault, P. M., Richmond, Me. Price Three Dollars a Package.—Sold by CURTIS, PERKINS & BOYD & PAUL, No. 149 Chambers-st., N. Y.—4 Packages sent free by express to any part of the United States for Ten Dollars.
N. B.—Dr. Curtis' Hygeana is the original and only genuine article, and all others are base imitations or vile and injurious counterfeits. Shun them as you would poison.
Sold by Russell & Scott, No. 138 Market street, Philadelphia, who will sell by the dozen at the Proprietors' rates.

TO OFFICERS, SOLDIERS, SEAMEN, &c., OF ALL WARS: THEIR WIDOWS, AND MINOR CHILDREN.
S. M. KNIGHT, Attorney for Government Claimants, Washington, D. C., CONTINUES to give prompt and personal attention to the prosecution of Claims of every description against the Government, and particularly to those before the Treasury Department, Pension and Bounty-Land Bureau, Patent and General Land Offices, and Board of Claims.
An experience of years, and a familiarity with the means of obtaining the earliest and most favorable action on Claims, with his facilities for the dispatch of business, justify him in assuring his Correspondents, Claimants, and the Public generally, that interests entrusted to his keeping will not be neglected.
PENSION, BOUNTY LAND, PATENT, AND PUBLIC LAND LAWS.
He has nearly ready, for gratuitous distribution among his business Correspondents, (and those who may become such,) a neat pamphlet containing a synopsis of the existing Pension, Bounty Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws, down to the end of the late Congress—including the Act of MARCH 3, 1855, under which all who have heretofore received less than 160 acres are now entitled to additional land; said Act grants also 160 acres to all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Chaplains, Soldiers, Wagon Masters, Teamsters, and friendly Indians, of the Army, including State Troops, Volunteers, and Militia—and all Officers, Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines, Clerks, and Landmen, of the Navy, not heretofore provided for, who have served not less than fourteen days (unless in battle) at any period since 1776; and to the widows and minor children of all such persons entitled, and deceased.
This pamphlet contains "Forms of Application" more full and complete than any elsewhere to be found; adapted to the wants of every class of Claimants under the Act, with copious decisions and instructions of the Department, and practical suggestions as to the course to be pursued in suspended or rejected cases.
Parties not wishing to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by this Office in securing prompt and personal superintendence of their claims at the Departments, can obtain copies of the above pamphlet by remitting thirty cents in postage stamps.
INDUCEMENTS TO CORRESPONDENTS.
Correspondents who prepare and forward cases for management by this Agency will be dealt with liberally; supplied with all necessary blanks gratis, and kept constantly advised of the changes that from time to time occur in the execution of the law.
It is within the subscriber's power to direct his Correspondents to the locality of very many persons entitled under the Act, and having obtained several thousand Land Warrants under former laws, he is in possession of data that will materially assist in securing additional bounty.
Fees, below the usual rates—and contingent upon the amount of Claims.
The highest cash prices given for Land Warrants, Revolutionary Scrips, and Illinois Land Patents. S. M. KNIGHT, Washington, D. C. Address 46-37

Premium Fanning Mills.
Important to Farmers and Mechanics.
THE subscriber has purchased of J. B. Bamforth the right to use in Potter and McKean counties his patent in the construction of Fanning Mills. He has also, at great expense, commenced the manufacture of a PREMIUM MILL which will clean from 100 to 200 bushels per hour. This Mill was patented March 20, 1847, since which time it has stood at the head of the list at all the State and county agricultural societies where it has been exhibited, and is a universal favorite with all farmers who have tried it. It took the premium at the first Agricultural Fair held at Harrisburg, Oct. 31st, 1851, when there were 30,000 people present; and at the great State Agricultural Fair at New-York, held at Rochester Sept. 16-19, 1851, this Fanning Mill received the highest honors.
