The re-election of Erastus Brooks bindest of sectarion bigots and most inveterate of Silver-Gray Whigs.-Wahaut wi-hing to say one word in first of I John, we can't see much to chaise between the men. One is a Caholic bigot, the other is a Prostespot light

John contends that the Bible Eald not be put in the hands of the misses, neither should it be introduced pio our common schools. And this because, as he primarily alleges, the pusses are not capable of interpreting de Book aright ; and that would lead pecaisms innumerable-endless quarreleaborst nothing ; and is evidence of this he p dats you to the Protestant September, 1856. wirld.

Mr. Brooks contends that the Bible thould be free to the masses and the priesthand, alike. That is : he is in fiver of a General reading of the Bible ; follows: provided, tiat everybody interprets it to favor his dog uas. Mr. Brooks is in favor of Bible Societies for sendi g the Scriptures to the heathen in di tant parts of the world; and at the same ume he is in favor of holding 4.000,equ of ne gross in boudage in this Re public, and under law . which make it peaul offense to teach one of those plates to read the Bible So much for the consistency of Mr. Brooks .-Weleboro Agitator.

When the Court re-assembled in Philadelphia, Julge Kine and his friends had an inteniew with our Julges, and commuriested to them the fact that the President had ordered the United States Marshal, in case the Court should ditert the wait to issue, to remove Wilhamson from Moyamensing to a United States receiving ship, and defend him there, with United Stated in u ives and solliers against any furce the Some might send to take him. The a centor presented to our Judges wis. whether it was pruleat to risk the threatened collision I I am sorry to ny that they thought it was not.---They had not the nerve to stand up for State Rights. Judges Lowrie and Woodward changed their opinious and the writ of habeascorpur was not is acd. The tureat-for it was a threat-should have been an incentive to as issue, instead of the pusil mimous coarse adopted; for the que tion of Site Rights has got to be settled, and s was the opportunity he needed .-is this true! If it is not, the H motable Judges owe it to them alves explicitly and positively to contradict it in some form. The people of this Commonweath are lenient to mistakes and errors, when they are inadvectently and houestly committed. But they mike no apology, and accept of no exrun for wrong acts committed under the judguence of promises, or fears, or threats. We should like to know if President Pierce had the efficientery rid the sud wity to threaten, that " the United States Marshal, in case the Court should direct the writ to issue, should be ordered to remove Williamion from Moyamensing to a United States receiving ship, and defoud him there, against any force the State might send to take bim." Is this true ! That's what we want to know ! And is it true that Judges Woodward and Lowrie cowed before this threat a id changed their minds? That's what We want especially to know .- Philacelphia Sun.
