From the Onondaga Gazette.

THE BLOODY CODE OF DRACO REVIVED.

The House of Representatives of the Territory of Kansas, passed, on the 10th of August, the following law in relation to slave property. We thought when the Fugitive Slave Bill was enacted, that the Devil had done his utmost; but it seems that his powers of invention have been wonderfully sharpened within the last five years, and that his infernal imagination is yet prolific in originating laws to protect slavery, to which his myrmidons are prompt to attach the requisite legal sanctions. On reflection, however, we do not know but that we should beg the Devil's pardon for what we have just written, and place the responsibility on his superiors in villany, Atchison and Stringfellow. Here is the law:

AN ACT TO PUNISH OFFENSES AGAINST SLAVERY.

1. Every person, bond or free, convicted of raising a rebellion of slaves, free negroes, or mulattoes, shall suffer death.

2. Every free person who shall aid in any rebellion of slaves, &c., or do any overt act in furtherance thereof—shall suffer death.

3. If any free person shall, by speaking, writing, or printing, advise, induce, &c., any slaves to rebel, conspire against, or murder any citizen of Kansas, or shall import or aid in importing such documents, he shall suffer death.

4. If any person shall entice, decoy, or carry out of Kansas, any slave belonging to another, with intent to deprive the owner thereof of the services of such slave, he shall suffer death, or be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than ten years.

5. If any person shall assist in enticing, &c., (as above,) he shall suffer death, or be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than five years.

6. If any person shall entice or carry away out of any State or Territory of the United States, any slave, &c., and shall bring such slave into this Territory, &c., he shall suffer death, or be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than ten years.

7. If any person shall entice any slave to escape from the service of his master or owner, &c., or shall aid any slave in escaping, &c., he shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than five years.

8. If any person in this Territory shall aid or harbor any escaped slaves from any State, &c., such person shall be punished in like manner as in such slave had escaped from his master in this Territory.

9. If any person shall resist an officer while attempting to arrest any slave, &c., or shall rescue such slave, or aid such slave to escape from the officer—the person so offending shall be imprisoned at hard labor for not less than ten years.

10. If any marshal, sheriff, or constable, or the deputy of such officers, shall, when required, refuse to aid or assist in the recapture of any slave who may have escaped, such officers shall be fined not less than $500 or more than $1000.

11. If any person print, write, or introduce into, publish, or circulate, or cause to be brought into, printed, written, published or circulated, or shall knowingly aid or assist in bringing into, printing or circulating within this Territory any book, paper, &c., containing any argument, doctrine, &c., calculated to produce a disaffection among the slaves of this Territory—he shall be punished by imprisonment at hard labor for not less than five years.

12. If any free person, by speaking or by writing, sign, or in any way, that persons have no right to hold slaves in this territory, or shall introduce into Kansas, print, publish, write, circulate, or cause to be introduced into the Territory any book, printed, published, or circulated by any Abolitionist, Freesoiler, or other party, any book, paper, magazine, pamphlet, or circular, containing any denial of the rights of persons to hold slaves in this Territory, such persons shall be deemed guilty of felony, and punished by imprisonment at hard labor for a term not less than two years.

13. No person who is conscientiously opposed to holding slaves shall be allowed to sit as a juror on the trial of any prosecution for any violation or attempt of the provisions of these acts.

Approved September 14, 1855.

Without specially calling attention to the other sections of this "catalogue of abominations," will our readers please carefully to read and consider the 15th? Here is neither more nor less than making a difference of opinion on a constitutional question a penitentiary offense. It makes the prison and the gallows the arbiters of constitutional law, without the possibility of an appeal to judiciary, and the human mind must travel within the limits prescribed by a body of self-constituted legislators, in comparison with whom, so far as morality and humanity are concerned, it would be a base libel on a band of pirates to class them in the same moral category.

But there is one blessed consolation connected with all this—and that is, that the slave power is in a fair way to acquire the necessary amount of hemp with which to make a grand suicide one of these days! The destruction of a few more free presses—the carrying of a few more elections with the pistol and the Bowie-knife—the murder of a few more men who may dare withstand the monster—and the passage of a few more such laws, and a spirit will be aroused amongst the people, that can never be laid or quieted, until every vestige of southern oppression is swept from the land, as with the besom of destruction. God speed the day.

Mr. Dunn Brown remarked the other day, that it was all very well to say "never go to law," but what was a fellow to do when the law came to him! Mr. Brown's observation was called forth by an oblong piece of paper with which an officer of justice had favored him. There is a great deal of force in Mr. Brown's way of putting the question.

Without sorrow life would be no better than a dream; grief is a reality, and though bitter as wormwood, mortals love it, for it makes them feel themselves, and know the value of each other.

War Declared at Last.

THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the reveille of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their firesides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means; and rousing forward their armies to battle against the aggressions of the Russian Bear; but while the Old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Olean, formerly occupied by Thing & Brother, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogyism that has been so long established in this section.

Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods:

Hardware,	Crockery,	Boots & Shoes,
Hats,	Caps,	Carpets,
Oil Cloths,	Drugs,	Medicines,
Dye Stuffs,	Glass,	Paints & Oils,
Sash,	Putty,	Chairs,
Bedsteads,	Mattrasses,	Feathers

Stone and Wooden Ware,

And we mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good. Call and see for yourselves.

HYGEANA.

Brought Home to the Door of the Million.

A WONDERFUL DISCOVERY has recently been made by Dr. Curtis, of this city, in the treatment of Consumption, Asthma, and all diseases of the Lung. We refer to "Dr. Curtis' Hygeana, or Inhaling Hygean Vapor and Cherry Syrup." With this new method Dr. C. has restored many afflicted ones to perfect health; as an evidence of which he has innumerable certificates. Speaking of the treatment a physician says: It is evident that inhaling—constantly breathing an agreeable, healing vapor, the medicinal properties must come in direct contact with the whole of the arial cavity of the lungs, and thus escape the many and varied changes produced upon them when introduced into the stomach, and subjected to the process of digestion. The Hygena is for sale at the druggists' through out the country.

N. Y. Dutchman, Jan. 14.

The Inhaler is worn on the breast under the linen without the least inconvenience—the heat of the body being sufficient to evaporate the fluid.

Hundreds of cases of cures like the following might be named. One package of the Hygena has cured me of the Asthma of six years standing.

Jas. F. Keesberry, P. M., Duncannon, Pa.

I am cured of the Asthma of 10 years standing by Dr. Curtis' Hygeana.

Margaret Eastman, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Paul of No. 6 Mammond st., N. Y., was cured of a severe case of Bronchetis by the Hygeana.

My sister had been cured of a distressing cough of several years standing, and decided to be incurable by her physicians. She was cured in one month by the Hygeana.

Price Three Dollars a Package.—Sold by CURTIS & PERKINS & BOYD & PAUL, No. 149 Chambers st., N. Y.—4 Packages sent free by express to any part of the United States for Ten Dollars.

N. B.—Dr. Curtis' Hygeana is the original and only genuine article, and all others are base imitations or vile and injurious counterfeits. Shun them as you would poison.

He has nearly ready, for gratuitous distribution among his business Correspondents, (and those who may become such,) a neat pamphlet containing a synopsis of the existing Pension, Bounty Land, Patent, and Public Land Laws, down to the end of the late Congress—including the under which all who have heretofore received less than 160 acres are now entitled to additional land; said Act grants also 160 acres to all Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, Chaplains, Soldiers, Wagon Masters, Teamsters, and friendly Indians, of the Army, including State Troops, Volunteers, and Militia—and all Officers, Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, Marines, Clerks, and Landsmen, of the Navy, not heretofore provided for, who have served not less than fourteen days (unless in battle) at any period since 1790; and to the widows and minor children of all such persons entitled, and deceased.

This pamphlet contains "Forms of Application" more full and complete than any elsewhere to be found; adapted to the wants of every class of Claimants under the Act, with copious decisions and instructions of the Department, and practical suggestions as to the course to be pursued in suspended or rejected cases.

Parties not wishing to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by this Office in securing prompt and personal superintendence of their claims at the Departments, can obtain copies of the above pamphlet by remitting thirty cents in post-age stamps.

Premium Fanning Mills.

Important to Farmers and Mechanics.

THE subscriber has purchased of J. Bassett, of Cattaraugus county, New-York, the right to use in Potter and M'Kean counties his patent in the construction of Fanning Mills. He has also at great expense, commenced the manufacture of a FIRST-RATE MILL which will clean from 100 to 200 bushels per hour. This Mill was patented March 20, 1851, since which time it has stood at the head of the list at the State and county agricultural shows where it has been exhibited, and is a universal favorite with all farmers who have tried it. It took the premium at the first Agricultural Fair held at Harrisburg, Oct. 31st, 1851, when there were 30,000 people present; and at the great State Agricultural Fair at New-York, held at Rochester Sept. 16-19, 1851, this Fanning Mill received the highest honors.

Having met with unusual success wherever tried, I confidently invite the farmers of Potter and M'Kean counties to call at my shop in Coudersport and examine for themselves.

A supply always on hand, to be sold on reasonable terms.
