

[Special Correspondence of the Journal.]
BUCHANAN—FREMONT.
TEMPERANCE HOTEL, N. Y.,
June 23d, 1856.

EDITOR OF THE JOURNAL. Since I arrived in New York last Friday night, I have had very good opportunities of feeling the popular pulse on the fever which just now rages here when either of the names at the head of this letter are mentioned. I will therefore submit to your readers my impression of their respective chances in November.

Since the announcement of the Philadelphia nominations, the opposition presses have searched all the records in vain for a flaw or flaws in the public life of Mr. Fremont. They have finally found one, and they think it must be his political death blow. It is the monstrous fact that Col. John C. Fremont is only FORTY THREE YEARS OLD! This astounding fact that the Republican candidate is yet in his infancy, has been played on all the opposition organs, on several notes of the scale, generally commencing on Col. F. sharp and so descending to Mr. James B. Ait, quite a new tune in the "music of the Union."

In ransacking the records they have found in the public documents a Washington several things which they would rather not have seen, as for example, a lengthy eulogium of W. L. Marcy when Sec'y. of War, on the public services of Mr. Fremont. Also the fact that he is a Democrat, was sent to the United States Senate as such, is still a Democrat, and only differs from Buchanan in the fact that he is opposed to Fillibusterism, and Buchanan is not; he is opposed to the extension and perpetuation of Slavery, and Buchanan is not; he is opposed to making Kansas a Slave State, and Buchanan is not.

Turning from Fremont to the negative assertions just made in relation to Buchanan, it may seem fit to justify these assertions by facts. It is well known that Mr. Buchanan, probably in the imbecility of old age, advocated the mad sentiments of the Oatland circular, which in effect are the principles of the Border Ruffians, and mean this: "Get Cuba by purchase if we can—by armed and irresponsible mobs if we must." I challenge Hunkerism to put a different construction on this than the one first written.—And James Buchanan is the ostensible author of the Circular. The second and third assertions above, are so nearly connected, that to prove one is to prove both. I therefore refer you to Buchanan's letter accepting the Cincinnati nomination. If that is not sufficient proof, pray what is?

The New York Herald (its character needs no comment) which always had the faculty of finding out the strong side has already declared, virtually, that Buchanan is a doomed man—politically doomed. In the mean time it stands open for a bid, and in one week it will advocate Mr. Buchanan if the Treasury of the secret order of Tammany Democrats is not dry.—What a horrible thing, by the way, is this midnight order of Know Nothings to the daylight Democracy! But it is a curious fact that Secret Tammany never attracted such horrible attention. Why? Because the dear Irish brogue, and the dearer Irish vote, have been used by the secret Order of Tammany Democracy for the last fifteen years at least, to uphold the curse of Slavery. Hence a blow at this corruption is made a bugbear of, to frighten the Irish, and Tammany machinery is brought out with all its corruption and rowdiness to effect the same object—the loaves and fishes. I have met many intelligent Irishmen who are tired of this, and will support John C. Fremont, although the National Democrat has found out that James Buchanan's great grand mother's aunt or something, was an Irishman, I am assured by Dr. Egan of Chicago, a Douglas man formerly, but now a Republican, that half the Irish in that city will vote for Fremont. The murder of the Irishman Keating, by Herbert, and the refusal of the Pro-Slavery Cincinnati Convention, to hear D'Arcy McGee's letter on the subject, has opened the eyes of many to the fact that the poor working Irishman is regarded by Sham Democracy in the same light as the working negro slave, and their lives, except on the day of election, equally valuable or valueless.

Last night, Sunday night as it was, cannons were fired for half an hour in the park because Mr. Filmore had arrived. I have no objection to offer to this, only that I was asleep when it commenced and dreamed of the destruction of Lawrence on a grander scale than I witnessed that chivalric on-et. Perhaps this demonstration was due to an eminent statesman—an ex-President at that; perhaps it would have been better to wait till Monday morning.

"Fremont Clubs" are being formed here by the young men of almost every ward, as you will doubtless have learned by the papers. I have seen few Buchanan men, probably because my mission does not bring me in their way. The feeling here is that Fremont will be elected with or without Pennsylvania. A company of settlers started for Kansas from this city this morning.

H. Y.
For the Journal.
Bro. MANN: I want to give you and the readers of the Journal a short account of a visit to Spencer, Tioga Co, N. Y., which I made on the 9th, 10th & 11th days of the present month, and also the rare privilege I enjoyed at a Baptist Association held in that place at that time. The distance from this place is about 30 miles, and in a north east direction. Bros. W. H. H. Dwyer and S. Niles were my traveling companions who beguiled the tedium of the way by a number of discussions on moral and political subjects. We arrived at S— about sunset the 9th, and were welcomed to the hospitality of Rev. W. H. Spencer, Pastor of the Baptist Church in the place, where, notwithstanding a different purpose on my part, I was compelled to regard my home during my stay.

We arose early, the morning of the 10th and went three miles to drink of a mineral spring, and returned in time to hear an able sermon at 11 o'clock by Rev. Wm. King of Owego. In the P. M. we listened to Rev. Mr. Cole of Maine Brooks Co., who preached a sermon for the times, bearing heavily against evils in high places, and not at all complimentary of American Slavery. The rest of the P. M. was devoted to those items usually receiving the attention of such bodies. The evening, from 7 1/2 till about 11 o'clock was devoted to a free conference discussion of "the legitimate relation of the church to Intemperance and American Slavery." And though the speakers were confined to 10 minutes, yet I never witnessed greater skill and promptitude on any occasion. They were all full of anti-slavery fire and feeling, and some of them dealt heavy blows against the R. A. O'Garey. But nothing did the speakers seem to love to hate so intensely as American Slavery, that thing, as one of them said "which unmans humanity." The President of the meeting, said, after defining the church and intemperance and American Slavery, that "there was no legitimate relation existing between them; there was a relation, but it was an illegitimate one, and the church of God ought to be ashamed to acknowledge the bastardy." But I will not attempt a report. Suffice it to say that about a dozen spoke on the occasion, and all with a heartiness and enthusiasm which constrained me to believe that the spirit of Liberty is not yet crushed to death, but lives still in noble hearts, to prompt to noble deeds.

On the A. M. of Wednesday, six resolutions were presented to the Association for its acceptance or rejection. The 5th which read as follows, elicited a warm discussion but was finally unanimously passed as were all the rest. "Resolved, That the church north, is in a great measure, responsible for the present condition of American Slavery."

In conclusion I would remark that when the number of those present at these meetings (ranging from 500 to 700) is taken into the account, and the additional fact that at the session of the same body last year, a moderate resolution on the subject of Slavery failed to be passed, we have reason to hope that God now, as anciently, is making the wrath of man to praise him, and in it the means resorted to by the slave oligarchy to win Kansas to its foul embrace, shall be the only note sufficient to wake the north from her slumbers, and to lead her forth in the strength of her political rights against the stupendous sin of American Slavery.

CHEAP EDITION
AMOS LAWRENCE.
First published Diary and Correspondence of the late AMOS LAWRENCE, edited by his Son, Wm. R. Lawrence, M. D. With elegant steel engravings of Amos and Abbot Lawrence, and other illustrations, Royal 12mo cloth, $1.
The cheap edition of this work has had an almost unexampled sale. Within twelve weeks after its first publication, twelve thousand copies have been sold without producing any sensible abatement of the demand. Scarcely any other biographical work has met with equal success in the same length of time. The success is due entirely to the intrinsic merits of the work.
It is the autobiography of a merchant who began business with only $20, and gave away during his lifetime, in public and private charities, more than seven hundred thousand dollars.
As a book for young men, it has been pronounced by all who read it, to be the most valuable and instructive work ever published. It is for pressmen to their clerks and employes. In 1850, more than eighty mercantile houses have put upon it the stamp of their approval, in some cases one hundred copies; in others fifty, twenty-five, fifteen, &c., have been purchased by a single firm. The exchange has been followed in New York, Philadelphia, and other cities.
Clergymen, regarding the book as a rare means of healthy influence in community, have voluntarily concur to extend its circulation, by making it the basis of serious and useful lectures, and public assemblies.
HARRIET BECKER STOWE, in a letter to the New York Independent, volunteers this emphatic commendation of the work:
"We are proud of this work. We are willing to let it go forth to other lands as a specimen of what America can produce. The good effect which this life may have in determining the course of young men to honor and virtue, is invaluable."
So high is the estimation put upon the book in all quarters, that urgent and repeated demands have been made upon the publishers, by the press and by individuals, for a cheaper edition, notwithstanding the price of the octavo edition is much below what is usually charged for such a volume. Yielding to this demand, they now offer to the public a CHEAP EDITION.
It is a large 12mo. volume, printed on thick, white paper, from the plates of the octavo edition, and is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar. All things considered, the publishers are confident that a cheaper book will not be found in the market.
To publishers of newspapers who shall give an advertisement (displayed in good type) three insertions, a copy of the work will be sent by mail free of expense.
The Octavo Edition will continue to be published and for sale as heretofore, at One Dollar and Fifty cents.
