Coudersport, Sept. 10, 1855.

The Pennsylvania Telegraph

ENLARGED FORM AND REDUCED TERMS.

THE CASH SYSTEM ADOPTED.

On and after the 1st of January, 1856, the Pennsylvania Telegraph, published at Harrisburg, Pa., will be owned and conducted by the undersigned, who will give the best energies to make it worthy of its cause and of its friends.

It will commence the new year printed on entirely new type, and the Weekly greatly enlarged in form, while the price will be lower than that of any other paper of its class ever published in the Capital of the State, and PAYMENTS WILL BE REQUIRED STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

No paper will be sent until it is paid for, and all will be discontinued as the subscriptions expire, unless they are renewed.

The Telegraph will be issued SEMI-WEEKLY, on a sheet of twenty-four columns, during the sessions of the Legislature, and WEEKLY on a double sheet of forty-eight columns the remainder of the year. It will present a comprehensive summary of the Legislative proceedings; all important general laws as they are passed, and aim to give the current political intelligence of the times in the fullest and most reliable manner. In short, the proprietors hope to make it a complete Family and Political Journal, that they confidently appeal to the people of Pennsylvania to sustain their enterprise.

The Telegraph will advocate a liberal political policy, and aim to unite all those who, though animated by the same common purposes, and looking to the same beneficent results, seem distracted by the conflict of discordant organizations. It will sustain the highest standard of American Nationality; and, while yielding a sacred obedience to the compromises of the Constitution, will determinedly resist the extension of Human Slavery. It will give a cordial, earnest but independent support to the administration of Gov. Pollock.

TERMS—STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

The Telegraph will be furnished SEMI-WEEKLY during the sessions of the Legislature, and WEEKLY, on a double sheet, the remainder of the year, at the following low rates—the money invariably to accompany the order:

Single subscriptions	$2 00
Five copies ($1 80 per copy)	9 00
Ten copies ($1 70 per copy)	17 00
Twenty copies ($1 60 per copy)	30 00

And at the same price ($1 50 per copy) on any number over twenty.

Clubs should be made up at once, and the subscriptions forwarded before the first of January, so that they can commence with the session of the Legislature.

☞ Subscriptions will be forwarded from this office. Advertisements must be addressed to

MYERS & SELLERS,

Harrisburg, Pa.

☞ Business men will find the Telegraph the cheapest Advertising Medium in Penna., I want, than other cities.

LEWIS MANN'S COLUMN.

Lewis Mann

IS at home again, in the store opposite the North-west corner of the Court House Square, and is receiving from New York and Philadelphia, not a "Monmouth street" of wretched city goods, but sufficient to supply the demands of this community, and of such variety as to suit the times. Having had considerable experience in supplying the people of this section of the county with Prints and Dress Goods, and having selected his assortment from two cities, he flatters himself that his present stock is a little ahead of any ever offered for sale in Coudersport. He would therefore say to his old customers, Step in and examine for yourselves—and to the people generally that his goods are for sale—and he will be happy to make his visitors feel at home. Give him a call.

THE NEW YORK HORTICULTURAL REVIEW,

A Journal of Suburban art.

SUPERBLY AND PROFUSELY ILLUSTRATED

Devoted to the Advancement of the Rural Interests in AMERICA.

This one of the largest and most elaborate works of the kind in the world.

Rural Architecture forms one of the principal features. Each number contains from two to four engravings of model cottages, from designs by eminent and skilful architects.—Space is also assigned to the tasteful art of Landscape Gardening; engraved plans of gardens in every style, and adapted to the peculiarities of different orders of architecture, beautify the work.

Engravings of new fruits, new flowers, new vegetables, &c., are illustrated and described as soon as their respective qualities can determined, forming the most complete and elegant Manual of Rural Horticulture ever attempted.

An experienced corps of practical writers seven in number, are engaged to fill its columns.

It contains seventy large pages, and is printed on the finest pearl-surfaced paper, manufactured expressly

TERMS:—$2 per annum, payable invariably in advance. Fifty cents commission on each subscriber allowed to those who act as agents. $1,000 will be distributed at the end of the year among those who send the twenty largest lists of subscribers. These premiums will be paid in cash. The first premium will be $500.

The following are selected from hundreds of similar notices, voluntarily contributed by contemporaneous publications:—

The Horticultural Review deserves the most liberal patronage. It is no, only eminently practical, but is written in a style that equals the best efforts of the late A. J. Downing.—Ann. Intelligencer.

The most elegant and useful book of the kind has ever come under our observation. —Register.

Mr. Reages, the Editor of the Horticultural Review, is a practical pomologist, and one of the finest scholars our country boasts of. He possesses the glowing descriptive powers of Dickens, he reads gossip of Walpole, combined with a thorough knowledge of rural art.—State Police Tribune.

Farmers, buy it for your sons—buy it for your daughters. It is a rich mine of beauty, a rare combination of the beautiful and the useful.—Argus, N. Y.

We had thought that in Downing's death, the eloquent advocate of rural adornment had become only a cherished remembrance; but in Mr. Reages we discover an equally rich mine of mental wealth, that he adorns the influence of the spirit that is gone.—Montrose Tribune.

Advertisers will find this an unsurpassed medium of publicity, as the Horticultural Review reaches every enterprising in every State in the Union. Advertisements inserted at the rate of $10 per page.

WOOD ENGRAVING

Those requiring Wood Engraving, can have their orders executed in an unrivalled manner Special attention is given to Views of ANIMALS: an experienced English Draughtsman is engaged for his express express. Persons having a distinct or outline proof of the object [by mail] they wish engraved, which will be a sufficient guide to obtain a perfect fac-simile. Stock Breeders will be dealt with on very liberal terms.

Our Exchange List already very large.—Another extension is not desired, as less publishers are willing to give the above advertisement several insertions in their respective papers.

Agricultural Books can be furnished on every useful subject from both English and American publishers, by enclosing to our address the price of the book required.

Specimen copies will be forwarded on the receipt of 18 cts. in postage stamps.
