MORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER.
Is the leading American weekly Agricultural Literary and Family Newspaper. This is no vain assumption, but fully sustained by its high reputation, great popularity, and extensive circulation. It embraces more Agricultural, Horticultural, Mechanical, Scientific, Educational, Literary and News-Matter, interspersed with numerous and costly engravings, than any other journal in the Union—rendering it unequalled in variety and usefulness of contents. An actual increase of nearly seven thousand subscribers during the past year, stimulates and enables us to make the fifth Volume, for 1856, superior to its predecessors. With a corps of six able Editors, and every facility for publishing in the best style, we are determined that the RURAL shall excel in both contents and appearance.
Its high literary and moral tone, interesting variety, and entire freedom from trash and vulgarity, render it a safe and desirable companion for the young—a choice paper for the family circle.
TERMS.—$2 a year; $1 for six months—in advance. Great reduction to agents and clubs. 25¢ specimen numbers sent free; give us your address. Subscription money, properly enclosed at our risk, if addressed to
