

LEWIS MANN'S COLUMN

Lewis Mann
At home again, in the store opposite the North-west corner of the Court House square, and is receiving from New York and Philadelphia, not a "mammoth stock" of winter dry goods, but sufficient to supply the demand of this community, and of such variety as to suit all tastes. Having had considerable experience in supplying the people of this section of the county with Prints and Dress Goods, and having selected his assortment from two cities, he flatters himself that his present stock is a little ahead of any ever offered for sale in Condersport. He would therefore say to his old customers, Step in and examine for yourselves—and to the people generally that his goods are for sale—that he will be happy to make his visitors feel at home. Give him a call.

War Declared at Last.
THE long repose of Europe is about to be disturbed by the bugle's note and the revolve of the drum, calling its slumbering millions to arms in the defense of their firesides and their country. England and France are calling for men and means, and sending forward their armies to battle against the aggression of the Russian Bear; but while the old World is convulsed by revolution, unusual peace and plenty reign in the New.

In the peaceful and quiet pursuit of our business we have formed a copartnership under the name and style of N. S. BUTLER & CO., and have taken the store in Empire Block, in the village of Olean, formerly occupied by Thib & Brother, and are now receiving a splendid new stock of goods adapted to the season and wants of the community, which we intend to sell exclusively for cash down, at prices that will cause consternation and dismay in the ranks of old fogies that has been so long established in this section.

Our stock will consist in part of the following Goods:
Hardware, Crockery, Boots & Shoes, Oil Cloths, Caps, Carpets, Hosiery, Drugs, Medicines, Dye Stuffs, Glass, Paints & Oils, Sash, Putty, Chairs, Bedsteads, Mattresses, Feather Stone and Wooden Ware, And we mean to keep such an assortment of the above goods that persons from a distance can be assured of finding everything they usually want at prices that will do them good call and see for yourselves.
