

TEARS.

At this time of year, when the leaves have fallen from the trees; when everything in Nature wears a more gloomy and gloomy aspect, how apt we are to fall into a train of melancholy reflections on subjects, which these changes suggest.

At this hour how sweet it is to hold silent converse with one's own heart, and to feel the overflowing but unexpressed sympathy of our nature in the possession of our souls.

The tone of our mind is changed in a moment, and shivering with cold, the mother whose husband is a drunkard, and as a consequence whose children are beggars; she comes and weeps and wails and laments, till the agonizing feelings of grief or shame

Tears were wept by the Saviour—tears of sympathy and condolence; then should we be allowed to weep? There will be sorrows and joys, happiness and misery, pleasure and pain, and as long as these exist there will be tears for each.

From the Money Luminary.

As John B. Beck is talking of contesting the election, it is wondered, whether he will have the firmness to explain to him it comes that there are five or six men in Barstow township, in this county, who are willing to swear that they voted for Caldwell and McGhee, and yet these gentlemen did not a losing vote in that township according to the returns; and it is also wondered what disposition he will make of the following statement in the Jersey Shore Vedette, made by a correspondent, in reference to signing the oaths by the election Board in the same township.

The oath of John Steinhilch, inspector, is not subscribed by him, but by Matthias Boyer; oath of Adam Richard, inspector, by Matthias Bier; oaths of Jacob Richard and Thos. B. Simpson, clerks, by Matthias Bier; and oath of Matthias Bier, judge, by Adam Richard. The names of Adam Richard, Adam Richard, Matthias Boyer, and Matthias Bier are in the same handwriting in the signatures and filling up of the printed oaths.

The charitable conclusion is that a board of such blunderers might naturally conclude that they were to return merely the votes on the Democratic side.

NEBRASKA ELECTION.

It seems to be conceded that Hiram P. Bennett, of Nebraska City, is elected Delegate to Congress by 16 majority. The election may be contested on account of persons voting who lived on land belonging to the Indians, which is said to be illegal.

"NORTHMAN FANATICISM."—The people of Boston have contributed $6,210 15 to relieve the sufferers at Norfolk, Va., in Virginia; $500 was given by the tenants of Fenwick Hall market. Will the Virginia delegation in the next Congress remember this, while denouncing Massachusetts and the Union of the York?

COUDERSPORT ACADEMY.

THE Trustees of this Institution take pleasure in announcing to the Public that they have engaged the services of the Rev. J. HENDRICK, as Principal. This gentleman comes to us well recommended as being able, talented, and experienced. He has been engaged in teaching a large share of the time for sixteen years; and from among the large number of his pupils, about 500 have gone out from under his instructions, as teachers in different parts of the country. It will be his object to make our Academy one of the most desirable schools in the country, for those who wish to qualify themselves for teaching or other responsible positions in life, and also for those who desire to prepare for college.

THE WINTER TERM.

Will commence on Monday, December 2d, 1855. The Academic year will be divided into Four Terms, of seven weeks each term. The Spring Term will commence on Monday, February 25, 1856; the Summer Term will commence on Monday, May 20th, 1856; and the Fall Term on Monday, the 1st day of September, 1856.

TERMS.

Table with 3 columns: Course, Tuition per term of seven weeks as follows, and Additional fees. Courses include Mental Arithmetic, Common English branches, Higher English Branches, Higher Mathematics, Latin and Greek Languages, and Piano Music.

Payment strictly in advance. All scholars who can write legibly, will be required to present an original Composition once in two weeks; and all male scholars to do so once in one week.

Though the Terms of instruction are considerably lower than they have been heretofore, yet it is designed that the instruction shall be thorough at all the branches taught; and those who desire to gain and are willing to study will find it a very PROFITABLE SCHOOL.
