THE GRASSHOPPERS SOLVE THE MORMON

God's Providence is seemingly disposing of a political question, already much debated throughout the Republic, and threatening to be of distracting interest in the future. Statesmen will probably be saved the trouble of Hills flung the cry to hills around,
And ocean-mar, replied to mart.
And streams whose springs were yet unfound, the Mormon policy. The grasshoppers have them in charge, and are rasping and eating a solution right through them. . The Salt Lake Valley is but a cluster of oases in a desert. The surveying engineers of the States' army have reported that there are but four hundred square miles of arable land in all the Basin. This is in separate tracts, with intervals of desert, and is confined to the streams of water that descend from the mountains. To be cultivated, the soil of Utah has to be sub- Mein-street, Comerspore, Ta jected to artificial irrigation.

Agriculture is the basis of the prosperity and of the life, indeed, of a State. Notwithstanding the industrial training of the Mormons-notwithstanding their indomitable courage, and all the great excellencies of the stock of which they are deriveddeficiency of crops and positive want of food, must inevitably be the incidents of their life in the Salt Lake Valley, with longer or shorter intervals of recurrence. Brought Home to the Door of the Million. A Wondereut Discovery has recently heen made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all discuses of the Lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has inunmerable certificates. Speaking of the treat-ment a physician says: It is evident that inbaling-constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the who e of the arial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon their when in reduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion.
