PEACE AND THE PEACE SOCIETY.

This will be thought a poor time for homilies on peace. And such it is unquestionably. But we may soberly ask, was there ever a good time? Has not peace always been crowded out of the world by wars and rumors of wars? It is true, Sevastopol is now the rage, and the Eastern war is the all-absorbing topic of news: but this is no singularity in this world's history. Destruction and misery have always marked the path of poor, fallen human nature, and the way of peace it has not known.

We'd not intend, however, to give Our object is to call attention to the "Advocate of Peace," a little unpretending, but most excellent monthly, which now as ever hails from the American Peace Society's office, 21 Carabill, Boston. It comes regularly to our table, with an instanment of mose precious peace doctrines which the Savior brought down from heaven -it shines meekly, serenely, steadily like a star in the vaulted skies. Since the Eastern tragedy opened upon u. this periodical has been more welco.. e than usual. In these troublous times, when savage, beastly diplomacy h s MANN'S. when savage, beastly diplomacy h s s fain set the world in commotion, and let site t. o dogs of war, it is good to commune with spirits intelligent enough to know the right, and boid wrong. We are gratified that even one of our periodicals pleads for peace, and will not be seduced into a belief that war is justifiable. We commend ! this work to our readers as a suitable antidote to the infection of the current war news. Send your fitty cents to Cornhill, and get the Advocate of Peace, if you wish to hate more in-tensely than ever the wickedness of MANN'S. Peace, if you wish to hate more in-

Underlying the peace decirine is the word of God which cannot fair, and though the dm of war may drows the sense of men for a time, and render-them callous to the truth. vet still the truth remains. Ali the better interests of mankind center in the teachings of the gospel on this subject. War is a scourge which makes a nation bleed at every pore. It's mi cries are absolutely inconceivable.

It is estimated that the war in the East has cost the lives of five hundred thought and a mann state of the Mann s. mi eries are absolutely inconcervable. san lauman beings, and in nearly every one of these instances the most tender nes were broken-these men stood in the relation of fathers, husbands, and sons; they had mothers, wives, and SHEETINGS and Shirtings, a good sisters. Only tank of the tears at Starrety, at MANN'S. purting, of the auxieties during the comparish, and the now desolated SUGARS, Teas, Coffee, Ginger, Pephearth-tones of these numerous slain.
