

for School purposes. The various acts of Assembly, with regard to County tax are exceedingly obscure and unintelligible with regard to the manner of assessing the tax on occupations; but the soundest rule of practice to be gathered from them will be for the Directors to assess "occupations" for School purposes at such rate per cent, as the necessities of the District may require, not exceeding thirteen mills on a dollar, except where the tax at the rate thus fixed would not amount to fifty cents, in which case it should be fixed at that specific sum, according to the proviso to the 30th section of the School law.

Where the duplicate has already been made out, Directors can recall and amend it according to the instructions contained in this circular. The other tax decisions in the Pamphlet copy of the School law conform to the acts of Assembly and decisions of the courts, and are to be received as authority by Directors.

Very Respectfully,
H. C. HICKOK,
Deputy Superintendent.

CHEAP EDITION

AMOS LAWRENCE.

First published Diary and Correspondence of the late AMOS LAWRENCE. Edited by his Son, Wm. R. Lawrence, M. D. With elegant steel engravings of Amos and Abbot Lawrence, and other illustrations, Royal 12mo cloth, $1.

The octavo edition of this work has had an almost unexampled sale. Within twelve weeks after its first publication, twelve thousand copies have been sold without producing any sensible abatement of the demand. Scarcely any other biographical work has met with equal success in the same length of time. The success is due entirely to the intrinsic merits of the work.

It is the Autobiography of a merchant who began business with only $20, and gave away during his lifetime, in public and private charities, more than seven hundred thousand dollars.

As a book for young men, it has been pronounced invaluable. In this conviction, merchants and business men have largely purchased it for presents to their clerks and employees. In Boston, more than eighty mercantile houses have thus put upon it the stamp of their approval, in some cases one hundred copies; in others fifty, forty, twenty-five, fifteen, &c., have been purchased by single firms. This example has been followed in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities.

Clergymen, regarding the book as a rare means of healthful influence in community, have voluntarily contributed to extend its circulation, by making it the basis of sermons and lectures, and public assemblies.

HENRY BEXFORD STONE, in a letter to the New York Independent, volunteers this emphatic commendation of the work: "We are proud of this work. We are willing to let it go forth to other lands as a specimen of what America can produce. The good effect which this life may have in determining the course of young men to honor and virtue, is invaluable."

So high is the estimation put upon the book in all quarters, that urgent and repeated demands have been made upon the publishers by the press and by individuals, for a cheaper edition, notwithstanding the price of the octavo edition is much below what is usually charged for such a volume. Yielding to this demand, they now offer to the public a CHEAP EDITION.

It is a large 12mo. volume, printed on thick, white paper, from the plates of the octavo edition, and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar. All things considered, the publishers are confident that a cheaper book will not be found in the market.

To publishers of newspapers who shall give this advertisement (displayed in good style) three insertions, a copy of the work will be sent by mail free of expense.

The Octavo Edition will continue to be published and for sale as heretofore, at One Dollar and Fifty cents.
