"safe." The same body of office-seekers and office-holders that nominated James Buchanan for the Presidency, nominated John C. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, for the Vice-Presidency .-Life Illustrated.

BALLOT-BOXES OR BAYONETS .- It is not easy to get the exact truth respecting the condition of Kansas, But from the reams of correspondence now coming from that quarter, the great outlines of the case are sufficiently apparent. It is certain that a numerous body of armed desperadoes, acting under the concurrence, if not the direct orders, of the administration, are roving about the territory, killing those who oppose them, despoiling all those who oppose them, despoiling all who are only supposed to be in favor of freedom, and even insulting their wives and daughters. The orderly and peaceful scattler is not safe in his cabin. The chick town of the bonafide residents has been pillaged. The largest building in the territory has been burned, because it was owned by a free-soiler. A gentleman of disanction, Gov. Robinson, is confined on it charge of High Treason! for defending his home against ruffians. These are facts. What are the People going to do about them? Will they meet them next November with the ballon box, or wait till nothing but bayonets will answer! If Kansas shall be subjugated, does any one suppose that the subjugating process will stop there?-Life Illustrated.

From the Montrose Republican. The Nebraska Platform and Mr. Buchanan.

The Keystone Club of Philadelphia. on their return from Cincinnati, paid a visit to Mr. Buchanan at Wheatland to congratulate him on his nomination. In his response, after commending the "law and order" spirit that pervaded the Democracy of this country, Mr. Buchanan proceeded to say;

"Gentlemen, two weeks since I should have made you a longer speech, R. W. McIntire, but now I have been placed upon a liophius & Jones, platform of which I most heartly approve, and that can speak for me. Being the representative of the great Democratic party, and not simply James Buchanan, I must square my conduct according to that platform, and insert no new plank, nar take one from it. That platform is sufficiently broad and national for the whole Democratic party. This glorious party, now more than ever, has demonstrated that it is the true conservative party of the Constitution and the Union."

So there is to be no attempt to evade the issue this time. The platform fully endorses the Nehraska bill, and denies Congress the right to exclude slavery from any Territory-a regular Arnold Douglas platform, as Douglas of the late AMOS LAWRENCE. Edited by claims—and Buchanan "heartile and his Son, Wm. R. Lawrence, M. D. With claims-and Buchanan "heartily approves" of that platform.

Now, doughfaces! prepare to range | cloth, $1. yourselves under the Border Ruffian banner.

Strong Figures .- During the examination of the fugitive slave case at Cincinnati, on Thursday of last week: Circinnati, on Thursday of last week:
Mr. Joliffe, council for the colored people, was asked by the Court what object he had in view, at that stage of the proceedings, in proving the killing of the child. of the child:
