difthere is anything that has grieved us, it is the fact that our democracy is rapidly losing sight of its " first priusiples," and that it suffers such men as Cass and Douglass to angraft upon the party platform the rankest heresies.

"Popular sovereignty" is said to be the corner-stone of democracy. We emphatically deny it, in the sense Cuss uses it. The corner-stone of Jefferschian, Jackson radical State's rights strict construction democracy and the g eat master-key to all its rules of action is that vital principle which was born in I h ladelphia with the Declaration of Judependence-that principle consists in a denial of absolute p wer in government, be it republican or monarchical. Jefferson, and every true demograt, is above forms of government. The vital spark of democratic thought and democratic feeling is the assertion of the supremacy of sight over might, and of the further as section that the rights of man are not granted by government, but that they

What an absurdity is it in Cass to persist in the dictrine that the people of Kansas are to settle the slavery question-a question which many file n ls of the country must regard as settled eighty years ago. What heresy to propose and to argue that either the rights of property or man's inalienable rights are to be periodically spitled through ballot boxes, as may be the whim of popular feeling. The South-we mean the honest, radical State-rights portion-is right, when ley agreet that the question is settled. and M'Kean counties. All business entrusted to his care win receive prompt attention. We say so, too! But not for slavery, as they claim-we claim it is settled for freedom! The very proposition to take a vote in Kansas on the quession involves the fact that it makes it ary in Condersport, to do all manner of Castan onen question, and therein lies the an open question, and therein lies the treason to freedom.

"Limits to power" is the demogratic motto not who shall rule, but how far shall you rule, is the democratic inquiry. The democrat asserts perior might, but never by right. To acmit that popular sovereignty can atablich slavery as a right, involves the admi sion, that every man in New York is free only by the grace of poj plar sovereignty, and that our Know-Nothings might, if in a majority, rightfully make slaves of our lish and from a democrat!

A gentleman was called upon to apologize for words uttered in

"I beg pardon," said he; I did not mean to say what I did; but I have .bad the misfortune to lose some of my front teeth, and words get out every now and then without my knowing a word about it.

He was going on, when a frend pulled him down by the cost tail, say-

"Don't say one word more; never was there a better apology. If y u add a word more, you'll spoil it completely."

J. BLOOMINGDALE, Principal. The undersigned Officers and Trustees of the Coudersport Academy are moved by a sense of official and personal duty, to call the attention of the public, and of the people of our county in particular, to the rising and useful character of this institution of learning.

When we invited the present worthy Principal to the post he occupies, we found the Academy depressed and deciming. We submixed its organization and other most onerous affairs to his discretion and management; and our experience enables us with increased confidence to assure parents and guardians that he has proved faultful, efficient, and practical nust such an instructor as this community needs.
