> For the Journal. LAW AND ORDER.

As the Slavery propagandists claim at present to be par-excellence the party of "Law and Order" we propose to examine their sincerity.

When some eighteen years since the liberty party commenced agitating the Slavery question these devoted friends of the Union-of Law and Order, were the advocates of mob law. Abolition Lectures and assemblies were broken up-buildings devoted to their purposes burned down-presses destroy. ed-editors tarred and feathered and sometimes murdered in cold blood. But it was found that like the mobs sitution, than to abolish slavery. Be which eighteen hundred years ago sides, slavery is older than the constisupposed they could stop the spread of Christianity instead of suppressing the movement only increased its converts. Then at once they were in favvor of law, in favor of all human laws being implicilly obeyed even though they should be contrary to the laws of God and nature. Laws like the fugitive slave law were then the order of into new territory human beings whom the day.

[From the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer. ] THE TRUE ISSUE.

The democrats of the South in the present canvass cannot, rely on the old grounds of defence and excuse for slavery; for they seek not merely to retain it where it is, but to extend it into territory. This resolution required regions where it is unknown. Much less of them to leave Andrew county withcan they rely on the mere constitutional in ten days, or they would be driven guarantees of slavery, for such reliance out by force or killed. is pregnant with the admission that Immediately after the fiee soilers slavery is wrong, and but for the con-stitution, should be abolished. This for there are two parties in the county] held a meeting, and passed a rescconstitutional argument for slavery, standing alone, fully justifies the abolitionists. They are clearly right if slavery be morally wrong, for to get id of it under the constitution, or by amending the constitution, is confessedly impracticable.

In truth, the constitution cannot help Slavery, if it be a violation of the laws of God and of morality. In that case, the constitution should be changed, or the free states should secone, rather than continue to guarantee what they consider immoral and profane. The constitution cannot help slavery for another reason, That institution, extending through fifteen states, and interramitied with the interess, the feelings, and the very existence of many millions of men, is much stronger than the constitution. It would be far easier to change or violate the contution, existed before it, and indepenently of it. We derive no right to our slaves from it, and weaken our cause by seeming to rely on it.

Nor will it avail us aught to show that the negro is most happy and best situated in the condition of slavery.
