

For the Journal. Messrs. Editors:—In compliance with a proposition of the Journal of the 10th, I enclose the following. The local news of this place is not important nor of especial interest. Our farmers are busily engaged in finishing up haying. The produce of this township exceeds that of any previous year, by nearly or quite double. Harrison has at the present time a large amount of surplus produce. If the fall is favorable, corn will be a fair crop. The cry of hard times is ceasing, and business prospects are becoming more favorable. Our farmers have many of them threshed their wheat, and find themselves amply provided for their labors. H. M. White has threshed about 350 bushels from a new fallow put in last fall. Our farmers here are beginning to arouse themselves to a more thorough and systematic course of cultivation, and some improvement is commencing in selecting and breeding stock. Harrison has the elements of a wealthy township, and we are gratified to know that her citizens begin to understand these advantages, and develop the agricultural resources. Our banker friends are very scarce in this part of the town; their Vigilance Committee man turns up a full headed free soiler and refuses any allegiance to hunkerism. Our free soil friends are here ready for action. The friends of freedom may rely on a large majority from this town unless I much mistake present indications. N. Harrison Valley, Aug. 23.

The above letter is just what we needed. Accept our thanks, and if convenient let us know how many acres of wheat were harvested in Harrison township the past season and what is the estimated number of bushels raised.

For the Journal. I have the following statement from a reliable source: A farmer in Troy township, Bradford Co., Pa., sowed twelve acres of new fallow ground last fall, with Sade's wheat, from which he has harvested and sold 460 bushels of wheat, being 38 1/2 bushels to the acre. L. Burr. Aug. 29, 1855.

Encouraging a Slaveholder. If I had had a candid notice of the Herald and its Herald, from which we take the following extract:

"I have begun the publication of the Herald. He had scarcely any capital, no credit, no friends, no party. But he took his trade, and he took his public. His object was to publish every number something which should make people talk about the Herald—something outrageously impudent, or silly, or obscene, or abusive. No subject was sacred, for he believed no man was safe. He had no friends. He always had the knack of making his readers laugh, and the floating population of a city, and could be made to laugh very easily. The trick succeeded. People bought the Herald just to see what the fellow had to say," and the Herald flourished.

On the 16th ult an engine was run for the first time on the Mississippi Railroad, the eastern terminus of which is at Davenport. This is the first time that a locomotive has been put in operation in the State of Iowa.

"The hypocrite pays tribute to God, that he may impose on men."

Very Important Information. Dr. Jones, one of the most celebrated physicians in New York, writes as follows: "Dear Sir:—Having witnessed the remarkable effects of your Hygeana or Strychnia Vapor and Cherry Syrup, I have the honor to inform you, that I have used each in a number of cases, and in all of them, with the most successful results, and I can therefore cheerfully recommend your Hygeana and Cherry Syrup, as being the most valuable and efficient mode of applying any of the kind I have ever seen. No doubt the friends of persons may be relieved, and cured by using your remedies." Yours truly, Dr. J. W. SPENCER, No. 609 Houston street, New-York.

Dr. Jones writes as follows: "I have recently had occasion to use your Cherry Syrup and Hygeana Vapor in the case of a chronic sore throat, that had resisted all other forms of treatment, and the result has satisfied me, that whatever may be the composition of your preparation, it is no impoison, but an excellent remedy. I wish, for the sake of the afflicted, that it might be brought within the reach of all." Rev. Doctor CHURCH, New-York, Nov. 15, 1855.

Dear Sir:—I think highly of Dr. Curtis's Hygeana, as a remedy in diseases of the throat and lungs. Having had some opportunity to test its efficacy, I am convinced that it is a most excellent medicine, both the Syrup and the Inhalant application to the chest. The Hygeana is for sale by D. W. SPENCER, Coudersport.

Messrs. Editors:—As the result of the present wheat harvest is generally ascertained throughout the county, which proves entirely satisfactory, I will give you the account of wheat raising in this part of the county. Mr. Wordin of this place sowed two acres to winter wheat last fall, and the present harvest he got sixty bushels, after some loss in harvesting by its being lodged. Can any of the wheat growers beat that? J. L. W. Pleasant Valley, Aug. 24, 1855.
